

Elect IKE PATTERSON

REPUBLICAN NOMINEE FOR GOVERNOR

at the primaries Friday, May 19.

He is a man of rare personality and proved executive ability. Here, briefly, is his story: Isaac Lee Patterson was born in Benton County, Oregon, in 1859. Attended country schools and worked his way through Christian College, Monmouth. Became a successful merchant in Salem. In 1894 was elected State Senator from Marion County. In 1898 was appointed Collector of Customs at Portland, by President McKinley; re-appointed by President Roosevelt in 1902.

A Record of Achievement

WHILE he was collector, the business of Mr. Patterson's office practically doubled yet he reduced the cost of running his office by $6,380 a year. Since 1906 has been a successful farmer at Eola, Polk County. In 1919 and 1921 served as State Senator from Polk County. As chairman of Senate Finance Committee led the fight against wholesale salary increase bills and defeated most of them. In 1921 voted against increasing Governor's salary.

Vote for Patterson and Stop this Waste!

Since 1913 State taxes have increased 743.7 per cent! This gross extravagance must be stopped! Mr. Patterson has pledged that when elected he will make a substantial decrease in your state taxes by efficient and economical administration. A vote for Senator Patterson is a vote for clean, economical business-like government.

Christians Badly Walloped by Baptists

(By C. H. HILTON.)
The Twilight League opened its season last night at Bellows' park. It was a nice evening for an opening and quite a large number of interested fans assembled to witness the first game. Only five innings could be played as it grew dark too soon for more than that. The opposing teams were the Christian and Baptist teams, and the game was an easy walk away for the Baptist. The team assembled by Dr. Delapp seemed to be weak both at the bat and in the field. They scored but one run, and made but two hits during the five innings. In the last inning after Perry had scored on his two bagger, a steady and a wild throw, and Bruton had worked around to third from a base on balls, the next three men fanned and left Bruton stranded. On the other hand the Baptist had much the same team they have had in previous years, and played a very good game of ball. They fielded much better than the Christians, and at the bat were far superior. The fielding of the Christian team was very poor. One time our old friend Dick Bush chased a fly. He got his hands on it and saw a goal post in the field placed there by the high school. Dick must have thought he was playing volleyball, for he gave the ball a toss toward the post, but failed to reach it. Not being satisfied, he turned it into a football and tried to kick goal, but again failed. Dick will have to be reminded that the try at goal has been eliminated from football this coming year, and learn some new tactics. Well, it was the first effort and the boys will all do better after they get warmed up. The Baptists scored in every inning of the five, making four in the first, three in the second, three in the third, two in the fourth, and one in the fifth. If another inning could have been played as they were going on the descending scale, they might have been shut out. The Christians went rudderless till the fifth and scored on Perry's two-bagger, a steal and a foolish try to catch him off base the ball being thrown away. Another long hit was the beautiful three bagger made by Wickham. The Baptists started Jimmy Goodman as a pitcher. They changed in the second to a man by the name of Medley. He had a medley of curves that evidently puzzled the Christians, at any rate he did not let them meddle with him very much. The next game will be on Monday evening at 6:15. The boys will soon pick up and play better ball.

Score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	Total
Baptist	4	3	3	2	1	12
Christian	0	0	0	1	1	2

Administration Puts Business in Government

Encourages Individual Initiative, Establishes Budget System, Reduces Onerous Taxes, Restores Public Confidence and Stands for Sane Policies
U. S. REPRESENTATIVE HOMER F. SNYDER (NEW YORK)

The Republican administration came into authority in March, 1921, pledged to put more business in government and to have less of government in business. That pledge has been liberally redeemed. One of the first things which the Republican administration did was to impress upon business interests that it was up to them to become self-reliant if they wished to become self-sustaining; that they must begin to work out their own salvation instead of running to the Government for artificial stimulus. Legislation has been enacted wherever it could prove helpful, but it has not been permitted to take the place of individual energy and thrift.

Simultaneously with the elimination of Government in business there was an injection of business in Government. Perhaps what will go down as one of the greatest pieces of constructive legislation of the last half century was the enactment of a law creating a Budget Bureau, which made it not only possible but mandatory for the first time in the history of the United States Government to conduct the Government's business in an orderly manner. It is largely due to the inauguration of this budget system that the daily operating expenses of the Government have been reduced in the aggregate over $2,000,000 a day under this administration.

The business interests of the country were given consideration in the enactment of the new tax measure. Surtaxes were decreased, excess profits taxes were abolished altogether, and the shipping interests of the United States—which include practically every business and industry—were relieved from the burdensome transportation taxes that were levied upon freight, express and passenger traffic.

