AN EXCELLENT CAST

An excellent east of players ince-led the various roles of "Behind the loor," the new Thomas II. Ince production for Paramount-Arteraft, which is on view at the Majestic Theatre.
This picturization of Gonverneur Merris's strong story is remarkable in many respects and affords Hobart Bosworth the starring player, a highly dramatic role. The picture is well worth seeing.

BY AKHNATON'S SPIRIT

Prof. Lampton sought to unearth the body of Akhnaton, a king who ruled thirty-three centuries ago in Egypt. Akhnaton's reign stands as the earliest landmark in the higher development of the human brain. He has been called "the first individual in human history, and may perhaps be ranked in desire of genius, as well as in that of time, as the world's first idealiat.

"The Lure of Egypt" pictures the mystery, romance and adventure surrounding the discovery of Akhnaton's tomb, as told by Nerma Levinor in Complaint.
