ASSURING HARDING OF RENOMINATION

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Convinced that half a dozen aspirants already are making cautious overtures to test their strength as republican national possibilities for 1924, some of the friends of Harding have begun work to assure him the renomination. The movement in behalf of the president promises to make itself felt in many states before the summer. Harding's attitude has not been announced, but the inner circle at Washington agrees that the desire for public endorsement of his stewardship will impel him to stand for re-election.
