School Bond Issue Endorsed

At a meeting of the Fullerton Parent-Teacher association in the school house last night, the bond issue to be voted on at the special school election April 1, was unanimously endorsed. The resolution of endorsement followed a discussion of the matter by City Superintendent M. S. Hamm, who explained the situation in detail. J. A. Knott, George Webster and J. S. Harbour, representing various railroad lines, were present as guests of Mr. Foster Butler and made brief talks. Joseph Dilworth of Vancouver, B. C., a broccoli buyer was also present and made a short talk, advising the patrons of the schools to see that their schools are kept moving forward and are improved and not allowed to go backward.

Ladies Quartette
 Makes Big Hit

The Christian church was packed to the limit last night to listen to the concert given by the Happy Harmony quartette of Eugene. These girls certainly lived up to the name "Happy Harmony," their voices blending beautifully and they kept everyone in a happy frame of mind. Solos, duets, trios and quartettes made up the vocal numbers with several instrumental selections. Two of the young ladies proved to be fine readers and brought down the house with their fine work. Miss Brunt as a child impersonator made a great hit with the audience. These young ladies will be the guests of the church over Sunday and will sing at the Bible school and the morning service. In the evening they will give a thirty minute sacred concert.

ARMORY DANCE:
 Regular dance at the armory Saturday night, March 18. Bed spread on display at Lilburn's store will be given away that night at the dance. Good music, good floor. COME.

the interior of the old courthouse building could be made available for a splendid school building. There is no legal obstacle in making an arrangement with the school district for this use. All that it would need would be a little common sense. Or if it was not wanted for a school building, it could be used to great advantage as a hospital, filling a much needed addition to present facilities. Other uses could be named. Those mentioned are simply suggestions. The old building has value even though it should not be longer used as a courthouse. It is a pity to destroy all of that value needlessly.

As I said before, $75,000 is ample for a new building. The new courthouse at Grants Pass, which is considered the finest in southern Oregon, and is a duplicate of the much talked of courthouse at Klamath Falls, cost furnished completely approximately $100,000. This building is finished in the most expensive marble and hardwood. The floors were inlaid with cork, and other fine work incorporated. So when the estimate is made of $75,000 for the new courthouse, it is a liberal allowance for a most convenient, fire-proof building, just as good in every way as that at Grants Pass, without the marble, etc.

Again, compare the proposed new building with the new high school building in this city. If I am correctly informed, this cost about $75,000. There is no comparison between the two buildings in size. Surely we can get as fine a building as we need for the amount suggested, and have something, instead of a botch. Besides not destroy, but still have the old building also for other uses. TAXPAYER.

THE CHAMPION NUISANCE.

Would he who officiates with us might go commit felony? He goes at night to see a show where chorus-flappers stand row to row their little steps and sing, while bun comedians blithely spring (with limber lips and brazen tongue) gibes that would make the Sphinx seem young! Next morning when I fail would tell, and gather wampum for my soul, this bimbo lets a yip scap his mouth with ribaldry agape, and then proceeds to tell quite badly those "jokes" to which I'd hearkened sadly when I was younger far than now—some day I'll crown that simp, I vow! He tells me all he can remember—wheezes grayer than December—wheezes I hadn't heard of lately; and then he roars immoderately. He even feels that I also should catch the spirit of a show which he had seen and I had not—I swear that baby should be shot!

Prune Pickin's
 By Bert G. Bates

GOOD EVENING FOLKS—
 Dear Ed, of Prune Pickin's Will you kindly tell Me how to keep peas From rolling off My knife.
 CAFETERIA SAMMY.

Dear Sammy: Kindly send four bucks made payable to Ye ed, and we will send you our special patented sand-paper knife.

Green was much in evidence at the St. Patrick's day dance last evening, especially those who tromped on our dogs.

A local canine took a healthy chunk of flesh from the leg of one of our citizens recently and now the owner of the pup has him advertised as a "varmint dog," which is certainly not very complimentary to the victim.

Now that Easter is almost with us and the younger generation will soon be looking for the colored eggs, you ed, would suggest that the farmers feed the fowls Paris green and thus save we folks a lot of trouble.

Estate in Probate.

The petition of Theodore J. Andrews in the matter of the estate of Theodore W. Andrews, deceased, was filed in the probate court today. The petition asks for the appointment of the former as administrator of the estate and W. R. Sawyers, A. A. Sander and W. J. Burchard as appraisers.

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES

First Presbyterian Church, corner Lane and Jackson streets. 10:30. Morning worship. 11. Junior sermon. "Tarry." Morning topic, "The Carnal Man." Junior Endeavor, 2:30. Topic, "Doing Our Work As Christ Would Have Us Do It." Leader, Pauline Hubar. Christian Endeavor, 6:30. Topic, "The Christian as a Soldier." Leader, Arthur Prikauk. Evening service, 7:30. "Gospel in the Stars." The orchestra will lead in the song service and will also present a special number. Those who were present last Sunday evening will not miss this musical treat. Then the pastor's subject is one of greatest interest. Has God given man a gospel message in the stars? Come and hear this corroboration of the gospel story by astronomy.

