Bed Room Furniture

Probably no other room, in modern life, requires as much thought in the selection of proper furniture as the bed-room.

It is important that we use care in the selection of this furniture, for comfort, as well as the choice of harmony of colors to please the eye and aid in resting the mind, and calling us from the perplexing questions of the day.

Today we can find such furniture produced in our own state, from Oregon woods, that are inimitable in design, and that cannot be excelled neither in construction nor finish. Look for the name of Carman on this furniture. We have a number of designs in this to select from, and our price is fixed with an idea of giving you value for your money and providing us a fair return on our investment.

TRIPLE-TONED CHIMES AT BAPTIST CHURCH SUNDAY EVE.

Professor P. Waldo Davis, who is now touring southern Oregon with his famous triple-toned golden chimes, has been secured by the Baptist church for a big sacred concert for Sunday evening. Mr. Davis has stood high in music circles for years, having traveled with the DeMoss concert company for a long period. He was also under contract for frequent concerts at the great expositions of Chicago, St. Louis, Portland and San Francisco.

With the triple-toned golden chimes Mr. Davis produces music of a quality and a kind that Roseburg people seldom have opportunity to hear. The chimes have a clear bell-like tone that is exquisite, and holds the listener almost spellbound. Great audiences have gladly heard him elsewhere in Oregon and all over the nation. No doubt a large audience will greet him Sunday evening, and will be delighted by his music. Mr. Davis is a master of his unique instrument. He plays almost a dozen other instruments, but finds that the chimes are by far the most popular.

His concert of sacred music for Sunday evening will include the following numbers: "Holy Night," "Star of the East," "Fill Me Now," "Throw Out the Life Line," "Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus," "I Surrender All," "Saved by Grace," "Christ Arose," "The Fight is On," "Love Lifted Me," "The Holy City," "Offertory," "A Perfect Day." Other numbers will be given. At the close of the concert Rev. H. L. Caldwell will give a brief Easter message.
