RUSH CONSTRUCTION

ed to Have Fireproof Buildings Ready for Occupancy by the Time the Tourist Travel Begins to be Heavy.

Work has been started on the station, and bus terminal to be built at the corner of Stephens and Main streets, opposite the Standard Oil station. This property was leased several months ago by Edward J. Small, a salesman for the Standard Oil company, and Wm. Van Buren of this city. They are now preparing to build the buildings which will be ready to start on the new buildings early this month.

The corner has been leased, it is understood, in a corporation which will have a very fine service station.
Construction will be somewhat on the order of the Standard Oil station on the street, but, it is said, will be provided with a comfort and rest room and with a very large equipment.

During the service station, it is understood, a large building is to be built to accommodate an auto terminal and auto bus terminal. These buildings are being constructed in all parts of the state and are doing a very prosperous business. Lines will be out of the city in all directions and will be ready to start on the new buildings early this
month.

The new building will be a decided improvement to the city and will be a beautiful sight. The buildings will be put into flower and lawns and will be exceedingly beautiful.

The houses which now occupy the corner are to be moved and actual work on the property will take place probably starting next week.
The houses will be moved to Pine street and the other to Stephens. Mrs. Dr. Plyler, who is occupying one of the houses, will remain there for a short time then move to the Perkins building where she will make her office

Gov. Small Again Faces Trial

pected to consume.
The governor already has entered a plea in court of "not guilty". Publicly and privately he has asserted that the charges against him were frumped up by a rival republican faction for the purpose of killing him off politically.

Accuses Attorney General.

He accuses Edward J. Brundage, attorney general of Illinois, a repu-blcan elected on the same ticket with him, of being the chief conspirator against him. He alleges that Attorney C. Fred Mortimer, of Sangamon county, who appears at the head of the prosecution, has been induced to align himself with Brundage in the "conspiracy." He denies that he ever got a cent of the public's money illegally and insists that he is wholly innocent.

Attorney General Brundage says he will leave it to the jury to decide whether Governor Small is guilty or innocent.

"We are trying Len Small, the man, not Len Small, the governor," he said.

The prosecution will make every effort to keep politics out of the trial, it was said. But this is believed almost impossible. Already case has been discussed pro and con from every conceivable political angle. In some quarters the case is referred to as a "political trial."

It will be the first time in the history of Illinois that a governor will go on trial on criminal charges. And Small is the state's twenty-sixth governor. Two other governors, however, John P. Altgeld and John R.
Tanner, have been indicted. But the charges against them did not question their personal integrity or honor. They were merely accused of technical evasions of their official duties.
Neither of them ever entered a courtroom. Small has been in court half a dozen times, while attorneys on both sides put up legal technicalities and obtained delays in the trial for one reason or another.

General Charges Set Forth.

The general charges against Small are set forth in the bill of particulars as follows:

"The purpose and object of said conspiracy were, by means of false pretenses, false representations, a false, pretended and fictitious bank, false certificates of deposit, false drafts, false vouchers, false accounts and false accountings, and by and through the device of a pretended bank under the name of the Grant Park Bank, being in truth and reality no such bank, to obtain the money, funds and property of the state of Illinois and thereby to acquire for their own use and benefit a large sum of money in interest, profit and discount to which the state of Illinois was then and there entitled, for the use of its said money and property."

The alleged conspiracy began, it is charged, during the term of Small as state treasurer, in 1917. The conspiracy, it is further alleged, was carried on by Small's successor, Fred W.
Sterling, the present lieutenant-governor.

During Small's term as state treasurer, it is charged, $17,318,000 was deposited in the bank at Grant Park, Ill., which was run by the late Edward C. Curtis, its president, and his brother, Vernon Curtis, who for years were political associates of the governor. The state declares that the bank was a "fictitious" institution, that it did not exist after 1898.

The interest on the amount deposited during Small's term as treasurer amounted to over $24,066.25; but, it is alleged, the governor turned in only $450,019.12, leaving a balance unaccounted for of $474,056.15.

Charge Against Sterling.

The amount the state charges was unaccounted for during the term of Sterling—his treasurer was $345, 635.15.

