What God Says about—PERISHING

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life"

Somebody is going to perish. That's a sure thing from the inference of this wonderful text, surer because it is an inference than if the text said so positively; and the more so because of the many positive statements God makes about those who perish.

If God loved this world well enough to give His Son to prevent perishing of those who believe, surely those who do not believe perish. Now perishing cannot mean physical death, for all who believed since Jesus said that have died.

Perishing must then mean a second death. And God tells what it means where He says prophetically through John on Patmos: "Death and hell were cast into the lake of fire; this is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire."

Friend, is your name in the book of life? It is if you believe in God's heart God's only begotten Son. Make sure of that right now if you would be sure not to perish.

John 3:16.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Roseburg, Oregon
April, 19, 1923

To the Editor,—

With some temerity I take my pen in hand to criticize the speeches of John H. Clarke, ex-justice of the United States supreme court, Oscar S. Straus, republican secretary of Commerce under Theodore Roosevelt and Herbert Hoover, republican secretary of commerce under Warren G. Harding, which were made about two weeks ago in the east. The first two gentlemen favor the League of Nations and the last one an International Court. The League of Nations with any other name would be just as objectionable to the people of our country.

The gist of those speeches are of similar import, that is, that the people of this land should "favor our entrance into the League to save the European nations;" that is the plan of the pro-leaguers to organize pro-league clubs in every congressional district in the United States and see that every candidate for congress states how he stands on the league without any jevasion; that we should get out of our isolation to take part in the world problems, and that if we should do this it would eliminate the causes of war.

Some of the leading nations of Europe are talking about another great war. England and France have strained relations. Soon the tocsin of war may be sounded. That conclusively proves that the League will not prevent war. To join the league it would mean for us continual turmoil with embarrassing, harassing and exasperating relations. We must keep out of the league for our own peace, prosperity and happiness. We must not allow ourselves to be inveigled into its toils by the machination of enemies. To stand aloof we are safe. It may be that the destiny of the republic is at stake. We cannot believe that a majority of the voters can be fooled to try an experiment that would absolutely prove a disaster to our nation. Fellow citizens! let me tell you that the paramount question which confronts our country today is, to join or not to join the league. Let us squarely meet this great question without any vague meaning and eliminate all politics from it. Consequently let us be alert and active against it as loyal American citizens, for the pro-leaguers activity is now apparent all over the country. Last week at the women's conference in Des Moines, Iowa, Lord Robert Cecil and his pro-league friends attempted by strategy to get passed a resolution favoring the league, but the scheme fortunately failed. The women showed their good sense and sound judgment in defeating it. That action of the pro-leaguers shows to what extent they will go to accomplish their end. They must be watched. They would have us renounce the principles and traditions of our government.

Millions are spent in propaganda to instruct the people to support the league and during the campaign to the election of 1920, and President Harding was elected by a majority of more then seven million. Wasn't that significant? If the league should be an issue in the election of 1924, evidently the majority against it will be fifteen million or more.

Since the election of 1920 millions for propaganda for the league has been spent and many millions will be to the election of 1924. The people would like to know who are financing this insidious propaganda.

Before we entered the Great War some big financiers who had loaned nearly three billion to the Allies were using their influence to get our country to enter the war, probably to safeguard their loans. Financiers are now endeavoring by their ability and influence to sway the people to favor our joining the league, perhaps to safeguard their investments to the European nations, which today amount to two billion or more. This is a singular coincidence.

Some newspapers and magazines able and prominet men say that we should get out of our isolation. That is the rankest kind of bunk. Our country has had in the past and now have commercial relations with all the foreign nations, but it would be unwise and un-American to have political relations with them. The people cannot be enioled to give up their American principles to favor the league. We are fortunately situated in being separated from the European nations by two great oceans.

Lord Cecil, one of England's ablest men, is in our country making speeches to persuade the people to agree with him that the United States should "share in the task of erecting safeguards against war." Let us venture to say that he will realize before long that he has aroused no enthusiasm amoung our people for the league, except those who have been for it from the beginning. Probably he will return fully convinced that a large majority of the people are opposed to the league or any substitute therefor. It seems to us that it is presumptuous for Lord Cecil to come here and make eloquent pleas, especially to the mothers who lost sons in the Great War, to arouse their sympathies for the sorrowing mothers of Europe, but perhaps the ulterior motive was to attempt to secure their cooperation for the league, because of their political and social influence. This was cleverly done.

Politicians and pro-leaguers should get their ears to the ground to sense the meaning of the sound of the people in regard to an International Court, a subterfuge for the League of Nations, who are attempting by flattery and chicanery to persuade the people to ignore the warning of Washington, Jefferson and other great statesmen to avoid any entangling alliance with the European nations for the safety of our country.

In a controversy with the National Republican Collier's Weekly recently said that Washington warned the people against an entangling alliance with the European nations. In his famous farewell address Washington said: "Why quit our own to stand upon foreign ground?" Why, by interweaving our destiny with that of any part of Europe, entangle our peace and prosperity in the toils of European ambition, rivalship, interest, humor or caprice?"

A very large majority of the intelligent voters will not risk the good old ship of United States upon the unchartered sea of the League of Nations in command of a reckless, visionary captain.

ROSEBURG TEAM TO SHOOT AT COQUILLE

Fifteen or twenty Roseburg sportsmen will go to Coquille on Sunday to meet the sportsmen of that locality and of Coos and Curry county in a ten-man shoot which is being arranged by the Sportsmen's club here. The Roseburg team has won some decided victories in the past few months, and have easily defeated some of the best teams in the state. They hope to have as good success in the match with the Coquille marksmen at the shoot on Sunday. In Addition to the ten-man event there will be individual contests in which some of the Roseburg sharpshooters hope to carry off honors. The trip will be made without fail unless weather conditions should prevent auto travel over Camas Mountain where the road is in bad condition.

The Coquille sportsmen and Chamber of Commerce also extend an invitation to all Roseburg and Douglas County residents to be present for the good time on Sunday. Although there will be a shoot for the gun club members and this will be the main event of the day, there will also be entertainment for everyone who cares to go. The Coquille men have arranged for a big feed for all who come and invite Douglas county residents to enjoy their hospitality. The local Rod and Gun Club is anxious to have a large number of local citizens go with them and convey Roseburg's appreciation for this invitation. The two cities are to be closely united by the completion of the road to the coast and it is felt that it is time to bring about a closer acquaintenceship.

5-Minute Breakfasts

Quick Quaker Oats make them possible

Now your oat dish can be ready in five minutes, if you wish. There is a Quick Quaker Oats which cooks in 3 to 5 minutes.

It is just like the Quaker Oats you know in quality and flavor. It is flaked from queen grains only—just the rich, plump, flavory oats. We get but ten pounds from a bushel.

But the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And the small thin flakes cook quickly.

Your grocer has both styles. If you want the Quick Quaker look for "Quick" on the label. You will get the quickest cooking oats in the world.
