THE NATIONAL SPORT.

Thirty or forty thousand people attended every game of the world's series in New York and roared their heads off and had a good time or not, according as the game went. That was sport. And sport is athletics, and athletics is exercise. But all the exercise that crowd got was of the lung and throat kind, except when it stood up to stretch at the beginning of the seventh inning or hung fire from a street car strap on the way home.

THE TRAFFIC CONFERENCE.

The meeting of administrative and traffic enforcement officials of seven Pacific coast states, now in session in Portland, is of consequence to all states and motorists. It is a conference that can achieve much for comfort and convenience of automobile owners.

WASHBURN AT LIBERTY THEATER IN "THE ROAD TO LONDON"

Let your neighbor see Bryant Washburn's romantic and hilarious play on "The Road to London." You'll never forgive yourself, you'll come right over to your own soon as she has seen it at Liberty theater and tell you all the kind of picture this An-Exhibitors' feature is—it's infectious. It is so breezy, so truly adventurous, and funny that you want to relate to someone just for the joy of making them laugh as Bryant Washburn made you laugh.

A TRUE RAT STORY

Suburtnown, C-22-25. Stearns Electric Paste Co., Chicago. Dear Sirs: Mr. Robert T. Donnell of Suburtnown, Tenn., came in our store the other day and wanted something to kill rats, so I sold him a box Stearns Rat Paste. And he put some paste on his biscuits that night and the next morning he found fifty-four big rats. And the second night he put out four more biscuits with paste on them, and the second morning he found seventeen more rats, making a total of seventy-one rats in two nights, and there were lots more that he did not find.