It is charged by the state that transactions involving more than $31,000,000 of the state's funds were carried on through the alleged fictitious Grant Park bank. This money is alleged to have been loaned out and invested, chiefly in notes and securities of the Chicago packers, at interest rates of from 5 to 8 1/2 per cent, while only interest funds at the rate of 2 per cent were turned back to the state of Illinois.

Originally Small, Sterling and Vernon Curtis were indicted jointly.
Small and Curtis demanded a change of venue from "hostile" Sangamon county. This was granted. Then they asked separate trials, which were also granted. Sterling's case has not come up for trial. Small asked to be tried first, declaring that he wanted to clear his name as soon as possible.

It is predicted that at least two weeks will be required to obtain a jury. Practically every citizen of Lake county has read of the case, and it is a foregone conclusion that a great percentage of them have formed a definite opinion.

FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR.

To the Voters of Douglas County:

I hereby announce my candidacy, on the republican ticket, for the office of County Surveyor at the primary election to be held on the 19th day of May, 1922.

I have been connected with this office about one half of the time since 1911, and for the past ten years have been engaged on highway and land surveys. I have thoroughly studied the laws pertaining to property lines, and if nominated and elected, I will employ enough efficient help so that applications for surveys will receive prompt attention. I will make legal and accurate surveys, durably marked on the ground, and file complete and accurate records in both the surveyor's and clerk's office. I ask your support upon my record for honesty and fair dealing with those who have previously employed me throughout the county.

Medical Missionary Speaks at Church

About sixty ladies gathered in the social rooms of the First Baptist church Friday afternoon to greet Miss Lucille Withers, who was the guest of the Missionary society for the afternoon. Miss Withers has been for many years a medical missionary in South China and from her varied experience was capable of bringing a wonderful message to the society, which is organized for the furtherance of the missionary interests. At this meeting Miss Withers spoke of that part of her work which would appeal most to the women and especially of the part which dealt with the great good being done thru the missionary societies of this country. She also told several stories showing the dreadful and dangerous superstitions in which the natives believe, and showing the dire need of instruction for these people in the gospel of God's love.

Miss Withers will speak at the evening service of the Baptist church next Sunday and her message at this time will also deal with her own experiences and that portion of her work which will be of intense interest to the entire congregation.

Mrs. J. D. Taylor and Mrs. E. A.
Spear delighted the ladies with beautiful solos. Dainty refreshments concluded the pleasant and instructive session.

A. J. Jackson, a resident of the Looking Glass vicinity, was in town yesterday attending to business matters.

BRAND RE-APPOINTED

Hon. Charles A. Brand today received notice of his re-appointment as a member of the State board of Higher Curricula. Mr.
Brand has served very efficiently on this board for the past five years and has given much time to the interests of the institutions of higher education in this state. His commission which was received this morning appoints him for the second term of five years, expiring in 1927.

Local Firm Gets Myrtle Creek Bonds

The local bond firm of Rice and Rice were today successful bidders on the $25,000 issue of bonds put out by the city of Myrtle Creek. These are water bonds of the city and are 20 year, 6 per cent general obligation bonds. The bid submitted by the local concern was better than that of six Portland competitive firms. The local company is greatly pleased to secure these very good general obligation bonds.

The city of Myrtle Creek is using the money from these bonds to install a municipal water plant which will be a decided improvement.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH Sunday, April 2nd

Great evening service of music and readings. Three old songs with stories and incidents; three readings and three special musical numbers.

Revival begins next Sunday, April 9.

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES

First Methodist Church, on South Main at Lane, W. S. Gordon, pastor.
The recent meetings were an uplift to the church in every way. Each department faces its task with renewed zeal and new workers. Twenty-one were received in the church last Sunday, making forty-three accessions in the last five months. It is fortunate that the evangelist was the pastor, so he can stay with the flock and encourage those who have begun the Christian life. The Sunday school will meet at 9:15, and the Epworth League at 6:30. A Junior League will be organized at 2:30 for children between the ages of 7 and 14. Mrs. W. L. Martin will have charge. "Some Christians are outside of the church, and some in the church are not Christians, so why is it necessary for me to join?" Mr. Gordon will discuss this question at 11 o'clock, and at 7:30 the topic will be "A Wasted Harvest." Mr. Stanley Starr has taken charge of the choir and they are planning to have special music at each service.

