R. Shambrook Elected Councilman

R. Shambrook, until recently of police, and who for many years has been serving the city in various capacities, has been elected councilman to succeed councilman S. Nichols, who has tendered his resignation having moved out of the city. Mr. Nichols has been representing the North Roseburg ward for a number of years and was recently re-elected by a very large vote. He has changed his residence, however, and for that reason has tendered his resignation, which was accepted by the council, which then elected Mr. Shambrook to fill the vacancy. Mr. Shambrook was appointed to take his place and the appointment was unanimously ratified.

ed with much efficiency. While in the council before, Mr. Shambrook was chairman of the street committee and had much to do with the growth of the city's street department and placed it upon a basis where it operated very capably and at the same time economically, building the foundation for its present efficiency. He has served as city road supervisor for a great many years, and at the present time holds that position. He recently retired from the police force to take care of the business affairs of his uncle, Mr. Ridenour, but the city council insists that he again assume an office in the council and in the future he will be one of the councilmen representing his ward.

GLENDAL NEWS

Miss Lucy Copley, who for many years had been a valued and high esteemed resident of this city, died at her home at 2 p. m. on March 28th. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Copley, who survive her. She had been an invalid for six years and at that medical skill could suggest a tender and faithful supply had been done in the hope that it may stay death's parting hand. She held on to life, because such a life as her's discriminated the highest attributes of perfect love and trust. She was ever hopeful and cheerful and in her home a devoted, loving daughter, and in all her relations in her home, a sweet angelic presence that clung to her. Such a life is not lived in vain. Her spirit of celestial beauty and her perfect love and trust will live on. Our city mourns her loss, yet her years of patient suffering have left a lasting impression on all who knew her. Her star of life has risen on a fairer shore. To her dear ones, we can say: Let us be patient, such severe afflictions do not from the earth arise. Her death to us all is a celestial benediction that leads us on to the higher life. Her funeral at Olivet church was one of the largest that has ever occurred in this city. Rev. J. K. Howard, who was a life long friend of the deceased, officiated, assisted by Rev. M. C. Webb, our pastor. The floral offerings were unique and beautiful. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of all in her loss, for she is not dead. Her sweet useful life must ever remain as a ray of starlight to help us all to reach the Heavenly home that is now her abiding place.

It gives us pleasure to note real activity in our city and valley. There are many industries resuming their operations. H. H. Humphreys has just added a fine line of dry goods to his extensive stock of groceries. It includes ladies' and gentlemen's furnishings. Mrs. M. V. Heilm is now on duty at this store. The White House, Lyrell and Dewey, are leading in selected stocks. Also the Cam and Carry, A. W. W.

pole, is adding special features to their fine selection. The McLean Merchandise company is busy and has a magnificent stock of choice merchandise. S. J. Borel also will soon have to build on to his extensive structure in order to carry the immense stock arriving daily.
