You are practically financed for life at a low rate of interest under a plan that is bound to set you out of debt. Please feel at liberty to consult us, we stand ready and willing to assist you at any and all times. Rice & Rice, Loan Brokers.

THERE IS NO GAMBLE ABOUT THIS—Three crops of brocoli will pay for the place. Three hundred acres in tract; half of it the best of river bottom land; one hundred acres ready to plant; partly under irrigation; free water; ditch in and paid for; two sets buildings; two dairy barns two silos; two cottages; spring water piped every where; five acres bearing prunes; big family orchard; seventeen thousand feet new lumber close with it; dairy mail; good school; eight miles from town; good road; twenty years to pay for it. Takes only one thousand cash. You don't take a chance if you take this. Lawrence Agency 125 Cass Street, Phone 219.

YONCALLA COUPLE MARRIED MONDAY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Daugherty in Yoncalla Monday evening January 15, 1923, was the scene of a very pretty and quiet wedding when Miss Maude Vineyard, and Mr. Will M. Grass were united in marriage by Rev. Joel Benton of the M. E. Church officiating in the presence of near relatives and friends.

After congratulations delicious refreshments were served. The evening was spent pleasantly in social amusements and we bade Maude and Will good-night with many kind thanks and sincere good wishes. Those present were: Mrs. Rebecca Grass Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Garner, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Daugherty, Miss Elizabeth Daugherty, Mrs. H. C. Stearns, Mrs. Thos. Westfall, Maude Mrs. J. P. Daugherty, Miss McDowell, Rev. and Mrs. Joel Benton.

These young people are well and popularly known in this community, where the bride was born and reared. She is a daughter of Mrs. Sarah Vineyard of Scotts Valley and the groom is the second son of Mrs. Alice V. Grass of Elkhead where he has many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Grass departed Saturday morning for Charleston, Washington, their future home, where Mr. Grass is employed in the Puget Sound navy yard. That their way may be bright and fortune be ever kind to them is the wish of every heart.
