EXCUSES FOR WRONG DOING

The excuse is often given for misconduct, that the thing complained of is no worse than what other people do. The thief, for the Legion baratormers will drop late and as most of speciable people are gaining money through crooked financial expected that the entertainment will plained of is no worse than what other people do. The thief, for transactions. Everybody who does anything wrong can always find some one to point to, who he says is just as bad as he, yet whose derelictions are tolerated. If wrongdoers are punished, some folks raise the cry that the little fellows who commit trifling in transactions that do infinitely more harm, yet manage to slip through the law. Thus the impression is given that society is blanced and unfair and comes down hard on small offenders white letting the big ones go. If that feeling became general, society would deteriorate fast. As long as there is so much sin and shame in the world, many people are going to do wrong things and "get WILL EM. EDDIE. YES YOU WILL crimes are given severe sentences while prominent people engage away with it," in spite of the best efforts of governments, courts and police. Now if all the other people who do wrong things can "Can't you wait so me! Two pounds have their deeds tolerated, on the ground that other offenders of liver. I'm In a burry."

Eddie Kohlhagen-"Sorry, madam, but two or three are ahead of you. only way to remove evils is to hand out exact justice to anyone of order." who is caught doing wrong, regardless whether other people escap: or not. People who are accused of doing wrong are often grossly misjudged. They may have a wholly different story to whirtpoel of matrimany. He has a tell if you could hear their side of it. The man who excuses his can do to atone for his own sins and should give his whole attention. We know of a lead young feller who's figurin on takin's leap in the whirtspeel of matrimany. Oats that cook in five minutes

Quaker Oats now come in two styles—the Quick and the regular.

Quick Quaker, perfected by our experts, is the quickest cooking outs in the world. It cooks to perfection in 3 to 5 minutes.

Both have that matchless flavor which has made Quaker Oath so-preme. Both are flaked from dusen grains only—just the rich, plump, flavory oats.

But in Quick Quaker the oafs are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And the small thin flakes cook quickly. cook quickty.

Tell your grocer which you want. If Onick Quaker, look for "Quick" on the label.
