MRS. A. C. KIDD GIVES FINE SCOTCH PARTY

At her attractive home in West Roseburg Mrs. A. C. Kidd, assisted by her charming daughters, was a gracious hostess to a Scotch party yesterday p. m. A profusion of car-nations were in evidence. The follow-ing program was greatly enjoyed: Mrs. Chandler, a general favorite, gave two Scotch songs; Mrs. Ferguson read in her inimitable manner "Cuddle Down;" Mrs. Webb gave an amusing experience in ascending and descending Mt. Nebo, which called forth roars of laughter. Mrs. Smith read beautifully one of Riber's heart poems; Mrs. Patterson rendered a lovely Scotch song; Mrs. Miliken danced the Highland Fling; Mrs. Russell gave the delightful experience of the man whose wife's fame entirely overshadowed his own. Mrs. Kidd sang Anne Laurie and was at her best. Community singing of Scotch songs were interspersed. Additional guests were: Mesdames, McIvor, Hines, Cloake, W. C. Stanton, Willett, Hildeburn, Gibson, J. W. Bowman, Purdy, Mitchell, and Master Stewart Mitchell. A bounteous repast was daintily served. All in all it was a red letter day.

Good Advice for Women

Portland, Ore.—"All my life I have known of Dr. Pierce's medicines. My mother was a physician and she thought so well of Dr. Pierce's medicines that she quite frequently recommended them to her patients, especially the 'Favorite Prescription' for women. For about two years after the birth of my fourth child I suffered with feminine trouble of a very serious nature. I had all the aches and pains a woman could have. I was nervous and weak—just able to be around. I was in distress all the time, when I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, but was completely relieved of all my ailments and restored to perfect health. "When my daughter was growing into womanhood she was backward and had such poor health that she was compelled to quit school. I gave her the 'Favorite Prescription' and it completely restored her to health and she came into womanhood in a very natural way."—Mrs. Jennie Butterfield, 321 Mich. Ave. Write Dr. Pierce, Pres. ## CHANGE EXPECTED IN MAXWELL AGENCY

Negotiations are now underway which it is expected will result in the Maxwell automobile agency, now conducted by F. C. Powell, being transferred to George Burnett, a veteran automobile agent. An agreement has been arranged between Mr. Powell and Mr. Burnett and is now subject to the approval of the company. As soon as authorization is received the Maxwell agency will be moved to the Central garage where service and parts will be provided. Mr. Burnett was one of the early Ford dealers in this city and was engaged in other lines of automobile work until a few years ago when he retired. His son, Gordon, is one of the owners of the Central Garage. Mr. Powell will remain as a salesman with the agency.

The house of Hapsburg became possessed of these trophies in Italy and carried them off to Vienna

GIRL ROBBER PUTS UP HUSKY FIGHT

SALEM, Feb. 2.—Hard, unyielding, refusing to comply with any requests, Miss Teddy Gloss, pretty 15-year-old Aurora girl, arrested for robbery, arrived in Salem last night, strapped to two deputy sheriffs and was today held in the state industrial school for girls.

Unlike the average "bad" individual of tender years, the yellow-haired Teddy did not "break" following her apprehension. From Oregon City, where she threw the county court into a turmoil by an attack on officers, she fought them during her trip to Salem and, shortly before reaching the girls' school, threw herself on the ground and had to be carried to the institution.

There are no tears from Teddy. She gives or takes no quarter. Authorities declare she is an unusual type. In company with Walter McRae who, like her, was a resident of Aurora, Teddy was arrested for robbing the G. H. Grey residence near Aurora. According to officers they not only robbed the house, but broke furniture, threw wood over the rooms and generally wrecked the household.

Arraigned in the juvenile court, Teddy staged a fist fight, later was the principal in a spectacular race down Oregon City's main street and subsequently threatened to "clean up" on two Clackamas deputies.

Tossing her head, Teddy told the court there wasn't any excitement in Aurora. Following her hearing the girl broke away from officers, dashed out of the court house and attempted to make her getaway. She was captured several blocks away by Deputy Sheriff Long with the assistance of E. C. Babcock, Portland policeman. Teddy, kicking and protesting, was returned.

In court the girl attacked Grey, the complaining witness, with her fists and threatened to kill him if the opportunity ever offered.

Authorities said that Teddy had been the outstanding figure in a number of escapades. They say she stole a horse, ran away from home on a few occasions and performed a number of minor depredations.

Officials of the girls' school here said they hoped to win her to their side after she has been at the institution for a time.

THREE THOUSAND YEARS AGO

Robbers invaded the tomb of an Egyptian Pharaoh. They were evidently seeking for a bottle of Boswell Mineral Water.

in 1848, since when their return has more than once been urged by Italy, but without success. Of the gold-elf crown, surmounted by a cross and richly inlaid with mother of pearl and paste stones, it will be recalled that Napoleon set it on his own head exclaiming: "God has bestowed it on me; woe to whoever attempts to touch it." The one- sleeved coronation robe of green velvet trimmed with ermine and embroidered in gold and silver lace, in which is gold leaves of clover Napoleon's initials recur a hundred times, always has been regarded as perhaps the most magnificent robe ever worn by monarch at his coronation.

It was with many regrets that the release of these objects was pronounced by the National Assembly here.
