st interest was the kitchen and that it was likely to produce. One day when he was visiting his grandmother, he found her in the kitchen busy over the stove.

"What do you think I'm doing?" she asked. Tommy shook his head and hoped hard.

"I'm going to make you a little pie in a saucer all to yourself," said the old lady. "Don't you think good to take all that trouble?"

"Ye-es, grandma," replied Tommy dubtfully. "Of course, it's a wonder of you. But mother told me not to be a bother, so I was just thinking that if it's going to be trouble, p'raps you'd better make it the reg'lar size."—Los Angeles Times.

COMPLETING FATTY'S JURY.

(By United Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—The Arbuckle jury will be completed by nightfall. It was predicted as the second day's session of the comedian's manslaughter trial opened today. Five jurors, including one woman, was tentatively accepted by both sides. The chief question facing the jurors is: "Are you an Arbuckle fan? If so, do you think he is entitled to more consideration than an ordinary person?"

G. A. Wilson, of Urain, spent the day in this city attending to various business matters.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE OF REAL PROPERTY.

The Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Douglas County, in T. Long and Anna M. Long, plaintiffs, vs. J. O. Watson and R. B. Dixon, as executors of the last will and testament and estate of John L. Watson, deceased, and J. O. Watson and R. B. Dixon, as individuals and defendants.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned as sheriff of Douglas County, Oregon, under and by virtue of a writ of execution and order of sale, issued by the above entitled court and cause on the 12th day of November, A. D. 1921, and to me directed upon a judgment and decree of the above named court and entered in the above entitled cause on the 11th day of November, 1921, in favor of the above named plaintiffs and against the above named defendants, J. O. Watson and R. B. Dixon, as executors of the estate of John L. Watson, deceased, for the sum of Eight Hundred and Eighty-one and 49/100 ($881.49) Dollars, with interest thereon from the 11th day of November, 1921, at the rate of eight per cent per annum; the further sum of Twenty-five Dollars as attorney's fees; and the further sum of $16.74, and disbursements; which said judgment and decree commanded me to sell the after described real property and premises, for the purpose of satisfying said judgment and decree.

I will on Saturday, the 17th day of December, 1921, at ten o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at the door at the south entrance of the Douglas County Courthouse in Roseburg, Oregon, offer to sell and sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand all the right, title, interest and claims of the above named defendants, J. O. Watson and R. B. Dixon, as executors of the estate of John L. Watson, deceased, and J. O. Watson and R. B. Dixon, as individuals, or either of them, or that said John L. Watson, deceased, or either of them, had or claimed on the 1st day of June, 1919, or later date since acquired or now have or claim to the following described property, situated in Douglas County, Oregon, to-wit:

1. Lots three and four and the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter, and the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of Section thirty-three (33) Township twenty-seven (27) North Range two (2) West of the Willamette Meridian; and

2. Lots one and two and the northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of Section thirty-three (33) Township twenty-six (26) North Range three (3) West of the Willamette Meridian, and also the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter of Section thirty-four (34), in Township twenty-six (26) North Range three (3) West of the Willamette Meridian, all being in Douglas County, Oregon, together with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging, and all the proceeds of said sale.

To the payment of the judgment and expenses of said sale.

To the payment of the costs and disbursements of this suit and the sum of $75.00 attorney's fees.

To the payment to the plaintiffs of the sum of $881.49, the amount of the judgment due plaintiffs on their promissory note, with interest thereon from the 11th day of Nov., 1921, at the rate of eight per cent per annum, and the sum of $25.00, if any, to be paid to the clerk of the above court for the defendants' interest may appear.

S. W. STARKER,
Sheriff of Douglas County, Oregon.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE OF REAL PROPERTY.

No. 1491.
The Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Douglas County, in P. Harpster, plaintiff, vs. Paul L. Kimball and William H. Doolittle, defendants.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a writ of execution and order of sale issued by the above entitled court and cause on the 12th day of November, 1921, and commanding me to sell the hereinafter described real property to satisfy the judgment rendered in the above entitled cause in said court in said cause on the 12th day of November, 1921, in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendants, Paul L. Kimball and William H. Doolittle, for the sum of $250.00 with interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent per annum from June 1, 1920, and the further sum of $100.00, and the further sum of $100.00 as plaintiff's costs and disbursements in said suit, I will on Saturday, the 17th day of December, 1921, at ten o'clock in the morning of said day, at the front door of the courthouse in Roseburg, Oregon, offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash the following described property, to-wit: the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter of Section 27 south Range 3 west of the Willamette Meridian, in Douglas County, Oregon, subject to redemption as provided by law, and I will apply the proceeds of such sale (1) to the payment of the costs and disbursements of the sale and to the payment of said judgment and disbursements of said suit and attorney's fees; (2) to the satisfaction of plaintiff's judgment in the amount of $250.00, with interest thereon as aforesaid; and (3) to the clerk of said court to be disbursed to whomsoever they may rightfully belong.

S. W. STARKER,
Sheriff of Douglas County, Oregon.
