

The Cigar of the Hour

Have you smoked one of the new CARABANAS? If not, stop at the nearest cigar stand and get acquainted with this fragrant new masterpiece of the cigarmaker's art.

It is a rare combination of finest Havana tobaccos grown in ten years, hand-made by careful, expert workmen. The size is larger than usual and in every respect it fulfills the highest expectations of the most exacting smoker.

"By George, old man, that cigar smells good. What is it?"
"Yes, it is good. It is the new Carabana. Have one?"
"Thanks. You're a scholar, a gentleman and a judge of good smokes."

Buy them by the box. Keep a supply on hand in your office or home, for your own pleasure and that of your friends.

and Attending Apple Convention

A. Brand, of the Overland, Oregon, is in Seattle attending the national convention of apple growers. This is the first time the convention has been held west of Milwaukee, but the attendance is expected to be the largest in attendance representing more than 1,000 delegates from all over the northwest for the purpose of the handling and sale of the year's apple crop in order that the crop may be disposed of to best advantage.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Communications sent to the News-Review for publication in this department should be written on only one side of the paper, not exceed 300 words, and the true name of the writer should be made known to this paper, as we will not be considered unless the author's name must be signed. All articles intended for publication should be accompanied by postage stamps for doing away with primary elections.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Roseburg, Ore., July 25, 1922. News-Review, Roseburg, Oregon.

In reply to the article of C. E. Edman, of Oakland, Ore., I will

It appears to be strong for the party, but admits it can be improved. As a member of the Douglas county central committee, I brot the question of doing away with direct primary law.

There are a few of my reasons for doing so: It would save the taxpayers of the state of Oregon about $500,000 that it costs to hold each primary election. Instead of modifying the present primary law, modify it to eliminate all proxies. Let the individual who wants to run for office pay his or her own expenses, and any individual who is not satisfied with the regular nominee can run as an independent.

Beauty—Softness
—Luster—Health

Trust your scalp as you would your cheeks. Apply a shampoo based on palm and olive oils. To what millions do with Palmolive soap to foster fine complexion. Palmolive Shampoo does that. It is based on the oil blend which for ages has held supreme place for the skin. The purpose is to give the hair luster, softness and beauty, and to fit the scalp to maintain healthy roots. These are results which you want and need regularly.

Lovely Party at Skinner Home

The home of Mrs. L. B. Skinner, at Winston, was the scene of a merry party Wednesday evening when a number of young folk from town, gathered to honor Miss Elaine Simms who is visiting here from Colorado.

The evening was spent in dancing, after which a delicious lunch was served by the hostess. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and everyone thoroughly enjoyed the evening. The invitational guest list included Misses Mildred Parks, Marion Porter, Mary Reama, Rosina Porter, Fern Reymers, Evelyn Quine, Maxine Sykes, and the honor guest, Miss Elaine Simms; Lynn Skinner, Keith Wright, Ralph Buckingham, Cyril Nichols, Adelbert Abraham, Magnus Morud, Frank Clemens, and George Bradburn. Mrs. Skinner was assisted in her serving by Mrs. George Bradburn.

Tot, Aged 3, Puts Officers on Trail

PORTLAND, July 27.—Failure to keep the whereabouts of his "secret" still from members of the family brought C. H. Townsend, who lives on Taylor's Ferry road, before United States Commissioner Frazer yesterday afternoon, and resulted in his being bound over to the grand jury on a charge of manufacture and possession of intoxicating liquor.

A group of prohibition agents, tipped off regarding a still on the Townsend place, journeyed to the property last Saturday, and, armed with a search warrant, rummaged high and low for the nefarious apparatus, but with ill success.

The daughter, aged 3 years who was exhibiting much interest in the proceedings, volunteered the needed information, and led the officers to a nearby creek, where the copper still was located in a deep pool. Harold Walsh and A. V. Riddley, companions of Townsend, were also bound over to the grand jury.

