MAN HAS MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.
"I was told by our family physician that I could not live without an operation, as my liver and gall sack were in such a condition. I set the day to go to the hospital, but then I saw the advertisement of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. Since taking it I am feeling like a two-year-old. I am sure I never could have survived an operation." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale at all druggists.

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES

Seventh Day Adventist.—Sunday school at 10 a. m., Arthur Burrows, superintendent. Preaching at 11 o'clock. This service will be conducted by Elder J. A. Rippey, president of the Montana conference, who is in the city on his way to attend the quadrennial general conference of the denomination, which will convene in San Francisco the middle of May. Elder Rippey was formerly of the Southern Oregon conference, but recently accepted the presidency of the Montana division. The public cordially invited to attend these services, which will be held in the Military street church, West Roseburg.

First Methodist Church. on South Main street at Lane, William Stewart Gordon, pastor.—The Sunday school will meet at 9:45, with appropriate classes for all visitors. Mr. J. E. McClintock is Supt. of the main school, and Mrs. F. H. Churchill is in charge of the primary department. The orchestra under the direction of Mrs. Young is greatly appreciated both by the Sunday school and church. The pastor's topic at 11 o'clock will be "The Expulsive Power of a New Affection." This will help you answer the question how to give up your old habits without missing them. The Junior League will meet at 2, and the Epworth League at 6:30. Come and help this fine bunch of young people to put into practice the new ideas they got at the recent convention. Every young person in Roseburg owes it to himself and to the community to attend one of the church organizations of Christian young people. The Rev. Thomas E. Elliott, of Salem, will occupy the pulpit in the evening and everyone who can should hear this great message.

M. E. Church. South, Main and Lane Sts. J. B. Needham, minister.—The church school will meet at 9:45, W. L. Cobb, Supt. "Come in, the water is fine," and you will like the warmth of friendship and fellowship at the church. Mr. Cobb will give the first installment of the story of his trip into Old Mexico at the close of the school next Sunday morning. It will be interesting, you will want to hear it, so arrange to be present. The pastor will preach at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The subject for the morning is "Good Literature." Someone has raised the question, "Are we making great men these days?" The answer may be given by asking another, "Are we reading that which will make great men?" The subject at the evening service will be, "Why Are There Not More Conversions?" The Epworth League meets at 6:30, Reader Louise Yokum. You will find a welcome at all the services.

First Presbyterian Church. Lane and Jackson streets, Rev. H. L. Caldwell, minister.—Bible school at 9:45 a. m.; morning worship at 11; junior sermon, "A Ruby," morning topic, "The Holy Spirit." Junior Endeavor at 2:30, topic, "What the Missionaries are Doing for Alaska." Christian Endeavor at 6:30, topic, "Africa," leader, Mr. F. B. Guthrie. This is sure to be an interesting and instructive meeting, as Mr. Guthrie made his home in Africa for some years. All welcome. Evening service at 7:30, "Knowledge After Death." The Bible teaches that the soul's existence after death is a conscious life. Come and hear about it.

First Baptist Church. corner Rose and Lane streets, Rev. H. L. Caldwell, minister. The program at the Baptist church next Sunday will be extraordinary. Dr. A. M. Petty, the veteran leader of Baptists in the northwest, will speak at 11 a. m. He is a very forceful speaker and pleasing in his personality. He has a long and useful career behind him.

Those who have heard him before no doubt will make a strong effort to be present next Sunday morning. Those who have not heard him will make a mistake if they stay away. It is hoped that every member of the church will be present. Friends and visitors are cordially invited.

The evening service at 7:30 will be in the form of a play given by the young people. It is entitled "The Pill Bottle." It is a very forceful dramatic presentation of the cause of missions. You will find it interesting, instructive and entertaining. The young people have been working several weeks in preparing this play and expect to have it in fine shape for Sunday night. Miss Margaret Page has been directing the work in a very efficient way. This play will be a way of presenting the gospel in a manner that is different. You will be glad to see the play and it will help you. The church school at 9:45 a. m. Carlos Page, assistant superintendent, will be in charge. Classes for all ages. Bring the children. Junior B. Y.
