

ROSEBURG NEWS-REVIEW

DOUGLAS COUNTY

An Independent Newspaper, Published for the Best Interests of the People

If your business is sluggish, give your attention to advertising. It's a wonderful tonic—works while you sleep and delivers the goods.

ROSEBURG, OREGON, MONDAY, APRIL 30, 1923.

VOL. XI, NO. 155, OF THE EVENING NEWS.

WEATHER
Tonight & Tuesday
Clear & cool
Wednesday
Clear & cool
Thursday
Clear & cool
Friday
Clear & cool
Saturday
Clear & cool
Sunday
Clear & cool

MORRISTS SELL SLAVES AS SLAVES

Hand Organization Captured American Girls and Outraged Them

Justice is Obtained

Prisoners Have Confessions Regarding Details of Fiendish Work of Foreigners in West Virginia

Expend $200 and I got this for you. You had Grace for you, but you have not $200 for this woman. She would look like a girl. I'll make you lots of money. Now every Saturday go to this woman and you can see her. I'm not going to let you see her. If you want to see her, you must give me $200.

He was just cheating the men who bought the girl for big money. She couldn't break away because he had threatened to kill her.

"I finally got away when the police arrested all four of us."

The Norman girl is now being held by the authorities as a witness against the Black Handers.

MORRISTS SELL SLAVES AS SLAVES

Hand Organization Captured American Girls and Outraged Them

Justice is Obtained

Prisoners Have Confessions Regarding Details of Fiendish Work of Foreigners in West Virginia

Expend $200 and I got this for you. You had Grace for you, but you have not $200 for this woman. She would look like a girl. I'll make you lots of money. Now every Saturday go to this woman and you can see her. I'm not going to let you see her. If you want to see her, you must give me $200.

He was just cheating the men who bought the girl for big money. She couldn't break away because he had threatened to kill her.

"I finally got away when the police arrested all four of us."

The Norman girl is now being held by the authorities as a witness against the Black Handers.

MORRISTS SELL SLAVES AS SLAVES

Hand Organization Captured American Girls and Outraged Them

Justice is Obtained

Prisoners Have Confessions Regarding Details of Fiendish Work of Foreigners in West Virginia

Expend $200 and I got this for you. You had Grace for you, but you have not $200 for this woman. She would look like a girl. I'll make you lots of money. Now every Saturday go to this woman and you can see her. I'm not going to let you see her. If you want to see her, you must give me $200.

He was just cheating the men who bought the girl for big money. She couldn't break away because he had threatened to kill her.

"I finally got away when the police arrested all four of us."

The Norman girl is now being held by the authorities as a witness against the Black Handers.

LIQUOR CAN BE SERVED ON SHIPS

Daugherty Ruling Is Overturned by Supreme Court Today

Pertains to High Seas

Ships, However, Cannot Bring Liquor Stocks Within the Three-Mile Limit—Foreign Ships Included

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Attorney General Daugherty's ruling against serving liquor on American ships on the high seas was overturned today by the supreme court, which held at the same time however, that the ban prohibiting both American and foreign ships from bringing liquor stocks into American ports under bond was legal and enforceable.

The court held that the prohibition amendment could not prevent American ships from selling beverages outside of American territorial waters. That the extent the decision reversed the decision of Federal Judge Hand of New York.

When Attorney General Daugherty ruled that foreign ships entering American waters must be dry, and that American ships should not carry at any time anywhere intoxicating liquors for beverage use, he started a controversy which in intensity exceeded all others arising in enforcement of national prohibition since the eighteenth amendment was sustained by the Supreme Court.

Not only did the foreign steamship companies enter a protest, but the American lines also strenuously objected. The foreign companies saw in the ruling an encroachment upon treaty rights, a violation of international law and usage, a disregard of the comity which they contended should prevail among nations, and an abandonment by the United States of its time-honored position that ships were at all times a part of the sovereignty of the nation under whose flag they navigated the seven seas.

WORKERS TO STAGE BIG DEMONSTRATION

LONDON, April 30.—Although 25,000,000 workers throughout Europe may hold May Day demonstrations tomorrow, no trouble is anticipated except perhaps in the Ruhr.

AMBASSADOR TO MEET WITH CUNO

PORTLAND, April 30.—Picketing of suspected bootleggers by the I. W. W. continued this afternoon, but no large demonstrations or threats of trouble were made. The Foster cafe, where a near riot was staged Sunday afternoon, was closed today.

Chief of Police Jenkins has personal charge of the situation.

The waterfront is quiet and few men are leaving the ships but all of the vessels expect to be able to leave in a few days at least with full crews.

