

URGE AMERICAN ACT IN RUHR

Administration by Government United States Declare
to Be Necessary

CONGRESS IS HINDERED

Operations of Conference Held Secret—Socialists
Four Nations Take Part
in the Parley

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, March 21.—A definite the Labor and Parliament to request the British, Belgian and Italian governments the Ruhr situation in the league of nations was held today following a of delegates representing political factions in the several bodies.

BERLIN, March 21. (U.P).— A trainmen were killed a freight train was destroyed.

Urge America to Act.
PARIS, March 20. (A.P).—A by the United States government the Ruhr problem is necessary situation must be resolved by the league of nations, was the decision reached at a of Belgian, British Italian labor and socialist parties which was held today in committee rooms of the chamber of deputies.

Ramsay MacDonald, Arthur
C. Buxton and General
the British delegates; M. V.
and Camille Huysmans, most prominent Belgian socialist delegates Modigliani and Leon Blum, Vincent
Laguette and Paul B.
French socialist party and the Ruhr situation and agreed that the question be referred to a high

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a factor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conference kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Belgium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr transportation must be forthcoming.

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a fac-
tor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conf-
erence kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Bel-
gium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr transportation must be forthcoming.

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a fac-
tor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conf-
erence kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Bel-
gium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr transportation must be forthcoming.

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a fac-
tor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conf-
erence kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Bel-
gium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr transportation must be forthcoming.

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a fac-
tor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conf-
erence kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Bel-
gium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr transportation must be forthcoming.

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a fac-
tor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conf-
erence kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Bel-
gium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr transportation must be forthcoming.

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a fac-
tor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conf-
erence kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Bel-
gium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr transportation must be forthcoming.

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a fac-
tor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conf-
erence kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Bel-
gium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr transportation must be forthcoming.

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a fac-
tor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conf-
erence kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Bel-
gium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr transportation must be forthcoming.

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a fac-
tor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conf-
erence kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Bel-
gium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr transportation must be forthcoming.

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a fac-
tor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conf-
erence kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Bel-
gium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr transportation must be forthcoming.

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a fac-
tor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conf-
erence kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Bel-
gium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr transportation must be forthcoming.

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a fac-
tor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conf-
erence kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Bel-
gium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr transportation must be forthcoming.

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a fac-
tor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conf-
erence kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Bel-
gium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr transportation must be forthcoming.

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a fac-
tor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conf-
erence kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Bel-
gium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr transportation must be forthcoming.

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a fac-
tor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conf-
erence kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Bel-
gium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr transportation must be forthcoming.

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a fac-
tor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conf-
erence kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Bel-
gium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr transportation must be forthcoming.

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a fac-
tor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conf-
erence kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Bel-
gium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr tra-
nsportation must be forthcoming.

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a fac-
tor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conf-
erence kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Bel-
gium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr transportation must be forthcoming.

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a fac-
tor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conf-
erence kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Bel-
gium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr transportation must be forthcoming.

of the delegates were of
the present situation
through French occupation
if continued until "a fac-
tor would prove detrimental
to reconstruction of Europe."
deliberations of the conf-
erence kept secret for the most
part. It is understood that M. V.
insisted in behalf of Bel-
gium before the Belgian and
evacuated the Ruhr transportation must be forthcoming.