THE DUTY OF A LEGISLATOR.

The men who are elected to public office get it both going and coming. If they consider only their own convictions, and do the best they can according to their own lights, then they are said to defy the will of the people. They much often ignore the popular sentiment existing for the moment.

And on the other hand, if they take the position that they should conform to the majority sentiment of their district, since they are sent to represent that sentiment, then it is claimed they are playing politics, when they should be standing up in their boots and doing what they think is right.

The politician who really wishes to do his duty, is placed in a peculiar position. He is often in doubt whether he should be governed by what the majority of the home folks seem to want, or exercise his own best judgment.

The theory of this government is that the people select their best men, and that they should exercise their own wisdom after careful investigation, and that on the whole it is best for them to exercise independence. If they whiffle around to correspond with all the changes of public opinion, they will often be wrong.

Many people form impressions about public affairs with little thought and investigation. If they went into these matters as deeply as a legislator ought to, they would think differently. The legislator ought not to be bound by a state of opinion which may be superficially formed.

There are some politicians whose views are governed by selfish instincts, and who need to consider popular sentiment more than they do. And a legislator who defies the conviction of the people on a matter that has been thoughtfully considered and debated, has a tremendous self confidence that may not be well based.

THE MANNERS OF TEACHERS.

A teacher's employment agency states that it does not encourage bobbed hair applicants, nor those who use make-up or wear exceptionally short skirts. Some young women who earn a teacher's salary may think that this interferes with their rights of self determination.

But the great majority of teachers understand that their profession has certain responsibilities and limitations. Young women of a certain type may be perfectly good girls, who mean no harm and would never do anything wrong. There is nothing immoral in bobbed hair or in other manners referred to. But if a girl is a little too conspicuous, she is not quite suited to the teacher's position.

The ideal teacher wins friends, not by conspicuous manners, but by her enthusiasm and winsomeness and helpfulness. The parents depend upon her example and unconscious influence to develop the same tendencies among her pupils.

GOOD EVENING FLOKS —

Ye ed. didn't say Anything about our Beautiful Man Contest in yesterday's colyum But, oh boy, Watch us go today!

The most beautiful man in Roseburg has not yet been located. We have our suspicions but cannot confirm the wild rumors that have been reaching our ears.

OH MIN! The other day we announced Bill Mutt, alias Andy Gump, as the first contestant and right on the heels of that announcement comes another.

Charley Leery, of Glory apple fame, is the unanimous choice of the all-day-sucker purchasers.

The race is becoming interesting at this stage of the game, and ye ed. is going to be in boiling water before this old contest is ended. We'll continue regardless of the consequences and guarantee to select THE MOST BEAUTIFUL MAN IN ROSEBURG.

These "most beautiful woman" contests are getting sickening. Ye ed. is determined that mere man shall have at least one chance to cast a ballot for his Venus de Milo of the male gender, hence the contest.

Carlos Black, taffy puller de luxe, whose hair is marcelled for the occasion, has also entered his name and announces that ice cream sodas await the females who will mark a cross opposite his name.

Oh yes, folks, we have some gay young Lotharios right here in the city of prunes, strawberries and roses. It is only a question of picking out the gayest and most charming. GOSH IT'S SOME JOB.

Aggie Pitchford, Joe Murphy, A. Salzman, Mrs. Fred Williams and Mayor Walt Hamilton are hereby appointed as the committee to pass upon the beauty of the Prune Pickin's contestants. Step up and bow, ladies and gentlemen!

The Los Angeles cave woman, who cranked another lane over the dome with a mallet, is now reposing in a cell while hungry movie promoters smack their lips in anticipation of nine-reel thrillers.

The twit, leep ball teams staged six cantos at the Bellows pasture last eve which interfered considerably with Roy Radio Bellows' radio concert. The howling of the congregational fans disturbed the ether to such an extent that the static vibrated against the ear drums of the operator thus causing him to get his feet tangled with the variocoupler.

Tourists continue to throng our streets in khaki garb.

And some of the women who're wearing trousers hadn't oughta.

If you are contemplating going swimming in the Ump. river we would suggest that you lug along a bar of soap and thus combine business with pleasure.

The straw hats which appeared so bright and shiny at the first of the season are now assuming a dilapidated appearance which will soon force the wearers to resurrect the old brown derby.

There's so much whispering going around on the streets these days that we sometimes wonder what its all about.

Ye ed. is going to hobnob with some pencil pushers at Corvallis this wk. which may enable us to bring this colyum up the highbrow class.

The purses the wimmin folks pack around nowadays look like satchels and the only difference is that you couldn't get so much junk in a satchel.

Kenny Quine and Dad McAllister have been seen hitting a poor little tennis ball around a vacant lot near the undertaking parlor before breakfast which causes ye ed. to wonder who gets 'em up so god darn early.

THE WISE ONE. To show her supreme confidence in her new husband she gave him a night key.

And to convince him of his position in the house she had the lock changed.

