Entered as second class matter May 17, 1920, at the post office at Roseburg, Oregon, under the Act of March 2, 1879.

ROSEBURG, OREGON, THURSDAY, JANUARY 25, 1923.

NATIONAL CHILD LABOR DAY

More than a million children between ten and fifteen years of age are working according to the United States census of 1920. Thousands of children under ten years old are working, but the census has not even counted them.

In 1922, for the first time, the number of automobiles manufactured in this country reached the tremendous total of 2,000,000, the total being 2,287,000.

A Portland Hindu popcorn vendor has been acquitted by a trial jury for killing a 12-year-old lad. The youngster was credited with tormenting the Hindu, and as a matter of "protection" the dispenser of popcorn pulled a revolver and shot the boy dead.

Senator Ritner, who recently conducted a "school of pardons" at the state penitentiary, says in behalf of his official act that he pardoned one man from Eastern Oregon who had been sentenced to twenty-five years for stealing an automobile tire.

Oregon's legislature will invoke an income tax law. This is the first concrete step toward increasing the amount of taxes to be paid by the people of Oregon.

John Alexander, of Glide, dropped into the News-Review office today carrying a huge chunk of coal under his arm.

A million Germans are preparing to enlist for war against French invasion. We will soon be reporting the aftermath of French and German drives on the "western front" unless the tide of coming events reserves itself.

Both houses of the legislature visited the educational institution at Corvallis yesterday. Probably got enough knowledge during the day to tide them over the balance of the session.

The fellow who stands around waiting for a job to walk up and tap him on the shoulder very seldom recognizes the intruder.

Looks like the Frenchman is going to step right into German territory and take what is coming to him.

Don't spoil this fine spring weather with a sprinkle of snow, Mr. Weatherman.

We'll be glad to note the installation of those new street monuments.

Burning the candle at both ends is the foundation of inefficiency.

A gossiping workman is only half efficiency.

PRUNE PICKIN'S BY BERT G. BATES

GOOD EVENING FOLKS—
The man or boy
Who will steal
A boy's bicycle
Would take pennies
From a dead man's eyes for
They are about
The meanest thieves
We ever heard of and
There are some of that
Kind right here
In Roseburg.

Healthy babies smile—folks have to grow up to become grouches.

Colored Recter: "An' now brethren, let us pray for dem heathens dat live in de uninhabited parts of de world."

Soap, shaped and colored to resemble lemons, eggs, oranges and other things to eat, is flooding the market in Roseburg.

Folks, the time has come when germs and children can hang on to their mother's skirts once more.

Nothing pleases the young man more than to have a young woman respond to his every statement with a fervent "Awwhnestly!"

An eye-specialist says green quits the nerves. This is especially true of green backs.

Possibly, the good died young because they're bored to death by the criticisms of the old gossips.

Great soaks for little corn juice grow.

WHO'S YOURS?
My hero is
Cornelius Black
He never slaps me
On the back.

Several million boxes of soap were shipped to Russia from the United States last month.

We never noticed how homely some of the town fellers were until we saw 'em wearing a fez last eve.

THE HE-VAMPS
We don't know how many of the Roseburg people will agree with us, but to our way of thinking even a homely woman is prettier than a pretty man.

As announced the el of tea trotted quite promiscuously last eve.

For some time past of' Lafe Perkins has been dispensing his quaint philosophy at the foot of this column and we can't help but like of' Lafe.

DUMBELL DORA THINKS
The "Better Homes" movement is a new dance.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED
No, Geraldine, you lose your bet. Taxidermists have nothing whatever to do with stuffed dates. We looked it up in the Encyclopedia Fruitannica.

Tomorrow eve, the local r. h. s. basket shooters will twist and squirm on the gym floor while their victims, the University hi of Eugene, will look on with awe and anger.

The fetters of the hi school announce that they wish their offspring would show as much pep around the house as they do in the game. If they did, Maw wouldn't have to pack in the wood herself.

HUMOR
Meredith Nicholson, in the front page editorial of a recent issue of Cosmopolitan, says, "We must be as earnest as we please, but we must keep smiling."

Teacher was explaining to the class the difference between "abstract" and "concrete" and was endeavoring to make her explanation very simple and clear.

"Now," she said, "concrete is something you can see, and abstract is something you can not see."

Willie looked quite enlightened, so teacher ventured to test her explanation. "Willie," she said, "give me an explanation of something concrete?"

"My trousers," was Willie's response. "Correct," said teacher, gratified; "and now something abstract."

"Yours." —Everybody.

Thus far we haven't been bothered by the daylight savings agitators.

Kinda chilly this a. m. wasn't it?

Life Begins Now:
It's a waste of energy to spend years trying to learn the correct pronunciation of "finger" when "underwear" is so easy to say.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Proposes New Scheme

Roseburg, Ore.
Jan. 24, 1923.
Editor News-Review:—In connection with the publication of official filings in Douglas county I propose to do it one better, and this county would be $10,000 ahead at least after the "smoke out" process was in full force.

Editor News-Review:—The state Chamber of Commerce has met, and in its very extensive program outlined its advice for the state in general and particularly for the farmer. I wish to express my disapproval of the organization for the reason that it makes light of the issue of farm credit.
