

To the Voters of Douglas County

I submit my candidacy to the Republican voters of Douglas County for the nomination for Governor. Following are some of the principles for which I stand:

1. I have made no pre-election promises and I will make none, except those herein stated.
2. Taxes on general property must be reduced. I favor substituting not to exceed ten departments for the seventy or more existing State Commissions. (Illinois System.)
3. Not only reduction of taxes, but improved marketing facilities and increased credit are essential to insure the prosperity of the farmer.
4. A more equitable adjustment of the automobile license tax with due regard to the actual value of the car. Gasoline tax for highways only.
5. As to my attitude on the labor question, I refer to my employes, and my Legislative record.
6. Completion of the State Highway System with special attention to market roads.
7. The public school is one of the fundamental factors in our system of Government. I favor compulsory attendance in the primary grades. Teach pure Americanism to all pupils, beginning at an early age. Continue to strengthen and build up this typical American institution.
8. Strict enforcement of all laws.
9. I am against Japanese land ownership or control.

Don't Mix "Tempos" in Your Dress

HERE we have the picture of a young woman draws nearer you are able to take in the details of her costume. Horror! With this dainty visiting frock she wears a hat that was designed for the tennis court! And shoes that were designed for the golf course! She has her "tempos" mixed, and the result is a jazy sartorial composition that is in tune neither with the salon, the sport world nor itself.

The culprit in the photo above is Bebe Daniels, the Paramount star. She doesn't mind being caught in this outfit, because she knows you know she knows better. And she did it on purpose anyway to illustrate some "don'ts" in dress. And to complete the horrible picture she swings an over-ornamented, much too long, much too fancy handbag. A beaded bag half its size would have been proper or a taffeta bag studded in steel beads in a conservative design. With sport suits one should carry a leather pocketbook or a strictly tailored bag. In the case of the sport frock a bag of the same material as the dress is all right.

Miss Daniels, who stars with Jack Holt in "North of the Grande," a Paramount picture, has drawn the long gloves back from the hand. This is permissible only when madame is actually engaged in lunching or tea-ing or in some pursuit that requires the use of the hands, but for just standing about or walking or sitting with the hands unoccupied it is considered very bad taste not to wear the gloves fully. They should then be worn entirely.
