BIG HOLE IN OREGON TEAM

EUGENE, Ore., March 28.—Coach Sky Huntington has issued a call for spring football men on the University of Oregon team. Huntington said there would be at least five positions open in the backfield and six in the line of next year's lineup. However, he said, indications were that Oregon would have a good team. Huntington says he is anxious to get the new material out this spring so that he may find out what he has to work with. Inducements will be many for men to turn out this season. Gym credits will be given for the work, and the practice will be so arranged that players will have to remain out only about an hour three times a week. A few games, such as inter-class contests, will probably be arranged to put more zest into the work. The coach also expects to offer prizes for kicking and passing.

EASTER WEEK SERVICES

The pastor's subject at the First Methodist church last night was Jesus Christ who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. He presented an array of scripture references and illustrations that seemed almost equivalent to a mathematical demonstration of the immortality of the soul.

Rev. C. H. Hilton of the Christian church led in prayer.

The meeting opened with the usual song service, and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Pierce sang a beautiful duet, with Mrs. Stella Knaus at the piano. One woman accepted the gospel invitation and others say they are being benefited by the meetings.

The subject tonight will be "The Raising of Lazarus." This is one of the most striking miracles in all the Bible record, and a subject on which Mr. Gordon says he enjoys preaching.

Some are coming at seven o'clock for a quiet time of prayer in the Epworth League room, on the north side of the auditorium.

The observing of Passion Week is becoming more and more a custom among the churches. And should we not put aside our worldly interests and pleasures for one week to honor our Lord?

People of all opinions are welcomed and will be treated courteously.

Have you heard the news? It is printed daily in the Roseburg News-Review.
