It sweeps out the dangerous toxic poisons; it puts you back on schedule time without irritation or discomfort!

Don't delay eating Kellogg's Bran each day in some form! Try it as a cereal sprinkled over your favorite hot or cold cereal or cook it with hot cereals. In the latter case, add two tablespoonfuls for each person and mix with the regular cereal and cook as usual.

MRS. LINDQUIST TELLS WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Her

Kansas City, Mo.—"I was left in a very serious condition after childbirth and no one thought I could ever be any better. Then came the 'Change of Life' and I was not prepared for what I had to suffer. I had to go to bed at times to perfectly quiet as I could not even stoop down to pick anything from the floor. I did not suffer any pain, but I was decidedly nervous and could not sleep. For nearly two years I was this way, and the doctor was frank enough to tell me that he could do no more for me. Shortly after this I happened to see in a newspaper an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. In a few days the medicine was in the house and I had begun its use and I took it regularly until I was well. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to others when I have the opportunity."—Mrs. MAY LINDQUIST, 2514 Independence Ave., Kansas City, Mo.

CHAPTERS FROM A WOMAN'S LIFE

By Jane Phelps

CHAPTER 28

We were soon all settled in our lovely new home. Walter insisted we have a house-warming, and his mother also thought we should.

"It will be a nice way to pay your social debts, Doreen," she said. "But make it an informal affair." Walter added. He knew his mother's liking for formality, so had spoken quickly. "We'll have a buffet supper and a dance. How does that strike you, Doreen?"

"All right!" I returned. "We'll make out the list of guests tomorrow. The following day was Sunday the day when Walter usually remained at home.

"Good! We'll have it next Saturday night. That will give you time enough, won't it?"

"Plenty." So it was settled. We would have our house-warming. I knew Walter was proud of his new home, that he was really anxious for a party. Well, I would do my best. Suddenly a thought came to me—my conversation with Grace Barker.

"I shall need a new dress, Walter. What color shall I get?"

"I'll get some samples I have in the studio. You can match one of them in color. I'm glad you spoke about it. A jarring note in this room would set my teeth on edge." We were in the living room.

"I am afraid your guests may not all be dressed artistically," his mother said, just a hint of sarcasm in her voice.

"I can stand it in them but in Doreen it makes me wild. An artist's wife should be artistically dressed."

"Even if she isn't artistic," I teased.

"Yes, that's nothing to do with it. Unless she's too pig-headed to ask for advice."

"Thank heaven, I'm not pig-headed," I laughed.

After he left us Mrs. Page said: "I hope Walter will not ask that Miss Ralston."

"He will!" I returned.

"I wish you would ask him not to Doreen, ask it as a favor to yourself."

"It wouldn't do any good. Walter knows I don't like her, but he says when she is slightest, as she chooses to consider it, she refuses to pose, and delay his picture."

HURT WHILE COASTING

The Glendale News says: George Morey, while coasting on the hill near the Olivet church had the misfortune to get accidentally hurt last Friday evening. He was taken to Roseburg Monday and an X-ray photo showed that the bone in his knee was fractured, making a very serious injury. He was taken to the hospital and is being treated by Sether & Stewart. The many friends of the family sympathize deeply with them in the many troubles they have had, and all join in sincere hope that medical skill will soon restore the young man.
