Fight Against Non Partisans

BISMARCK, N. D., Oct. 25.—One of the most intense campaigns for state offices waged in any state will come to an end in North Dakota, October 28, with the casting and counting of ballots in its now famous recall election. The three men that the Independent Voters Association attempt to recall from the North Dakota Industrial Commission and it is for the handling of state finances as officers in this body, rather than for individual acts as Governor, Attorney General and Commissioner of Agriculture and Labor, that the recall petition has been set in motion. At the same time the recall ballots are cast, voters of the state will be asked to pass upon six measures it is proposed to write upon the statute books of the state at this time through the approval of the voters and also to decide if they desire to accept or reject three amendments to the state constitution.

The recall petition proper, asks the removal from office of Lynn J. Frazier, governor; William Lemke, attorney general; and John N. Hagen, commissioner of agriculture and labor. The candidates to fill these positions, if vacated, are R. A. Neston of Buxton, for governor, Sveinbjorn Johnson of Grand Forks for attorney general and Joseph A. Kitchen of Sentinel Butte for commissioner of agriculture and labor. Mr. Frazier and Mr. Hagen held offices for six years each while Mr. Lemke took office at the beginning of the present year. Their present terms expire with the end of 1922 and if any are deposed the candidate taking the vacant place will fill out this term.

While the battle for these individual places is bitter, so bitter it has passed the stage of argument, an intensive fight of the campaign has been waged over the initiated measures and the constitutional amendments. The initiated measures, if passed, will end what is known in the nomenclature of this state as the "Non-Partisan League Program." The principal item of the initiated measures is the dissolution of the Bank of North Dakota, and taking over of its farm loan business by a Rural Credits association based in part upon the similar organization now functioning in South Dakota, to change certain financial conditions within the state and to provide, by means of two election laws, for separate ballots for candidates for county, state and federal office.

The three constitutional amendments provide for a constitutional debt limit and the creating of a sinking fund for the payment of bonds, and a real estate basis for said bonds, for increase in the pay of the members of the State Legislature and of the combination of the office of judge and county clerk in counties of less than 5,000 population.

While the North Dakota law provides that every voter shall receive a publicity pamphlet, setting forth in full the measures it is proposed to initiate, the same pamphlet presenting the arguments of each side at so much per page, the rival factions have not been content with this method of reaching the voters alone, and candidates and state officials have been in the field in regular old fashioned political meetings for more than a month. Before the votes are counted, many men from out side of the state will take part in the contest. The Non Partisan Leaguers have arranged for help from Gutzon Borglum and C. C. Daniels of New York City, the latter a brother of Josephus Daniels, former Secretary of the Navy; Senator E. F. Ladd of North Dakota, Glen Plumb and William H. Harvey. Mr. Harvey spent almost a month in the state, making addresses upon financial subjects.

The Independent Voters association have announced dates for Governor J. A. O. Preus of Minnesota and will have the assistance of former Senator A. J. Gronna, Thomas Hall, present Secretary of State, Congressman George M. Young and O. B. Burtness and a number of former state officials.

Studebaker

This is a Studebaker Year

For the first eight months of 1921, our sales of Studebaker Cars were 41% greater than for the same period of 1920, and 101% greater than for the same period of 1919. For the same period, our sales of Repair Parts were 13% less than in 1920, and 3% less than in 1919.

On September 1st, 1921, there were approximately 116,000 more Studebaker Cars in operation than two years ago, and yet our parts business is 3% less than it was in 1919. This proves conclusively that—

Studebaker Cars are standing up in service and staying out of repair shops, to a degree unexcelled, we believe, by any cars of whatever price.

This is Your Week

Come and See
What a Modern Laundry Really Is

Here and throughout the United States October 24 to 29 will be celebrated in modern laundries as Visitors' Week. We, in cooperation with 6,000 other laundries, will keep open house for our patrons and friends.

Will you help us make this observance a success in our community?

We want you to come and see for yourself what a modern laundry is really like—how clothes are washed, rinsed, dried, starched, and ironed; how every precaution is taken to give thorough cleanliness, and to safeguard the health of home and of community.

The dates are October 24 to 29—come any time that will be convenient to you.

ADVICE TO LOVELORN AND OTHERS

BY MRS. ELLSBURY.

A Daily Column of Questions and Answers Conducted by a Woman Who Knows. Address your Letters to Mrs. Ellsbury, Care Roseburg News-Review.

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury: When a party of four, two boys and two girls, have been out riding, which of the two girls should be taken home first, the one sitting with the driver or the girl in the back seat? I would like to know which is the proper way to do. Thanking you, I am,

CURIOUS INA, Roseburg.
Ans. It makes absolutely no difference, Ina, which of the girls is taken home first. There is no point of etiquette concerning this. Usually the convenience of the party is thought of in arranging who shall be taken home first.

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury: Would you please tell me where to write for information concerning the Secret Service. Do you think a man having only a high school education would have much trouble in joining?

O. F. M., Sutherlin.
Ans. Write the Department of Justice, Washington, D. C. Unless you have had experience along that line of work to follow your high school education, I doubt if you could secure a position. You might write to them and inquire the lines along which you should study to fit yourself for the work.

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury: Through your helpful column will you kindly inform me of the duties of one appointed on a reception committee. Thanking you for the information,

"A YOUNG MATRON," Riddle.
Ans. I am very sorry that the answer to your question has been delayed and hope that it has not come too late. The duties should largely be determined by the nature of the gathering at which you officiate. At a very formal affair the reception committee stands in line, and the incoming guests file one at a time before them, shaking hands and receiving a word of greeting and welcome. At a more informal gathering the reception committee usually groups themselves near the door and as the guests come in talk to them informally for a moment, and shake hands with them. Through the evening the reception committee should see that everyone is cared for and having a good time.