Reports from other parts of the state showed little change from Saturday. Most of the camps are operating. Two alleged I. W. W. organizers were arrested at Astoria. The Portland police announced they would be glad to get information of liquor violations from the I. W. W. or any organization, but it is illegal for the I. W. W. to take it upon themselves to close suspected places as they did yesterday.

The I. W. W. leaders said they would continue their activities of making Portland drier than ever.

PRISONER HELD IN COUNTY JAIL

Man Charged With Murder of Taxicab Driver in Tacoma Stays Over Night Here

ARREST LITTLE KNOWN

Officers Endeavoring to Get Alleged Murderer Back to Tacoma Before News of Arrest Reaches There

G. Emerson Corrigan, charged with the murder of George Marsh, taxicab driver of Tacoma, was kept in the county jail last night on his way back to answer for his alleged crime. Corrigan was arrested in El Paso, Texas, on the 12th and accompanied by Deputy Sheriffs Fred Ewan and Glenn Barton is being taken back to Tacoma, in the large Cadillac car which he is alleged to have stolen after murdering the owner.

The murder with which Corrigan is charged, occurred on April 23rd, a short distance from Tacoma. The taxi driver had only recently purchased a large, new Cadillac car and this machine was the only clue the officers had to the murder. They sent out descriptions of the machine and it was found in Corrigan's possession in El Paso, Texas, and he was placed under arrest there.

Because of the strong feeling against Corrigan in Tacoma, and because of the fact that he is believed to be in league with a gang of dope peddlers and bootleggers, his arrest has been kept secret and the Washington officers are trying to get their prisoner into Tacoma before the news of his arrest is released. Upon leaving here this morning they stated that they would arrive in Tacoma tonight and have their prisoner safely behind the bars.

Corrigan is believed to have passed through Roseburg on his way south with the machine. He was checked by the traffic officer at Cottage Grove and also by J. J. McMahon at Medford, both having entries in their records to show that they stopped the man to examine his license, but as at that time the officers had not been informed of the fact that the car was stolen they had no suspicions which could be substantiated by fact. Their evidence, however, has been given the Washington officers and will probably be used in the trial.

U. S. OIL MEN GET CONCESSION

LONDON, April 30.—A convention under which Rear Admiral Colby M. Chester, retired, and his American associates are granted development concessions in Anatolia has been signed at Ankara, the Turkish Nationalist capital, says an Exchange telegraph dispatch from Constantinople.

MANY INJURED IN SUNDAY ACCIDENTS

PORTLAND, April 30.—One was killed and seven injured in Sunday's traffic accidents. J. A. Dressler was killed near Schofield when his automobile plunged over a bridge. Dressler was giving a lesson in driving.

BELIEVE "KING BEN" HAS BEEN CAPTURED

MARYSVILLE, O., April 30.—Sheriff Collier is holding a tall, long haired man here awaiting the arrival of Michigan authorities to attempt identification as "king" Benjamin Purnell, the House of David leader. The man refuses to divulge his name and denies he is King Ben, although the sheriff claims he admits membership to Ben's cult.

THIRTY-THREE HURT IN RUNAWAY TROLLEY

SAN DIEGO, April 30.—Thirty-three were injured, several seriously when a runaway street car today, traveling at high speed failed to take a curve. The car was filled with passengers. After leaving its tracks, it struck an automobile which was hurtled through a store front, tore down a telephone pole and tree and came to rest against a building, 100 feet from the track.

CULLING SHEEP IS BEING TRIED

Experiment at R. B. Oliver Place at Glide Is Unique in Sheep Industry

MINIMUM IS ADOPTED

Any Animal Failing to Produce Five Pounds of Wool Will Be Eliminated From Flock Under New Plan

An experiment in the culling of sheep for the purpose of breeding a better brand of wool producers, has been started at the R. B. Oliver place at Glide. This is the first experiment of the kind to be undertaken in the state and is directly under the supervision of the animal husbandry department of the Oregon Agricultural College, in co-operation with the County Agricultural Agent.

Selection is practiced in every other form of animal and plant raising, it is stated, and the sheepmen are anxious to see the result of the test now being made.

Nine hundred sheep were sheared under the inspection of H. A. Lindgren, of the Oregon Agricultural College, County Agent B. W. Cooney, and Assistant County Agent W. S. Carpenter.

Each fleece was kept separate and was marked for identification, the animal from which it was taken also being marked. If the fleece taken from any animal weighed less than five pounds, that animal was marked and will be disposed of. Each sheep, under this plan must produce five pounds of wool or will be sold, giving the owner a flock of tested and known animals.

Consolidated

Evening News and the Roseburg Review

DOUGLAS COUNTY

An Independent Newspaper, Published for the Best Interests of the People

ROSEBURG, OREGON, MONDAY, APRIL 30, 1923.

VOL. XI, NO. 155, OF THE EVENING NEWS.

Consolidated