"A WOMAN'S WOMAN" AND MARY ALDEN COMING SOON

News of paramount interest to motion picture theatre goers is contained in the announcement by the management of the Liberty Theatre that the widely discussed and much heralded photoplay, "A Woman's Woman," with Mary Alden in the leading feminine role, and supported by an all-star cast, has been booked as the feature attraction for two days, beginning next Thursday.

"A Woman's Woman" has been the cause of much comment where-ever shown for the reason that it is a picture that tells an actually truthful story of that sort of inner home life that is to be found everyday everywhere, whether it be in Main Street, Gopher Prairie, or in the exclusive social circles of the bigger cities. And from all who have seen this remarkable picture come words of praise for production, story, star and cast, direction and photography.

BOY HELD IN JAIL

A boy giving the name of Ronald Stearner and his age 17 years was picked up here today by officer Ketch. The boy first claimed that he got on the Shasta at Portland by mistake and that he was put off here to take a local train. Later he said that he had lost his ticket and was put off and still later signed a confession that he had forged his father's name to a $20 check in Seattle and had then stolen a motorcycle in Tacoma. He insists, however, that he returned the motorcycle three days later. He is being held while an investigation is under way.

A Christmas tree, and Santa Claus, for the members of the Masonic and Eastern Star lodges and their children, will be the entertainment furnished at the lodge hall Friday night. All children whose parents are members of the Masonic and Eastern Star lodges are invited to be present. There will be candy and gifts for all of the children and a good time is assured. A delightful program has been prepared and will be given prior to distributing the gifts from the tree.
