FOREIGN AFFAIRS

A few years ago most newspapers printed only very brief news of foreign affairs. The editors said the public was not interested. They could hardly get people to read anything about conditions in Europe.

A recent news item reports that the state of Pennsylvania has 3400 building and loan societies. Pennsylvania is reputed to be one of the country's wealthiest states.

Dear Folks:—

I was sitting in my arm chair not so very long ago, on a cheerful Sunday when the world was all aglow with a bright and cheery sunshine, and I rolled about in ease with the Sunday morning papers spreading out upon my knees.

Glancing down I read an article that shocked me with surprise, so ridiculous a story I could scarce believe my eyes.

Just a fad—a silly pastime—was their only poor excuse and it started me a thinking and a wondering why the deuce people spend their wealth insanely in so many foolish ways.

Yes, I know it's easy telling what some other folks should do with the money in their pockets when it don't belong to you and perhaps I may be censured by the ones whose feet are pinched.

HIKER VISITS CITY

Sam Diamond, New York newsie, and his dog, Rover, visited in Roseburg last night on their hike around the world.

America. He has traveled 8,000 miles, through eleven states and six provinces.

THE BENSON PARENT TEACHERS Association will hold a cooked food sale, including chicken (a la style) at the Chamber of Commerce Saturday February 10.

PRUNE PICKIN'S BY BERT G. BATES

GOOD EVENING FOLKS We notice the Town cop is advertising himself Today in another Department of this paper.

Gittin' tired of his 'job tryin' to clean up the village, we guess.

It's some job, all right, the street cleaning dept. have been trying it for years and they're not done yst.

'Bout the only bunch that ever handed the village right was the bunch of Boy Scouts with their bamboo poles.

There isn't much use of trying to take all the moonshine away from the populace. We'll be wearin' long whiskers when the last quart is confiscated.

As long as there is a demand for the liquid the supply will be there—even if they do hafta resort to hair tonic now and then.

We believe in cleanin' up the town but we hate to hear a 'cop whine about it.

Of course the citizens of this good community want to see things slicked up and made decent. Thats what we pay the cops for.

However, this colyum despises a pussy-copster.

You can't pin a star on a jelly-fish and expect results.

Well thats enuff razzberrying for today—lets grin a while.

And we can't help grinning ever' time we see Al Creason picking his teeth with his quill tooth pick.

But that isn't as funny as seein' Nap Rics do a fox trot, we'll be.

UNCALLED FOR TROUSERS We have a hundred pairs all ready to wear out.

PERSONAL Dear Editor: I went out riding last night with Charlie White. We drove to a roadhouse and had some drinks.

It was the first time that I had ever drunk. Did I do wrong.

How should I know, dearie. Don't you remember?

WORK AND SMILE Many pilgrims growl and grumble as they toddle down life's way.

When we hear a young man call his father "the old man" we always feel like that boy is an object of pity.

M. Couie has coined a new phrase which is, "I am" instead of "I will." We suppose it should be used like this: "I am drunk" instead of "I will be drunk."

When we hear a young man call his father "the old man" we always feel like that boy is an object of pity.

A man earning $150 a month, it seems always is in a position to tell another man how to earn $10,000 a month.

DUMBELL DORA THINKS The poll tax is to pay the skunk hunters.

From now on you never can tell. Ten thousand Marilyn Mulers may go undiscovered on account of long skirts.

Don't always think the other man is usually stupid because he makes mistakes that you wouldn't make. It is just possible, you know, that you may actually be unusually wise.

STRANGE! Said old Mr. Fann, To young Mr. Host, "The smaller the man, The bigger the boast."

A REAL WANT AD Enid, O.K. Eagle. I want a man to work on my farm. I don't give dancing lessons. I have no piano. I can't serve steamed steak three times a day. I do give three square meals, a real bed, fair wages.

Life Begins Say: "Prohibition seems to be the mother of ingenuity."

It's toasted. This one extra process gives a delightful quality that can not be duplicated

LIFE AT HOLLYWOOD EXPOSED TO WORLD IN GLYN'S STORY

Patrons of the Liberty Theatre are in for a genuine surprise when they witness "The World's A Stage," by Ellmer Glyn. In the first place it is different. The author holds the mirror up to life—the life of a screen actress in Hollywood, and paints a wonderfully vital and true canvas of the hopes and trials, illusions, dreams, sorrows and happiness of the average screen star.

It is not a misstatement to declare that the picture will create as big a sensation on the screen as her other

WELL-MERITED SUCCESS

A distinguished citizen, honored politically and professionally, Dr. R. V. Pierce, whose picture appears above, made a success few have equaled. His pure herbal remedies which have stood the test for fifty years are still among the "best sellers." Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a blood medicine and stomach alterative. It clears the skin, beautifies it, increases the blood supply and the circulation, and pimples and eruptions vanish quickly.