M. E. Church, South Main & Lane streets, Rev. J. B. Needham, pastor. The church school meets at 9:45 with W. L. Cobb, Supt. in charge. The epidemic of flu seems to have passed over, so let us get back to normalcy in our Sunday school and church activities. There are classes for all and work for everybody. Preaching services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Subject for the morning hour, "An Awakened Church," and for the evening, "Home Religion." The Epworth League meets at 6:30, led by Marion Needham. On March 26 the dedication of the new church will take place. I am sure that every member of the church rejoices at coming to this high day in the history of our work in Roseburg. And we know that our friends rejoice with us. Let us make the 26th an outstanding day in the records of our achievement. Begin now to plan to be present. We have secured one of the strong men of the church, Dr. Charles D. Bulla, presiding elder of the San Francisco district, to preach the dedication sermon. There will be services at 11 a. m. at 3 and 7:30 p. m., with basket lunch in the social rooms of the church.

Christian Church, Corner Pine and Woodward streets. C. H. Hilton, minister. By the kindness of the church at Eugene, the Christian church has secured the Happy Harmony quartette to spend Sunday here. These ladies will sing at the Bible school, at the morning service, and will give a thirty minute sacred concert in the evening. They always attract large crowds in Eugene. The local congregation is making preparation for a revival meeting to be conducted by the Ross Evangelistic company. These meetings were announced to begin March 26, but will be postponed one week. The plans are well laid for the meeting. The pastor will speak Sunday morning on the theme, "Are Revivals Out of Date." In the evening the subject will be, "Twentieth Century Miracles." Bible school at 9:45. We came back almost to normal last Sunday in the Bible school and in church attendance. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:30. Subject, "The Source of Happiness." The public ever welcome.

At the Salvation Army, Hear King David's exclamation, "I was glad when they said unto me, 'Let us go into the house of the Lord.'" If you have not attended the indoor services of the local corps of the Salvation Army then you are not able to judge that which takes place within. The Salvation Army is first of all a truly religious organization of the aggressive type, and its relief and work of visitation is the practical part known as "works." Faith and works go together in the Army. Saturday night a Salvation Army Corps band will have the reading of the Scripture. Service begins at 7:45 p. m. Sunday services are as follows: Morning prayer at 7 a. m. Sunday school at 2:30 p. m. Young people's legion, 6:15 p. m. Evening open air service at 7:15 p. m. "The Harvesters," evening service, 7:45 p. m. Captain and Mrs. Ford, officers in charge.

First Baptist Church, corner Lane and Ross. H. L. Caldwell, minister. 4:45 a. m. Bible school. G. P. Cogswell, Supt. "Slaves of the word of God is profitable to both young and old. Classes for all ages are provided. Be among those present next Sunday, 11 a. m. morning worship. Message by the pastor. The pastor shall be glad to be in his place again after his illness, and hopes for a large

Prof. Thomas E. Isaacs
 The TENOR SOLOIST
 who is singing every night at the Methodist Church

He will also appear at the services at 11 o'clock and at 2:30.

Attendance of the members and friends of the church, 2:30 p. m., Junior B. Y. P. U. All young people over nine years of age are cordially invited. A fine attendance is reported for recent Sundays and good times have been had. Misses Beulah Jarvis and Clyde Black in charge. Ira Byrd, president. 6:30 p. m., Young People's Service, John Hatfield, president. A place of profit and good companions for young people. All young people are invited. Strangers in the city are especially invited. 7:30 p. m., evening worship. Message by the pastor. The public is cordially invited to all services of the day.

Sunday Services at First Methodist Church. The Sunday school will meet as usual at 9:45; and the church service will begin at 11. Mr. Isaacs will sing, and Rev. W. S. Gordon's subject will be "Profit and Loss," a business man's sermon.

There will be a basket dinner in the basement of the church at noon and the Ladies' Aid will serve coffee. At 2:30 there will be a song service and sermon by one of the local ministers, probably C. E. Trueblood, who served in the pastorate for many years. The Epworth League will meet at 6:30 and at 7:30 Mrs. Young's orchestra will play again, and Mr. Isaacs will sing. Mr. Gordon's topic is, "A Lost Christ," and will be one of the most interesting and helpful of the entire series of sermons. The meetings will continue each evening through the week.

St. George's Church. There will be a service in the St. George's church, Episcopal, tomorrow at 11 a. m. The class confirmed about a month ago will make their first communion at this time. Everybody welcome.

REVIVAL MEETINGS AT DAYS CREEK
 A revival meeting is now in progress at Days Creek church. The services are conducted by the three Marion sisters, evangelists, of Florence, Colorado.

All Christian people are urged to help in these services, and all unconverted people are especially welcome. Each evening, 7:30. Special music.

METHODIST REVIVAL MEETING

It was "Young People's Night" at the revival meetings last evening and an unusual number of young people were present. Some came forward at the close of the service consecrating themselves to a life of Christian service, and others made requests for prayer.

There were two selections by Mrs. Young's orchestra, and they have arranged to play often in the meetings.

In order to close early, the song service will begin at 7 tonight, and at 7:15 there will be a sermon by Rev. E. E. Mowinger. When in the active work, he had the reputation of being a strong, fearless preacher, who always "called a spade a spade." The throat trouble from which Mr. Isaacs was suffering has about disappeared.