First Presbyterian Church, Lane and Jackson streets, Rev. L. Bowring Quick, minister. Bible school, 9:45.
Mr. E. E. Hellweil, Supt. Morning worship, 11. Junior sermon, "Inside," Morning topic, "God." Junior Endeavor, 2:30 p. m. Topic, "Put on the Armor." Christian Endeavor, 6:30 p. m. Topic, "An Athlete's" Leader, Miss Edna Perrin. Evening service, 7:30 p. m., "To Whom Shall We Go?" The quarterly communion will be held at the close of the morning preaching service. Every member of the church is urged to be present.

Christian Church, corner Pine and Woodward streets, C. H. Hilton, minister. Sunday will be a great day, as it is the last day of preparation before our meeting. The pastor will preach at both services, and has arranged a specially pleasing evening service. The evening audiences have filled the house for many Sunday evenings, and the program of Sunday evening ought to repeat. The usual morning service, subject: "Personal Responsibility." In the evening there will be three or four of the old songs sung by the congregation, and a story of each song will be told. The songs used will be: "Rock of Ages," "There is a Fountain," "He Ledeth Me," and "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name." Three special musical numbers will be given. These will be sold by Clifton Cameron and Jeanette Gibbs, and a duet by Mrs. Stanton and Charles Stanton. There will be three readings: Jessie Gibbs will read "Abou Ben Adhem"; Clarence Church will read "The Puzzled Dutchman," and Mrs. Rusko will read "The House by the Side of the Road." This is a great program.
The subject of the evening sermon is "Not Hid." Bible school at 9:45 with great attendance. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:30. Subject, "Better Bible Reading." Dick Ingsen, leader. This meeting will be one of the famous novelty meetings. A thorough explanation of the plan of the revival will be given the members on Sunday morning. All are welcome.
Evangelist Ross and family will arrive in Roseburg Friday evening, April 7th.

First Baptist Church, corner Rose and Lane streets, Rev. H. L. Caldwell, minister. Sunday will be a big day at the Baptist church. An internationally known and traveled speaker will be at each service. At the 11 o'clock service Dr. E. C. Wilcox of New York City will occupy the pulpit. Dr. Wilcox is the national secretary of Baptist brotherhoods. He is a great speaker. He is favorably known from coast to coast and abroad. He has just returned from Europe. It will be a real treat to hear him. The public is cordially invited.

At the evening service at 7:30 Miss Lucille Withers of South China will speak. She has been a medical missionary there for twelve years and has done excellent work. She is now lecturing throughout the northwest.
Her wide experience and travel, and her extraordinary ability as a speaker have attracted great crowds in other places. Her message is wonderfully informing and inspiring.
China is one of the most interesting nations in the world just at this time.
Hear first hand what is happening there, and what the gospel is doing among the people. Church school at 9:45 a. m. Junior B. Y. P. U. at 2:30. Senior B. Y. P. U. at 6:30. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

M. E. Church, South, Main and Lane Sts., J. H. Needham, minister.
The church school meets at 9:45 with W. L. Cobb, Supt., in charge. Preaching services by the pastor at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The subject at the morning hour will be "Prevailing Prayer," and at the evening service, "Choosing." The Epworth League meets at 6:30. Leader, Reginald Ashworth. The track will be on schedule time next Sunday in Eden-hower and will furnish free transportation to all who will take advantage of it. Mothers, bring your children.
It will do them good.

Amos O. Baker, the Perdue merchant, was in the city yesterday and today visiting with friends and looking after business matters. He reports things up his way progressing nicely.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Sunday eve., April 2. Old

Mexican Wounded in Stabbing Affray Jose Sancio, a Mexican laborer employed with a section crew at Brant, was stabbed quite seriously last night by A. Guzman, also a member of that section crew. The work train has been located at Brant for some time, and according to such details as could be picked up the two laborers have been at "outs" for several days. Late yesterday evening they engaged in an argument and altercation which led to blows. During the fracas Guzman drew a knife and struck Sancio in the side. The wounded man was carried to Glendale where he was placed in the hospital and given medical treatment. It is believed that he will recover. Guzman is being held while an investigation of the affair is being made by railroad officials, who took the matter up with Sheriff Star-mer today. Both men are Mexicans.
Cotton is being raised from Ameri-