BAPTISTS TAKE LEAD IN LEAGUE

Defeat Christians In Crucial Game and Are Now at Head Twilight League.

CONTEST GOOD ONE

Baptists Win Victory by Timely Hitting While Christians Are Unable to Solve McClintock's South-paw Delivery.

In a very good exhibition of baseball last night, the Baptist team nosed the Christians out of the lead in the twilight league and took first place, winning last night's contest by a score of 7 to 1. The game was hard fought and was clean and exciting. There were few errors and the Baptists won by well-placed and timely hits. The Baptists scored in four out of the six innings played, while the Christians' lone score came in the first half of the last canto.

In the first inning, Crocker, the Baptist lead-off man, obtained a pass to first base and went second on a passed ball. Black batted him home with a two-bagger and after stealing third, scored at home on a passed ball.

The Baptists were blanked in the second frame, but came back with two more scores in the third inning. Wickham slugged out a two-bagger, stole second and went third on an error. Horton went first on an error and stole second. Both were scored by Singleton who copped off a single. Singleton was caught off third, retiring the side. The Baptists got another score in the fourth when Leon McClintock grabbed a single and scored when his brother, John, clammed out another well-placed single. Two more were annexed in the last half of the fifth when Crocker drew another pass and scored on Black's second two-base hit. Horton singled, scoring Black. The side was retired with the bases full.

The Christians had no chance to score in any part of the game, until the last inning. In this inning Orr singled and took third on an error at short. Anderson sacrificed, scoring Orr.

Leon McClintock, pitching for the Baptists, twirled an excellent game. Only one hit was secured off his delivery, and he had perfect control, allowing no passes. Dr. Finley also deserves a great deal of credit as his fast work at second robbed the Christians of several hits. Out of seven chances he fielded every one perfectly. Anderson, who started for the Christians was pounded rather heavily, five hits being garnered in by the Baptists, while he allowed one pass. He was replaced by Main in the last half of the fifth. Main went in cold, and was wild for the first few minutes, but after getting a good start, managed to pull out of a bad hole.

The score by innings follows:
 Team: 1 2 3 4 5 6 R. H. E.
 Baptists 2 0 3 1 2 X 7 7 3
 Christians 0 0 0 0 1 1 1 3

USCO set the high value mark for 30 x 3 1/2 tires when it originated the $10.90 price last Fall.

USCO today betters that mark with a new and greater USCO—an USCO improved in many important ways.

For instance, a thicker tread—with a surer hold on the road—thicker side walls, adding strength and life to the tire.

And the price is $10.90—with the tax absorbed by the manufacturer.

Men have always looked to USCO for the biggest tire money's worth on the market.

They always get a bigger tire money's worth than they expect.

Josephson to Write 'Main Street' Script

With the reputation of having written and adapted more stories of rural life to the screen than any writer, Julien Josephson comes to the Warner Brothers' west coast studios to do the scenario for the forthcoming Warner Brothers' production of the well-known novel by Sinclair Lewis, "Main Street."

A list of Josephson's stories and adaptations sounds like an "old home" list. Numbered among his most successful for Charles Ray are "String Beans," "Hay Foot—Straw Foot," "Greased Lightning," "Crooked Straight," "Red Hot Dollars," "Paris Green," and "The Egg-Crate Wallop." He also adapted "Hungry Hearts" and "Watch Your Step" to the screen for the Goldwyn organization; for Lasky he adapted "The Old Homestead," and for Isee he wrote the original story of "Homespun Folks."

In securing Julien Josephson, the Warner Brothers feel that they have procured one of the very few screen writers who can capably put Sinclair Lewis's widely-read novel of the small town into screen form.—Los Angeles Times.

Mr. Josephson is a former resident of Roseburg, and a brother of Sam Josephson who visited here just a few days ago. Mr. Josephson's Roseburg friends have watched with interest his steady climb to one of the foremost scenario writers of the time, and are pleased with the fact that he has been chosen to adapt this famous novel to the screen.

Gov. Hart Acts Against Klansmen

OLYMPIA, Wash., July 19.—The state administration board yesterday took positive action in relation to the Ku Klux Klan and other secret societies endeavoring to influence public officials. The resolutions followed a two-days' series of lectures held here Friday and Saturday by Dr. R. H. Sawyer, of Portland, advocating the principles of the secret order and encouraging new membership. It is said unofficially there are more than 100 Olympia citizens in the organization.

Governor Louis F. Hart issued the following statement, passed by the administrative board after a lengthy session yesterday:

"Active members of associations or societies calculated to estrange the people, arouse race or religious passions and antagonisms cannot render that high degree of efficient service and courteous treatment toward the public demanded by this administration."

"Members of this administration, whether directors, supervisors or employees are expected to render to the public service the highest degree of efficiency.

"The people of this state, whether native or foreign-born, white or black, Jew or Gentile, Catholic or Protestant, are entitled to good service and courteous treatment."
