ROSEBURG, OREGON, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1932.

HOLDING THE TOURISTS.

In these times automobile tourists are running around the country in great numbers. It is a rather easy thing to get them, but it is not so easy to hold them and induce them to keep coming...

It is a mighty fine virtue to be thrifty—earn a little, save a little and spend a little—keeping things well balanced, not living the life of a confirmed miser who earns but never spends a cent...

Uncle Sam will use a "hands off" policy in reference to the Turk imbroglio. However, it is about time some nation was using more effective means to tame these blood-thirsty Turks...

The state of Washington has decreed a "Smile Week." Wonder if this wouldn't be a good wrinkle for Roseburg, even if it caused a few cracks in some of the physiognomies of some of our staid old citizens.

And people are still wondering who brought Charley Hall into the gubernatorial campaign. Will some astute politician please speak up and relieve the situation before election day?

Dispatches report a man aged 94 years who has quit chewing tobacco. It is about time he was quitting all his bad habits. He's not long for this old world.

Fall buying among our merchants is going to make trade brisk. And some exceptional bargains are being offered to the public at this time.

Couldn't be better—this weather for prune picking time.

Claims Glider to Climb 20,000 Feet

CLEVELAND, Sept. 20.—A motorless airplane, capable of climbing to an altitude of 20,000 feet is forecast by Dr. George H. Madelung, designer of the successful Hanover glider...

GOOD EVENING FOLKS— Now that the Turks, The Greeks, The British and The rest of the birds Over there are Scrapping like The dickens we suppose Uncle Sam'll soon be Feedin' 'em all!

An exclusive photo snapped by the staff photographer of Prune Pickin's by flashlight on the links of the Roseburg Country Club at 4 a. m. today just as Dock Neruas was finishing the 9th hole.

NEGLECTFUL. Pussy with eyes closed was purring on the mat when Archie exclaimed: Oh, my, kitty's gone to sleep and forgot to stop her motor!

Take time to think—you can do more work with your head than you can with your feet.

Mike—Don't you think Grace is marrying a bad egg? Ike—Yes, that's why she's afraid to drop him.

Some men eat thirty different kinds of food in one meal and hold the olive responsible.

Hearing a wedding discussed, and her mother's wedding referred to, little Jane asked, "What were you at your wedding, muvver?"

A fool is known by six things: Anger, without cause; speech, without profit; change, without progress; inquiry, without object; putting trust in a stranger; and mistaking foes for friends.

The reason women don't know how to swear is because they won't listen to their husbands long enough.

As I stepped to the lonesome lady in the hotel lobby, I inquired, "Are you looking for a particular person?"

"Bout everybody in the village wants to run for mayor now that ye ed, has announced himself. Gosh, they must be 'raid we're gainter be 'lected."

WOULDN'T IT BE FUNNY IF— George Kimball would take up football!

NEVER. The man who stands on his dignity never gets so tired as he makes other people.

"Is Mars habitable?" "What if it is? That won't solve the housing problem here or assist people who are looking for summer board."

A small boy who was sitting next to a very haughty lady in a crowded car kept on sniffing in a most annoying manner. At last the lady could bear it no longer, and turned to the lad:

"Yes, but I don't lend it to strangers."

IT'S ALWAYS THE BIGGEST. Stay-at-home—"At that museum they're exhibiting the biggest piece of money in the world."

You often hear a man say: "You can have everything I've got except my wife." And he only adds that for fear she might hear about it. One must keep his family life happy.

Sad the tale of mild Ben Meyer, Who tried to fix a call-bell wiper, Tapped high voltage to his sorrow; They're grounding Ben, at 10 tomorrow.

Ladies and Gendarmen: We are pleased to introduce Master Lather J. Barnes, that famous and daring dancer, who twists the light fantastic as it has never been twisted before. He will appear one tonight at the Elks dance providing no one sees him first.

LAFE PERKINS SEZ: "Fools rush in where angels hate like the devil in butt in."

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB Mrs. Charles Head will give a free try-out for a Girls' Glee Club in her studio Wednesday evening, 7:30 o'clock. All girls over 15 years of age are cordially invited.