Pretty Wedding at Yoncalla

A very pretty wedding took place in Yoncalla last Monday evening at the Methodist parsonage, when Miss Frances Toner became the bride of James Shields. Rev. J. R. Benton, pastor of the Yoncalla church, officiated, using the ring ceremony.

Both bride and groom were attractive. The bride was charming in a gown of Harding blue, with ruffles of white. She carried a bouquet of sweet-peas and baby breath.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Shields are well-known and loved in and around Yoncalla, and both are active members of the local Epworth league. The entire community joins in wishes of happiness and prosperity for these splendid young people.

Lawyers Visit Here Enroute

An automobile caravan of the Oregon Bar association will journey to the convention of the National Bar association in San Francisco, August 9, 10, 11, the first detachment of about 50 leaving Portland August 5, according to announcement by Jas. P. Stapleton, head of the caravan committee. Each of the county bar associations will be represented, joining the main procession either at Portland or, for those routing from eastern Oregon south, at Redding, California. It is expected that over 150 machines will make the trip. The party will stay at hotels along the way, driving approximately 200 miles a day. The first stop is scheduled at Roseburg, the second at Redding, with San Francisco as the third day's terminal.

Bible School Group Gathering Success

The Sunday school group gathering held near Dillard on Sunday, July 23, was a decided success. Between three and four hundred persons were in attendance, representing seven different Sunday schools: Looking Glass, Dillard, Ten Mile, Garden Valley, Green, Glengary, and Glide. A large delegation was also present from the Roseburg churches.

The day's program began at 11 o'clock with music by Heraher's orchestra, of Dillard. Merle Austin then introduced Rev. Gordon C. Griffin, missionary, representing the American Sunday School union in Lane and Douglas counties. Mr. Griffin explained the nature of the work being accomplished by the union and told of similar "group gatherings" which are being held in the other sections with great success.

A team from the Christian Workers' band, under the leadership of Claire Geddes, was present from Roseburg, and gave a very entertaining and helpful program consisting of a vocal duet by Mrs. Love and Miss Love; scripture reading by Jas. McIntock; talk regarding the nature of the Christian Workers' band by the leader, Claire Geddes; vocal solo by Miss Vivian Orcutt; talk by Miss Bertha Pentney on the Divinity of Christ; quartet by Miss Orcutt, Miss Pentney, Mr. Geddes, and Mr. McIntock.

Special numbers had been prepared by the Green and Glengary Sunday schools, consisting of a reading by Miss Jeanette Croft, of Green; essay on the life of Paul, by Arthur McGhehey, Glengary, and the repeating in concert of the Ten Commandments by five juniors in the Glengary school.

Rev. L. M. Boozer was unable to be present as announced, but his place was very ably filled by Rev. Charles C. Hulet, Presbyterian Sunday school missionary.

During the noon hour a basket dinner was enjoyed by all on the grounds and at 2 o'clock the services were continued.

A prominent feature of the afternoon program was an address by B. L. Eddy, of Roseburg, on the subject, "The Bible—The Word of God." Mr. Eddy denounced evolution as taught by so many of our high schools and college professors, and showed the inconsistency of those who reject parts of the Bible. His arguments establishing the truth of the Old Book were convincing and based on historic facts.

Rev. Mr. Shrode, of Dillard, spoke on the necessity of Christians living up to their profession.

Reports were given during the afternoon by the superintendents of the various Sunday schools, stating the progress of the work in their communities.

An interesting and enjoyable feature of the day's services was the singing of old hymns by the entire congregation, led by Mr. Griffin.

A number of the residents of Green and Glengary are planning to attend a similar group gathering in the Cow Creek valley next Sunday. This meeting will also be in charge of Rev. G. C. Griffin.

It is the intention of those in charge to make this group gathering an annual affair and it is hoped that these yearly meetings will prove to be a great inspiration to all the Sunday schools of this vicinity. XX.
