

NORBLAD WILL OPPOSE HAWLEY

Present State Senator to Seek Nomination For Representative For Congress.

STARTS HIS CAMPAIGN

Expects to Make Speaking Campaign Through Willamette Valley and Southern Oregon at Once—Platform is Announced.

ASTORIA, April 11.—Announcement was made by State Senator A. W. Norblad last night that he would bow to the strong pressure which has been exerted on him by friends from all over the state and by local civic organizations, and that in a few days he would file as a candidate for the republican nomination for representative in the national congress from the first Oregon district. He will be opposed in the race by Willis P. Hawley, present incumbent of the office, and E. E. Fisher of Beaverton. Mr. Norblad, within the next few days, will start a whirlwind speaking campaign that will carry him through the Willamette valley and southern Oregon districts.

"For some time friends have been urging me to enter this campaign against Mr. Hawley," Mr. Norblad stated last evening. "I gave the matter thorough consideration and then decided that the pressure of my law-business was so great that I would not be able to devote the time and energy to the campaign, so I announced that I would again be a candidate for the state senate. Within the time since I made this announcement, however, I have received hundreds of urgent appeals from all over the district urging my re-consideration of the matter. These have culminated in the last few days with the appeals from the local chamber of commerce and the Astoria Ad club. Yesterday I received a number of telegrams on the subject, among them several from influential men in Marion county, urging my candidacy.

"In view of the nature of these requests I feel that I can no longer hold back from the task. I will need the assistance of every person in this county in the campaign. The time is short and unless I am given all possible support I will not be able to cover the field. It is especially important that all those who have friends in the Willamette valley and southern Oregon write to these people in my behalf.

"It has been a long time since the coast counties of the state or valley counties have had any representative in congress. Mr. Hawley, while a man of unimpeachable character, has not made a record during his terms in the national legislature. A search through the list of his activities and accomplishments will reveal little energy, toward obtaining the needs of his constituents.

"I can promise, that if I am elected the interests peculiar to the various sections of the districts or of this state, will not lack a voice in the halls of congress. I will devote all my energies toward serving the interests of those who have placed me in such a position and toward such matters as touch upon the state of Oregon, the Pacific northwest, and the entire Pacific coast. In these days of progress in this section during which the vast potential wealth that lies within our boundaries is being slowly developed that residents of this district have a voice in governmental affairs that may relate closely to our own particular prosperity."

Will Report on Fire Alarm

Roy Catching, who was appointed by Mayor Hamilton to investigate and outline a fire alarm for the city, returned last night from Ashland, where he inspected the system in use there. The alarm used at Ashland is not suitable for Roseburg. Mr. Catching reports. It is a deep toned whistle operated with compressed air and is automatically sounded by an electrical device controlled from signal boxes located in the fire wards of the city. Mr. Catching will investigate other systems and probably devise a plan to submit to the council at a future meeting.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

Norblad for Congress

Why Not a Coast Man for the Coast Counties?

(From Morning Astorian, April 9, 1922).

Mr. Norblad's Candidacy.

The Astorian is gratified that Hon. A. W. Norblad has accepted the appeal of his home community, so intimately acquainted with his strength, and the call from so many influential sources in the state and will become a candidate for congress from the first congressional district of Oregon, opposing for the nomination in the primaries on the republican ticket in May, Congressman Willis P. Hawley. Mr. Norblad's career in the community where he has so long been prominent, and his larger activities in the public life of the state through his services as a member of the state senate, leave no question as to his eminent equipment for the responsibilities that a seat in the national house demand. Mr. Norblad is recognized as among the able men of Oregon and that standing has been achieved through service of a character where outstanding talents alone could succeed. His election would reflect credit upon Oregon and would give that further prestige to the west's voice in national councils that the situation so demands. Mr. Norblad will enter the race with the close interest of his legion of personal friends and the assured support of thousands who have been in touch with his public service.

However, independent of the personal qualities involved in the candidacy of Mr. Norblad that so splendidly equip him for congressional duties, there are a number of situations that will appeal to the people of the entire state. The great region, embracing the coast counties of Oregon, are entitled to a seat at Washington. This region remains the isolated, undeveloped area of Oregon, with its problems of such a varied and peculiar nature, that only a person intimately acquainted with, and having proper sympathies for, may properly represent. Under present conditions this portion of the state is without such representation. The Willamette valley has as spokesmen both Senator McNary and Congressman Hawley, the immediate Portland district has its voice in Senator Stanford and Congressman McArthur, while eastern Oregon is represented by Congressman Sinnott. Justice demands that this regional discrimination be no longer endured and a fair-minded attitude of the people will so concede when the campaign presents the magnitude and importance of the coast county problems that can be interpreted only by one of intimate acquaintance. It is so generally understood that Congressman Hawley has had no appreciation of the broader demands of his service from a state standpoint that further discussion along that line at this time is unnecessary. A service of fifteen years in congress has found him at the close of that period without prestige, power or initiative, whereas the call of the times—the pressing demand of ever changing, forward-looking conditions—is for men of vision and action. Mr. Hawley affords, in fact, the conspicuous exhibit that congress needs new blood. To elect a man of Mr. Norblad's stamp to succeed him will provide a national service, aside from enhancing the immediate prestige of Oregon as a state, and the Astorian feels confident in its prediction that the people of the district are to make that step.

C. of C. Will Meet Tonight

merce. At the meeting tonight let us work out three or four major things that you want your chamber of commerce to accomplish the coming year, and then bend every effort toward accomplishing them. Efforts in the past year have been devoted to road matters which are now an accomplished fact and Douglas county will not be known hereafter as having the worst roads in the state.

With a budget or working fund small enterprises are being brought to our inland towns and being established on a safe financial basis because they did not demand a large floating labor population for their labor turnovers.

The local cannery must be financed to take care of the grades of fruits that cannot be profitably shipped, and last year over 12,000 tons of apples that would have been a positive waste carried the operating expenses of some of our orchards, and every business house in Roseburg profited by the pay roll averaging $350 per day.

Be on hand tonight to think over some of these propositions and find out to what particular type or group you will find yourself in.
