Six Await Noose an Penitentiary

SALEM, July 28. (United Press.)—Six men await the noose in Oregon. Until July 7 there were eight. On that morning Elvie D. Kirby and John Rathle, convicted murderers of Sheriff T. H. Taylor, of Pendleton, went to the gallows.

Abe Evans' case is on appeal. He was convicted of the murder of James Doran in eastern Oregon.

Dr. Richard M. Brumfield, Roseburg dentist, was convicted of the murder of Dennis Russell, a recluse.

George Howard, of Malheur county, is awaiting sentence. From the jury's verdict in the case, this sentence will be death.

Huast Walters' case is now being re-argued in the state supreme court. He was convicted of the murder of Patrolman Palmer in Portland.

Russell Hoeker, youthful murderer, convicted at Oregon City recently for the murder of Frank Bower near Portland, April 17, will hang in September unless efforts to save him are successful.

Dan Casey, whose alleged partner in the murder of Railroad Agent Buck Phillips, George Burns, was acquitted after two judges had disagreed, is being held in Multnomah county jail. His sentence was death.

Twenty-seven men have been hanged within the walls of the state prison at Salem since 1903, prior to which time executions were held in the yards of jails in the county where the crime was committed and the trial and sentence occurred.

Between 1903 and 1904, when capital punishment was abolished in Oregon temporarily by the slim majority of 157 votes, 24 men were hanged and 37 convicted of murder and sentenced to hang. The sentences of 12 of the 37 were commuted to life imprisonment, and one condemned man was granted a new trial and liberated.

Capital punishment in Oregon was abrogated only six years. On November 21, 1919, J. N. Burgess and Geo. E. Peffering, of Pendleton, were murdered by hold-up men at Claremont tavern near here. The incident raised such a storm of protest that in May, 1920, the people of the state restored the supreme penalty by more than 25,000 majority.

Neil Hart, convicted with Rathle and Kirby of murdering Sheriff T. H. Taylor, was the first murderer to hang under the restored law. Rathle and Kirby were the next victims.

CURFEW TOLLS KNEEL OF FREEDOM FOR THIS GIRL

(International News Service.) ALLEGAN, Mich., July 28.—Agnes Allen, 19 and pretty, when she completes 60 days in the county jail will face two years in prison if she does not harken to the curfew bell at 9 o'clock each night.

Judge John Cross, in sentencing the girl for violation of the liquor laws, made her probationary period two years subject to her being off the streets at 9 each night. Agnes is making plans for a lot of beauty sleep.

BEEES ARE VERY PROFITABLE

Common Honey Gatherer is by Far Best Carrier of Pollen—Scatter Through Orchard.

The common honey bee is by far the best carrier of pollen and it will pay the fruit grower to keep bees, even though he may not care to go into the honey business. Bees, however, are a very profitable side-line for the orchardist, especially if alfalfa fields are available to work on after the blossoming season of fruit has passed. About one hive of bees to an acre of bearing orchard should be provided.

Preferably the hives should be scattered as widely as possible throughout the orchard during the blossoming season. Experiment and experience have shown that little reliance can be placed on the efficiency of wind and of insects other than the honey bee in effecting the transfer of pollen from tree to tree, or in fact from flower to flower.

What God Says About NEW CARTS

"And they set the Ark of God upon a new cart"—II. Samuel: 6-3.

New carts are quite the vogue. The effort to get the blessing of God by new ways fills the religious columns of the newspapers with strange advertisements.

This new cart was David's idea, and King David was a man of resource. And yet it must be admitted that he seldom allowed himself to do things according to his own notion. Generally he reverently consulted God about every move.

But this time the idea occurred to him that it would be a great thing to get the Ark of God home to his new city—"the city of David."

Now there were explicit directions as to just how the Ark was to be moved (read Numbers IV:1-15) but with this new idea in his head he went headlong for the Ark. Yes, that is it, "headlong." If he had gone heart-long he would have consulted the sacred records. But he put the Ark on a new cart and put a team of oxen to it and God had to kill a man to show how dangerous headlong ways are.

And poor David was flabbergasted. Now, the ancient records are still the one infallible guide to worship, and new carts are dangerous and many are killed spiritually trying them.

Hawaii Ready to Flay Congress

HONOLULU, T. H., July 28.—(By United Press.)—While the democrats in preparation for the coming congressional campaign, the compiling all possible arguments and facts to show that the present U. S. congress is the rottenest even, it may believe them to come to Hawaii.

For Hawaii is "off" congress. Anything bad you want to say about congress will get the cheer in Honolulu. The reason is that Honolulu has been completely ignored in most federal aid bills, although congress was careful enough to include her in the prohibition amendment.

The latest slight offered by the "Crossroads of the Pacific" is exclusion from the Shepard-Towner maternity aid bill.

Despite all that Hawaiian delegates and lobbyists could do, the gentlemen in congress winked an eye, and cut down the appropriation to a point where it left no aid for mothers in the islands—congress taking it for granted that Hawaii is so far away that she can't kick up much fuss.

The islands have also been left out of a number of other important appropriation bills during the last few years. She was not included in the teachers' pensions appropriations and similar measures.

Plans are under way to form a Hawaiian lobby at Washington, and to spend some money in publicity in the states in order to bring to the attention of the people of the United States the sort of treatment Hawaii is getting at the hands of the nation's legislators.

Meanwhile, anything mean you want to say about congress goes.
