RULES GOVERNING CONTEST

By reading the advertisements on this page over carefully you will find that certain letters have been left out and a space is in its place. After locating all the missing letters read the names of the firms advertising—the missing letters when arranged correctly will spell one of the advertisers. After you have the solution, sign your name and leave at the Antlers Theatre. (All answers must be in before 7 p. m. Friday, August 11th). All the correct answers will be put together and five (5) will be drawn out. The first one will receive an order for three dollars ($3.00) in trade at any one of the stores advertising on this page. The other four (4) will receive two (2) passes to see Tom Mix in "Fighting Streak," at the Antlers Theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday.
