SUTHERLIN, Oct. 28 .- By the overturning of an automobile in which they were riding, Mr. and Mrs. Lioyd Bridges and Mrs. Will Bridges, of Cakland, were all more or less shaken up and bruised near the local stalen of the Southern Pacific Co., last Friday afternoon.

The car, which was proceeding west on Central avenue, was being driven by Mrs. Ldoyd Bridges, and when on the railroad crossing she attempted to pass a large touring car, which was also proceeding westward. The touring car turned to the right as for as the narrow road at that point would be added the capital acting with an arrow road at that point would be added the capital acting with an arrow road at that point would be added the capital acting with an arrow road at that point would be added the capital acting with an arrow road at the principal roles, with the left, and in doing so went into a deep dramage ditch which parallels the Southern Pacific right-of-way.