In Ye Olden Days

Married—At the residence of the bride's father on Roberts Creek, August 20, 1891, by Rev. H. B. Johnson, J. P. Wyatt and Miss Carrie Rose.

Hop picking at the Civil Bend yard commenced today. The price of hops promises to be fair, and are being contracted for at about 15 cents in Portland.

Elmer DaMotta has purchased a half interest in Dyer's barber shop and proceeds over a chair there now. Elmer is a good boy, and has learned his trade well.

Wilbur Heus: Rev. Robert Booth, who shipped his household goods here some time since with the laudible intention of making Wilbur his future home, has reconsidered his former purpose and has decided in pursuance of a call to the M. E. church at Grants Pass, to reside in that place this ensuing year.

Miss Effie Willis will teach the fall term of school at French settlement.

Prof. (T) Hurley, the phrenologist is "doing" Oakland at present, having left here Monday. His real business is selling a very interesting little pamphlet to young men and he probably knows as much about phrenology as a cow.

Ex-Supreme Judge Watson and family are visiting relatives and friends in Roseburg.

William McRee brought us some more fine peaches last week. Thanks.

IN PRISON 47 YEARS. HOPES FOR FREEDOM (International News Service.) BOSTON, Sept. 21.—Jesse H. Pomeroy recently began his 47th year of confinement in the State Prison at Charlestown. Pomeroy has been incarcerated longer than any other prisoner in the United States. He has not given up hope of leaving the institution a free man.

Van Wyck Motor Bus Co. WORKMAN'S HAND INJURED

Jake Nomb, employed by the Hecox construction company near Canam valley, received a severe injury to his hand yesterday evening when a large rock fell upon it. The hand was badly mashed and a deep gash was cut in the palm. He was brought to Roseburg where the injury was given medical attention by Dr. Hoover. Several stitches were required to close the gash in the injured hand.

GREEN NEWS Green school opened on Monday with a total enrollment of 36. Seven are in First grade, 7 in Second, 2 in Third, 6 in Fourth, 5 in Fifth, 9 in Seventh, and more will enter later. Total enrollment last year at beginning of term, 28. This indicates that parents appreciate the fact that pupils cannot afford to miss the opening of the school, according to Professor Goff, the principal. A number of much-needed improvements are being made on the building, also.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanz attended to business in Eugene this week. They are getting settled in their new home which was recently purchased from C. H. Claypool.

John Howard is filling his silo. Prune picking and drying is the principal pastime now. A scarcity of pickers is feared.

The Rev. Mr. Quick, of Roseburg, held services at the Green school house on Sunday, and was welcomed by the congregation.

Rally day will be observed by the Green Sunday school in October. An all-day meeting, with preaching in the morning and afternoon, a program and a basket dinner will be held. By a vote of the members of the Sunday school, this school is now a member of the American Sunday School Union and is entitled to all the benefits of this union.

The picking of delicious apples is under way. Mrs. S. M. Kelley, who has been ill, is improving.

OMAR CIGARETTES 20 for 20 AGAIN

Winners of State Fair Trip Chosen

James and Le Roy Churchill of Oakland and Neta Wells of Oalla and Mildred Stone of Myrtle Creek, have been selected as the winners of the free trip to the state fair and will have all expenses paid by the state in enjoying this event. The four club workers named made the highest records of all of the boys and girls in the county who participated and won the prize which is offered each year, that of a free trip to the fair.

SELLING BANDON LOTS

Chris Rasmussen, real estate dealer of Bandon who is in the city to remain for a few days has interested a number of local citizens in the purchase of city lots at Bandon for the purpose of building summer homes. He states that much interest is manifest in that section as a summer resort since the opening of the Roseburg-Coos Bay highway and enterprising citizens of Bandon are alert to the situation and are going to afford the best accommodations possible for those who wish to spend their vacation at the fine beach at Bandon. Good roads are being widened for the coast section of the state, Mr. Rasmussen states, and plans are already under way to make Bandon and vicinity one of the finest coast resorts in the state.