The Edge Act to facilitate the organization of corporations to promote exports was amended in order to render needed assistance to business interests endeavoring to expand America's markets in foreign countries, thereby increasing production and employment at home.

MONSTERS OF DISTANT PAST

Proof That Birds Capable of Lifting and Carrying ON Full-Grown Men Once Existed.
Recent scientific discoveries in various parts of the world go to prove that in times long gone by there were birds big enough to lift a man into the air without difficulty, observes a London Tit-Bits writer.
It is well known that an eagle with a five-foot spread of wings can lift a lamb weighing ten pounds, and that a bird can generally lift one-half more than its own weight. Many of the enormous birds of ancient times weighed many hundreds of pounds, and some of them had a spread of wings which would cover a present-day street car.
There once lived in the Rocky mountains of America a race of parrots seven feet high. One nearly complete skeleton of this remarkable species has been preserved, and fragments of others have recently been dug up. These parrots are supposed to have trodden the earth about 3,000,000 years ago.
Another amazing creature was a running bird of prey of the heron family. It had a head larger than that of a horse, with a huge sharp beak, and was eight feet high. Like the parrot, it could not fly to any height, as its wings were not large enough to support it.
In the island of Madagascar there used to be an enormous bird called the aepyornis. This creature was ten feet high and laid eggs thirteen inches long and three feet in circumference. It is supposed to have become extinct only little more than a century ago.
Although the aepyornis must have been a sufficiently awe-inspiring sight, the "giant moa" of New Zealand, which stood 14 feet high and weighed at least half a ton, must have been even more so.

His Mistake.
The editor of a magazine which is published by a New York bus company offers a prize each month for the best story turned in by an employee of the company on any topic pertaining to company affairs. Here is the one which won this month:
"One seat on top and one inside," shouted a bus conductor at a stopping place.
"Sure, now, and you wouldn't be after separatin' a daughter from her mother," said the elder of two women on the sidewalk.
"Right ye are, I would not," said the conductor, starting the bus. "I did that once an' I've been regrettin' it ever since."—Cincinnati Times-Star.
Predicted the Phonograph.
A prophecy of the phonograph may be found in Cvrano de Bergerac's, "Voyage to the Moon." Cyrano's imaginary traveler tells of a wonderful book presented to him by a lunar inhabitant, which had neither leaves nor letters, a book made wholly for the ears and not for the eyes. "When anybody has a mind to read it, he winds up that machine with a great many little springs, then he turns the hand to the chapter which he desires, and straight as from the mouth of a man, or a musical instrument, proceed all the distinct and different sounds which all the lunar grandees make use of for expressing their thoughts instead of language."

Phone Issue Is Up Against Hall

Charging that the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company controls the telephone company of which Senator Charles Hall, candidate for the republican nomination for governor, is the president, Senator I. L. Patterson, also candidate for the nomination, today challenged Hall to a public debate on the propriety of his candidacy under the circumstances.

The challenge was issued through W. E. Durke, chairman of the Patterson campaign committee, and he informs Hall that it will be agreeable to Patterson to debate the subject either in Albany on May 12, or at Oregon City on May 13.

"I am enclosing a statement taken from the report of the Coos & Curry Telephone company for the year 1921, filed with the public service commission March last," reads the challenge.

Report is Cited.
"According to this report the Coos & Curry Telephone company of which you are president is controlled by officials of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company. It is shown plainly, in fact, since C. E. Hickman, division superintendent of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company of Portland, voted all the preferred stock and one share of the common stock as shown by an extract from the minutes of the meeting of the board of directors on January 16, 1922; and of the dividends declared for the year 1921, the preferred stockholders, all of which stock was voted by C. E. Hickman, received $10,000, and that the common stockholders received $4800.

"This report would naturally put you in a compromising position before the people at this time, as there will be a bill before the people at the fall election which, in case it should carry, would make the public service commission appointive by the governor.
"Senator Patterson expects to speak at a public meeting in Albany in the evening of May 12, at Oregon City in the evening of the 13th and at Astoria in the evening of the 15th and he would be very glad to divide time with you at any or all of these meetings.
"As time is short, I request an immediate answer from yourself or your manager, Hamilton Johnson."

NOTICE

I intend to close my office in the near future. I have about 680 volumes of reports and Digest, including Oregon and California reports, and about 115 volumes of standard text books, including C. Y. C., all of which I will sell very cheap. If interested call at my office and examine the books. Make me an offer for what you want. I can furnish a printed list of the books by mail.
