WHEN 'SPECS' WERE NOVELTY

Many People Wore Them Because It Was Considered the Fashionable

Thing to Do. In the days when spectacles were introduced the world was not all wise. Glasses became so fashionable that people did not walt until necessity compelled them to adopt the new custom. Whether their eyesight was had or good, those who would be stylish wore spectacles. In Spain they formed part of the costume of every well-dressed person. The object of the wearer in putting on glasses was to increase the gravity of his appearance and render himself more directly imposing. A young monk, who had, through the assistance of his family, caused his order to succeed in an important lawsuit, felt him-self liberally rewarded when the prior, having embraced him warmiy, testified his gratitude by saying, "Brother, put on spectacles."

The glasses of spectacles were proportioned in size not to the eyes, but to the rank of the wearer, those worn by the Spanish nobles being as inrge as one's hand. The marquis of Astorgn, viceroy of Naples, after having had his bust sculptured in marble, particularly enjoined the artist not to forget his beautiful spectacies.

IF YOU'VE-Ever Shucked Corn

You Understand Advertising

Suppose you shuck a couple of thousand ears of corn! You're SURE to find some red-and-purple ears among 'em!

But suppose you shuck just ONE ear. Not much chance of finding a kissing ear with but one try! Selling is just like that. The first man you talk with probably isn't interested. But advertise to, say, 5000 families and then you'll sell things. quick!

The more cars of corn you shuck, the more purple ears you find.

The more people you reach with advertising, the more sales you will make.
