Some of Roseburg's most popular and well known artists will appear in the leading character roles and comedy parts. One of the best features will be the opening chorus which will consist of more than thirty voices in unison.

Miss McCoy will arrive here this evening and rehearsals will be started at once, the first repersal being scheduled for temorrow night at the Parish house. Although the parts scheduled for tomorrow hight at the Parish house. Although the parts are rather difficult it is expected that there will be no difficulty in getting the production ready for the dates selected. It is planned to give a matines for school children on the afternoon of Tuesday the 22rd.

pany has been presenting "you'll be Surprised" with great success throughout some of the larger cities of the northwest and Canada.

"You'll Be Surprised," is a huge, costumed, scenic, musical consedy in two acts and six scenes requiring much special scenery and various lighting effects. This stage, paraphanelia, the gorgeous costumes and other apparatus and articles needed to give this production its suitable setting, are being brought by Miss McCoy so that there will be nothing lacking in the presentation of this delightful entertainment.
