

The Genie of the Wires

Aladdin summoned the genie of the lamp and any wish was immediately gratified.

At your command there is the genie of the wires. He will take your voice instantly—without regard to distance—wherever you may desire to find it.

You are familiar with the conveniences of local telephone service, but have you ever thought of the pleasure or profit available in the use of the long distance lines?

The genie of the lamp was the servant of a single individual. The genie of the wires will respond to the call of every telephone user.

Every Bell telephone is a Long Distance station.

Preparedness Was Sermon Topic

Another fine audience was in attendance last night at the Christian church revival, and one of the greatest musical services yet given by the orchestra was very much enjoyed. Some of the finest numbers yet played were on the program for the evening, and another most enjoyable number was the piano selection of "Silent Night," played by Miss Dorothy Ross. The selection was written with the chimes effect, and produced a splendid uplift for the audience. Miss Ross is an accomplished pianist. The song service last night also was a fine part of the service. Mr. Ross certainly had the people singing with a will, and all enjoy that kind of singing. The sermon of the evening was on "Preparedness," and in the course of the sermon the evangelist dealt some sledge hammer blows at some conditions of the present day. He led on from the preparedness of the nation and the individual, to our preparation to meet our God. The sermon tonight will be on "How Tom and Sally Went to Hell from Roseburg." This is one of the striking sermons that the evangelist preaches. There will be no service on Saturday night, but great things are planned for Sunday. Large preparations are being made for a big Bible school, expecting to pass the attendance mark of last Sunday. The morning sermon will be on "The Lord's Supper." In the evening the services will go to the armory, and the evangelist will give a sermon illustrated by chart entitled, "The Six Kingdoms, Where Do You Live." There will be baptisms this evening, and also on Sunday morning. The music begins in the evening at 7:15, but on Sunday evening at 7.

Friday night at Christian church. "How Tom and Sally Went to Hell From Roseburg."

Fullerton P. T. A. to Give Box Social

Friday at 7:30 p. m. the Fullerton P. T. A. will hold its postponed monthly business meeting, at which time the following interesting program will be given: Piano solo, Bertha Kohlhagen. Contralto solo, Miss Harriet Halderman. Reading, Mrs. Ashcraft. Soprano solo, Mrs. Wm. Hindy. "What, Why and How Students Should Read," by Miss Rose Parrott. Musical selections, The Ross Entertainers. In an adjoining room the Fullerton Juniors will hold a box social at the same hour. Much interest in this is being shown by the young people and an enjoyable time is expected under the supervision of Mrs. Bernice Kohlhagen and Mr. Foster Butner.

Now spring capes at a big discount for Friday and Saturday. Bell Millinery.

LOANS.

Do you want money on a non-mortgage loan at a low rate of interest for a term of from five to forty years? Refund an existing mortgage; improve the property you now own; buy more land; purchase equipment or live stock; provide buildings for your farm; or for any other purpose? Then write direct to us. We make loans on ranch and farm lands at 6 per cent under an amortization plan only. Amortization means "killed off." Thus a sum of $1000 borrowed at 6 per cent would be paid off in 33 years by equal semi-annual payments of $35, or annual payments of $70, each payment including the interest and part of the principal. No commissions. For particulars write or phone Douglas Abstract Co.

State Lets Road Contracts

PORTLAND, April 20.—At an adjourned meeting of the highway commission yesterday work on 70.41 miles was awarded to contractors, the sum involved on these jobs aggregating $888,536. There were bids which were opened by the commission last week and which were taken under advisement until yesterday.

Two of the important contracts were for hardsurfacing, one being the pavement for Sexton mountain and the other the Albany-Tangent section, both parts of the Pacific highway. In each instance the commission accepted the bids for "black top" in preference to concrete, the "black top" bids being considerably lower.

Other Projects to be Considered.
Before taking final adjournment today the commission expects to list a number of projects to be advertised for the next meeting, May 9th.

