AND HOTEL TO BE ENLARGED

W. O. Clinger, the owner and proprietor of the hotel, has been let to Yundt and Kersch, who is preparing to work immediately. Walter has been appointed as superintendent of the hotel. The hotel is at a most critical situation, but even with the work it is being done, it is expected that it will be completed in a few days.

addition is made necessary, says, by the continued growing demand for hotel rooms. Within a short time of summer tourists will be upon the city and there will be insufficient rooms to provide for them. The construction of additional rooms in a measure to this situation, but even with the work it is being done, it is expected that it will be completed in a few days.

NEW GARAGE TO BE TWO-STORY BUILDING

The new garage to be constructed by John acts, at the corner of Rose and Lane streets will be two stories instead of one as originally planned. It was announced today. When it became known that a building for storage purposes was to be erected, applications were received sufficient to warrant an extension of the plans for the structure. George H. Smith who has leased the building, anticipates a very liberal patronage and the plans are being changed in view of the evident demand. The houses formerly occupying the property are being moved to a new location on Stephens street and this work will be completed in a few days and actual construction of the concrete garage building will be started. Contractor L. W. Messing has the contract for the garage and is planning to start immediately. An inviting entrance will be built up from Rose street to the second floor, according to the revised plans.

ALUMNI ENTERTAINS S. H. S. DANCING CLUB

The alumni proved themselves royal entertainers on Saturday evening and sponsored one of the most successful of the season's parties. As it was nearing St. Patrick's Day, the alumni used this as their motif. The lights shone through shades profusely decorated with the national emblem of Ireland, and the hall was transformed by green boughs, streamers, palms and huge baskets and bowls of daffodils. Punch, colored to harmonize with the decorations, was served by Mrs. Story from a table lighted by candles, backed with evergreens, and topped by an arch of the same.

Programs, the color of the emerald Isle, and a shamrock favor dance added much to the enjoyment of the evening.

The members of the alumni who acted as patronesses were: Mesdames L. G. Broadway, T. O. Dixon, G. V. Winberry, Elva Faulkner, and Misses Gertrude East and Reulah Jewett. Mrs. Story and Miss Rosa B. Parrott also served.

The committee responsible for the party were: Decoration—Messrs. Donald Hollwell, Allen Hewitt, James Pickens, Adrian Fisher, and Misses Elsie Bergh and Iris Rice; floor and favor—Misses Lorine Conlee, Ferno Reynolds and Mr. Vernon Mackay; punch—Miss Marion Porter and Mrs. Edward Kohlhagen.

The next party will be sponsored by the lady members of the club and an unusually delightful dance is anticipated.
