

Vol. XXV., No. 17, OF

PORTLAND MURDER FOR B ed Body in Hop Sack Off of Bridge

NO BODY FOUND

(By United Press)
ALBANY, April 19.—
body had been found Calapooia at noon today Russell Hecker, accused murder of Bowker, is held incommunicado in Portland jail. Grapplers been working since day without success.

Grapplers Search for

(By United Press)
ALBANY, April 19.—
confession of Russel He threw the body of Frank in a hop sack and weigh stones, from the bridge Calapooia river on the Al hills highway, grapplers the waters today for t further developments in being held up pending of the body.

Hecker Leads Search

ALBANY, April 18.—
Hecker, confessed slayer Bowker, Portland music party of Portland police eyes late today to the pla said the body of Bowke with stones and tied i hop sack, had been thrown muddy swirling waters of Calapooia river, two miles we Albany on the Albany-Corva highway.

Albany Gownsmen early begin grappling with it search for the body of Bow Young Prisoner Treated

He has an ashen hue
and his fingers sh rough from palsy, youn appeared in the tonneau of Chief Jenkins' auto wh Albany and Portland offic making every effort toward recovery of the musician's body.

Hecker, upon the advice of Attorney Thomas G. Ryan, of the Portland police sta this afternoon to lead the search for the body of the man who was killed Sunday night. Th drive from Portland to the youth sat with lips se downcast, not even a look into the appealing, tea eyes of his father, who s him.

Hecker Sticks Into Search

When Chief Jenkins' car stopped just at the bridge over the Calapooia, young He climbed down into his seat. His r abandoned him and the stri had played about his lips th his long and arduous grillin and faded in an instant.
Marched forward and tried to find the way to the bridge at

Forestry Films to Be Shown

In connection with Fore Week the U. S. forest showing three film pict in different towns of county. The titles of the are "Grazing Industry on National Forests," "Winged Gu how fires are discovered and "Summer Fun."
Some of the recreational fe of the national forests. Mr. B of the local theatres, h consented to run these pi in addition to the regular sho times on Thursday eve nights and at the Majestic day only.

Power Company Men in

J. R. Thompson and H.
of the California-Oregon Po pany, were in Roseburg to Sharp, who is in charge of of surveying the right of the power line between Pro Engle, which is to be bu the summer, states that a started from Tiller sou a few days. The right of here are being rapidly se the company expects to mechanical work under w in a very short time. The endeavoring to buy pr wholesale lot for the sur and in the heart of the pr ing center of the northw forced to buy Washington where the blood-soaked weighted with rocks and i cargo, had been dragged to