

Illoch, who was buried a several years ago. He tomorrow morning by field, to make the
for the funeral.

DOEN OF OFFICIAL DUTY CAUSES HARDING TO STAY AT DESK DURING HOT

By WEBSTER K. SOLAR
International News Service
Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—

Harding plans to spend the in Washington "at work." on plans for the presiy have been tucked away g been definitely decided that the president and ng will do their "share" summer.

economic chaos is un-y threatens to find its the winter comes, con-recurrent labor trouble highly important matter the president, not to train that congress is him, and to ease some the worries attending ing the political mem-ad down its greased d to literally nail the White House.

ere is the vague rum-resident may spend a e Bar Harbor (Maine)
of Edward B. McLean, friend of the presi-
be a midsummer party acht Mayflower and will ger than the week-end ments are being made however.

May Go to Mooseheart

the latter part of August, the president has been ng able to keep his promise Mooseheart, Illinois, to Loyal Order of Moose. He ent long ago promised to of labor, James I. Duff, sident of the Loyal Order that he would attend the Moose show at Mooseheart. ent, it was made known House, will be very dis-p that engagement. The cheduled to be something ature of a convention mis-At any rate, it will be juvenile strain. It is is the home of the ained by the Loyal Order as well as the site where has established great ations and manual
H.

trip to Mooseheart is set for August 24. The presi-leave Washington on of August 24, arriving in on the 25th. He would be able omobile to Mooseheart, which far from Chicago. On the night 26th the president, who will ompanied by Mrs. Harding, will ouse guest of either Brigadier al Charles G. Davis of Illiions, or a house guest of Ed-Y. Upham, treasurer of the an national council, whose y estate is there. On the 27th the president will re-o Chicago, where he is ex-aled, as yet, to deliver es, leaving Chicago for Washthat night and arriving in ashington late on the night 28.

May Take Boat Trip

president and Mrs. Harding week respite from the con-of Washington even as ong stay in the capital summer months by making board the Mayflower and ne river to Chesapeake Bay.
It is not even thought he president will take week-end trips aboard the yacht, contenting himself with all-day Sunday voyages. The hope that the president e to make a flying trip to oast late in October has red down to but the hope The indications are that House will remain the president's abode until the summer

MAN EATS PISTOL WHICH SCARES CAR PASSENGERS

International News Service
TROT, Aug. 14.—Frank Higgins was swinging along Mount Elliott 10 o'clock at night when a Grand Belt street car riving stop at Harper ins was diverted by someor come leaping through y. His diversion caused ght interest when the egan following the car through windows and ing as they emerged.
patrolman sensed some-something was happened. A woman stood of the car menacing the passengers—and one consular—with a black ins drew his own weapon commanded her to ere gun!"

may have it if you want woman giggled. ossed it to him. He en-then blushed furiously d the woman and her ion.

n taken into court the nformed Judge Jeffries ace Lubin, forty. The ed himself as James ty-seven.

Lubin said he had been for a month and that red of the wooing. She olver in the street at m, she testified, when on marrying her son Judge Jeffries turned his desk.

you eat this if I let you Miss Lubin.
try to," she said.
as a candy gun, filled g nice brown chocolate.

y Roadmaster First a few days in Salem
the Public Service reference to overhead the northern part of