Dr. Pickin's

By Earl G. Bates

GOOD EVENING FOLKS—

We notice where a Corvallis cat has adopted a baby skunk. Now wouldn't it be mighty disagreeable to have a cat hanging around the house with a litter of skunks? That would be about the last word in human endurance. The mother instinct—strong as the steel—must be mighty "strong" to cause any animal to adopt a pole-cat.

Be-r-r-r! There was certainly a slight chill in the atmosphere this a. m. when ye ed. hot-footed it around the house in an effort to scrape together enough kindling to start a fire. We can't for the life of us see how a poet can grow optimistic over the capers of Jack Frost—unless the poet lives in a steam-heated flat and doesn't have to punch the time-clock at eight a. m. every day.

"Teeny," said Mrs. Biggums to her cook, "I think we will have some chicken croquettes today out of that left-over pork and calves liver."
 "Yes'm," said Teeny. "An' we got a little bread dressin' what went wid the pork, mum. Shall I make some apple sauce out'n hit, mum?"

The high grade of intelligence necessary to persevere this colyum makes it imperative that we serve a memory test now and then just for the purpose of weeding out those who are not on the plane of higher knowledge. Those who can answer the following questions, will be allowed to continue reading the ravings of ye ed.:

1. Who discovered America?
2. What city was named after the first president?
3. What great event in 1776 was made famous because it happened on Independence Day of that year?
4. What were John Paul Jones' initials?
5. What famous Confederate general's three-lettered name started with "L" and ended with "e"?

THE PROOF OF IT.

"We don't hire young women with bobbed hair," said the confectioner to a fair applicant for a position as salesgirl.

"What's the big idea?" she asked indignantly. "Don't you believe I have as much sense with my hair short as I had when it was long?"
 "Yes, miss, just about as much. Good morning."

GREAT MYSTERIES OF ROSEBURG.

Why bowlegged girls insist on wearing short skirts.

The man who is irritable about home can exercise a lot of patience when holding the end of a fishing rod.

Success always means downright hard work.

Why not hire the unemployed to serve as investigating committees and give congress time for something else.

Some people keep up appearances even though it costs them more than it is worth.

There is something about the feel of winter flannels that remind the doughboy of an experience he had in the front line.

Some of Biddle's natural born actors put on a play in that town yesterday entitled "The Old Maid's Club," and that's the first time we ever heard of 'em advertising their misfortunes.

A bootlegger always repents after he has been nabbed. They all tell the same old story—that it was the first batch they ever made and that they wanted it for home use, but Justice of the Peace Gavage Jones slaps a jail sentence and a fine on 'em that makes the bling pig squeal.

If a feller has a home loving wife, one who would rather mend his socks than to wear a waistless gown to a cabaret dinner, he grows restless and envies the chap whose running mate is always a lap or two ahead of him. If he has annexed one of the other variety, one who steps high and always champs the bit, he pines for one of the drabs who combs her hair straight back instead of puffing it out over her ears.

An Elkton feller writes ye ed. one of the "cheerfullest" letters of the year—for the reason it contained a five dollar bill, one of which went for a Prime Pickin's winter Annual and the other four for the good old family journal, the News-Review. The orders for the annual are simply pouring in and the supply will be exhausted before they're even printed.

LAKE PERKINS SEZ:
 "It takes a feller with a cheerful disposition to thaw out froze up water pipes."

PORTLAND CONTRACTOR DECLARES HE HAS GOTTEN RID OF ALL HIS TROUBLES

"Tanlac restored me to health about a year ago and I have been in the pink of condition ever since," said Peter Jacobsen, 1239 Northwick St., Portland, Or., well-known cement contractor.

"Rheumatism and stomach trouble had the best of me for a long time and when I began taking Tanlac I was almost down and out. It was no pleasure for me to eat, as I knew what I would suffer afterwards, and I was so stiff and sore I could hardly do my work."

"I can say for Tanlac that it wasn't long in straightening out my troubles, and in a few weeks this medicine had me feeling as fine as I ever did in my life. For a year now I have been feeling tip-top and Tanlac deserves the credit."

Tanlac is sold in Roseburg by W. E. Chapman's Pharmacy and by leading druggists everywhere.

The Central hotel has changed hands again and is now under the management of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Brill.

The Parent Teachers association will hold a meeting Friday evening at the Presbyterian church. Everybody interested in school work is invited. An interesting program has been prepared and a good meeting is assured.

A pretty wedding was solemnized last Sunday at the J. S. Davis home, when Miss Beth Davis became the bride of Mr. Benjamin Brookbank of Lewiston, Idaho. The happy couple left immediately after the ceremony for Lewiston, where they will make their home.

Miss Vesta Starbuck and Mr. Geoffrey Strong were married in Corvallis last Saturday. On their return home Monday evening a bunch of their friends gave them an old fashioned charivari. These worthy young people have many friends who wish them much happiness and a long and prosperous life.

Cards have been received announcing the marriage, on October 8, of Captain Oren A. Mulkey to Miss Kathleen Moore Thompson both of Port Wm. McKinley, P. I. XX.

THE ECONOMY BAKING POWDER CALUMET

Calumet possesses the farthest-reaching baking powder economy. It is the most economical leavening agent. It saves in more ways—and makes more important savings than most other baking powders.

You save when you buy it. The price is moderate—it leaves you money over the cost of high-priced brands for purchase of other articles. Costs but little more than cheap powders—far more valuable in quality.

You save when you use it. Possesses more than the ordinary raising force—you use only half as much as is ordinarily required.

You save materials it is used with. Calumet never fails with any kind of recipe or with any kind of flour—always produces perfectly raised, delicious bakings.

You'll notice a great difference when you use Calumet. Calumet produces light, sweet, wholesome, flaky bakings. You will notice with some of the cheaper brands the bakings are soggy, heavy, dark in color, and sometimes have a bitter taste.

Used by leading chefs and domestic scientists, and by more housewives than any other brand. Made in the world's largest and finest baking powder plants.

Best by test. A trial proves it.

The Law Says 16 oz. to a Pound

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

The Brunswick

Finished in Mahogany and Oak

Make This a Brunswick Christmas

An ideal addition to the Christmas festivities is a Brunswick, for it brings to each member of the household his favorite music in the intimate atmosphere of the home.

And note, too, that there is no reason when buying a phonograph, to be satisfied with anything short of a Brunswick—for prices and terms on Brunswick are the same as those of other instruments.

Exclusive Features

Brunswick plays all makes of records without attachments. This means that with a Brunswick in your home you can enjoy all the great music regardless of the make of records for which they record.

This is accomplished by the Uitone—a part of The Brunswick—not an "attachment."

Another exclusive Brunswick feature is the Great Tone Amplifier or horn, made entirely of wood and moulded like a fine old violin. It is responsible for much of the wondrously beautiful Brunswick tone.
