

Let Us Convince You

HERE IS AN INVESTMENT THAT WILL PAY YOU BIGGER DIVIDENDS THAN YOU HAVE MADE IN MANY A DAY. We know it sounds like a wild cat scheme, but here is the difference: You can invest your money with your eyes wide open and see just what you are spending your money for—you are not buying a pig in a poke. WE SURE ARE MAKING IT SNAPPY but that is the quickest way to do it. Don't get the idea we are pressed for money—we are not. It's a free will offering. Don't know if you know it, but every dollar our stock invoices over last year we have to pay a good stiff tax on the same.

We consider it good business to pass it on to our Customers and Friends

Now all this sounds queer—we know it does. Every one who reads this has good common sense and that is what we are appealing to—we want to arouse your curiosity. WE WANT YOU TO STOP AND THINK. SEE OUR WINDOWS—COME IN AND SEE THESE SUITS—we have made the prices so low it won't take an expert to tell you what you are saving. ALL THE ADVICE WE ARE GOING TO GIVE YOU IS DO IT AND DO IT QUICK BEFORE THE OTHER FELLOW BEATS YOU TO IT.

30, 40, 50 and 60 per cent

dividend declared on every dollar you invest—going some, we would say.

Pioneer Lady Dies in Yoncalla

YONCALLA, Dec. 29.—Emmaline Ann Cowan Carr, a pioneer, and one of our most highly respected citizens passed away at her home near Yoncalla Wednesday morning, December 29, 1921, aged 74 years, 10 months and 6 days. Mrs. Carr was born in Ray county, Mo., April 8, 1847, crossing the plains with her parents, the late Robert and Caroline Cowan in the same year, locating in the Willamette Valley. Later they moved to Yoncalla in the fall of 1848 where Mrs. Carr resided for the past 73 years. She was married to Samuel H. Carr, October 7, 1872 and to this union two children were born, one of whom died in infancy. Mr. Carr died February 6, 1907, and since his passing she has resided on her farm, two miles west of Yoncalla. She leaves to mourn her going, an only daughter, Mrs. Laura Chandler, of Enterprise, Oregon; two step-children: Mrs. Alice McKee of Alberta, Canada, and Robert Carr, of Portland, Oregon; four brothers and two sisters, James L. Cowan, Drain, J. Walter Cowan, Yoncalla, T. Wm. Cowan, Entiat, Wash., Robert B. Cowan, Montana, Mrs. Lina Estay, San Diego, Cal., Mrs. Alice Kingery, Yoncalla. Also three grandchildren, Floyd, Kenneth and Audrey Baker of Wallawa, Oregon.

It is timely to note here, Mrs. Carr's affiliation with the disciples, or Christian church when a very young girl. Also that she had a lively interest in all the affairs of her church till her condition prohibited her attendance and participation. As a good neighbor, loyal citizen, kind and devoted mother, she leaves a lasting and most gracious memory. Funeral services were held Saturday, December 17, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the Yoncalla cemetery, Rev. Benton officiating. To the bereaved relatives the sympathy of the community is extended.
