

Sprayer Many Growers Have Long Wanted

This new Bean outfit meets the demand for a light-weight rig with plenty of power, high pressure, and big capacity. It delivers 12 gallons of liquid per minute at 300 pounds pressure. If that capacity is about right for you, then the sprayer you ought to have is a

"Bean" GIANT TRIPLEX

It has Bean porcelain-lined cylinders, the most satisfactory cylinders ever developed for a sprayer pump; threadless ball valves, which cannot corrode or stick tight and which can be opened up entirely in less than two minutes; Bean patented pressure regulator, which holds the pressure to the exact point desired, and saves much wear and tear on engine and pump; long-wearing eccentrics instead of cranks; and many other advantages, including the absence of stuffing boxes and stuffing box troubles. FIRES ON FARMS CAUSE BIG LOSS

Numerous Disastrous Conflagrations Could Be Prevented With Ordinary Care.

LIGHTNING IS LARGE FACTOR

Frequent Inspection of Buildings Should Be Made and All Rubbish and Inflammable Material Removed.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Farm fires cost about $20,000,000 a year—$18,100,710 in 1918. Of the fires that year 33 per cent were from causes classified as preventable, 37 per cent from partly preventable causes and 30 per cent unknown but believed to have been largely preventable. With inadequate fire-fighting equipment on farms, fires are hard to control. Prevention is the best way to deal with them.

Defective chimneys and flues took toll to the extent of $1,962,031; sparks on roofs, $1,181,171; careless use of matches by smokers and others, $1,071,987; petroleum and its products, $732,067; and stoves, furnaces, boilers, and their pipes, $374,968. The largest item listed as partly preventable is lightning, $3,933,950.

Inspect Premises Frequently.

The Department of Agriculture advises a frequent looking over of the premises to see that the buildings are in the best practicable shape to prevent and resist fire, that inflammable rubbish is cleared away, and that habits of safety be instilled in the handling of matches, lamps, stoves and kerosene and gasoline.

Gasoline has come to play an important part in farm life that special care should be taken to see that it is not stored in inflammable buildings and is never opened in the presence of uncovered flame. If lanterns must be used in barns, they should be kept in good condition, set or hung in a safe place, and never filled or lighted in the barn. Kerosene lamps should be examined to see that the burners are in good condition and should never be left where they may be upset. Kerosene and gasoline receptacles should be kept apart, and should be so different as to avoid possibility of a mistake.

Numerous disastrous fires are caused by thrashing machines, both by scuttling sparks and embers and by dust explosions in the separators. All smokestacks should have spark arresters, and the ground around the boiler should be kept clear and wet down, if necessary. Grain-dust explosions are largely preventable. The department has made extensive studies of the subject and is prepared to recommend adequate safeguards.

Serious losses are caused by sparks from locomotives, which ignite dry wooden shingle roofs and start many fires in straw, stubble, and grass during dry seasons. If a railroad runs through the farm it will pay to plow a few furrows along the right of way as a firebreak.

Never Smoke in Barn or Garage.
Ordinary friction matches should be kept safe in receptacles, away from children, and never carried loose. Smoking in barns and garages never should be permitted. Fire marshals of western states report greater fire losses in grain and straw the past season from carelessly thrown matches, engine sparks, and automobile and tractor backfire than ever before.

Buildings may be made safer by seeing that the chimneys are without cracks and free of soot, which may take fire and scatter sparks on dry roofs. Flues which may become hot should be covered with asbestos and any nearby walls and ceilings protected. There should be a sheet of metal under every stove.

Out of all the losses by lightning not one was on a building protected by lightning rods. It is now definitely known that lightning rods afford protection. If installed intelligently they reduce the risk from lightning almost to the vanishing point.

Precautionary measures will do much to cut down a loss that takes millions of dollars out of the possession of rural Americans every year and leaves nothing in its place. Prevention is better than regret.

Information for the Investor

The modern investor has neither the time nor the facility to investigate the merits of any particular bond, therefore he will consult some reliable agent or broker, who he knows to be so.

We have dealt with the people of Southern Oregon for 35 years, and have worked up a nice bonding business. And, if at any future time you wish to put money out on interest we will be pleased to send you a list of what we have to offer. Or, if you wish to dispose of any Liberty Bonds we will pay the highest market prices.

Roger's Silverware Given Away FREE To Carr's Customers in 1922

We have made arrangements with the company whereby they will distribute their silverware to our customers at no cost to our customers or ourselves. Rogers silverware is one of the oldest and best known brands in the country, and as this is purely an advertising proposition on their part, they will of course send out only their standard grade goods.

THE PROPOSITION IS THIS: With each 25c purchase made in our store we give a card and these cards are to be saved and when you have sufficient cards to get the item of silverware you wish, you send them in and the item is sent you post-paid and absolutely free. The schedule of cards necessary for the different items is given on the back of each card.

REMEMBER

There is no cost to you. With each 25c of your purchase you get a card. (For instance, a 99c purchase entitles you to 3 cards, a $1.00 purchase to 4 cards). This proposition is limited in Roseburg to only Carr's Store. It is to your profit to