The commission rejected the bids received for the Canas Valley-Myrtle point section of the Roseburg-Coos Bay road and ordered the work re-advertised.

Directions were issued yesterday to Chief Engineer Nunn to have a rough survey made of the uncompleted portions of the Roosevelt highway with an estimate of what it will cost to complete this coast road. The survey will require most of the spring and summer.

State Bonds.
County bonds held by the state. It was decided, will be sold in the near future. These consist of $81,000 of Clackamas county, $14,000 of Douglas county and $6,000 of the city of Rainier.

The secretary was instructed to buy cement for the Amity-McMinnville job from the Oswego plant and for Galesville-Canyonville and Sexton mountain from the Beaver cement plant at Gold Hill.

DON'T WASTE MONEY.
It is a unique way W. F. Chapman has of selling Hyomel, a guaranteed treatment for catarrh. Money back if it fails.

Terms Radio 7th Wonder of Today

(International News Service). GAINESVILLE, Ga., April 21.—The radiophone is the seventh wonder of the modern world, Dr. H. J. Pearce, president of Brenau college for women, told the world, in a message he broadcasted at the installation of a radiophone in the college recently, believed to be the first in a woman's college.

The other six wonders of the modern world, in the order named, he said, were the automobile, the aeroplane, the phonograph, the X-ray, anaesthesia and radium.

Dr. Pearce contrasted what he termed the seven wonders of the modern world with the seven wonders of the ancient world. "The seven ancient wonders, of which the Pyramids is typical, consisted of great masses of matter fashioned by the hand of man," he said. "The seven modern wonders consist of relatively small masses of matter most delicately adjusted."

"The wonders of the ancient world involved ponderous elements, requiring great strength in their adjustment; the wonders of the modern world involve the imponderable ether and the air, requiring great intelligence and delicacy of touch in their adjustment."

"The ancient wonders were located at fixed points on the earth and were the property of certain nations; the modern wonders are produced anywhere and are the property of all people."

"The ancient wonders were subject to decay, and all except the Pyramids have already disintegrated. The modern wonders are eternal principles and time will only add to their perfection and efficiency."

Prosperity Week Dates Are Set

Governor Ben W. Olcott has issued a proclamation designating the week of May 15 to 21 as Prosperity Week and asking the people of Oregon to observe it as such. This is an endorsement of the effort of Portland lodge of Elks to arouse the people of the United States to the necessity of one big concerted move to bring back prosperity to the nation. Portland will observe the week by a festival and golden jubilee pageants, parades, and golden jubilee pageants, the coronation of the Elks new $1,000,000 temple to be the features. The proclamation follows:

Salem, April 15, 1922.
To the People of Oregon:

Peace, progress and prosperity constitute the goal for the biggest pageant on earth to be staged May 15 to 21 by Portland lodge, 142, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. This proposed pageant revolves around the laying the cornerstone by that lodge of its new million dollar temple in Portland.

"Elks' Prosperity Week" promises to do its fair share in assisting to make the year of 1922 a big year for agriculture, business and industry of every kind. The order of Elks believes in making the world a happier, better and more prosperous place, and by injecting some of their psychology into this week it should have a prominent part in bringing about the desired results.

I trust the people throughout the state will cooperate with the Elks of Portland in making their pageant a big success. It is the hope of the Portland Elks that their movement may be part and parcel of the wave of prosperity that is bound to come in the near future. May that hope come true.

Respectfully,
BEN W. OLCOTT,
Governor.

Isn't It Funny--
How can a man sleep on an advertised mattress, in advertised pajamas get up in the morning and shave with an advertised razor and soap, put on advertised underwear, shoes, garters, shirt, collar, suit and watch; sit down his breakfast of advertised bread, advertised breakfast foods and coffee, read the advertised morning paper. He then purchases an advertised hat, lights an advertised cigarette drives to his place of business in an advertised auto and then has the NERVE to say "advertising doesn't pay."

Funny, Isn't It?
