PARIS CITY ZOO GOING TO RUIN; NEEDS REPAIRS

By FREDERICK K. ABBOTT, International News Service Staff Correspondent. PARIS, May 1.—The few lonely animals that are left in the Paris Zoo soon have to find a new home as the municipality is willing to take a few hundred thousand francs to replenish the cages and put things in order that have been uncareed since 1914.

ent, "which was built to be warm in Winter and cool in Summer, is neither one nor the other. It will take at least one hundred thousand francs to put this famous resort into shape. The Palm Court is now only a court. The glass roof is missing. It rains inside as well as out. The palms and ferns have long ago died or frozen. The Bird Gallery is almost non-existent, with only two birds of paradise, which I had hoped would breed only to find that they are both males.

STYLE FANATIC NO CRITERION OF SEX, SAY WOMEN

By LUTHER A. HUSTON, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, May 1.—London women want it distinctly understood that they are heartless butterflies of fashion who flit from shop to shop spending more money than their husbands earn for a bewildering array of raiment.

The recent suit of Callott Soeurs, famous modiste of Paris and London, to force Captain J. V. Nash to pay for clothes supplied to his wife has focused the attention of half the world upon the question of women's clothes. Mrs. Nash's ambition to be the "best dressed woman in London" earned her fame and a bouquet of piquant phrases from the lips of the judge who decided the suit.

Not "In" Society. The case of the protestants is epitomized in the defense set forth on behalf of her sex by Lady Bathurst, who is herself a leader in fashionable London society.

Spent Large Sums. Mrs. Nash, it was revealed at the suit, had spent between $12,000 and $15,000 per year upon clothes, while Captain Nash's income amounted to about $6,000 per year. Lady Bathurst expressed the opinion that no woman should spend more than $3,000 per year upon clothes and said that she had "known many extremely well-dressed women who did not spend $500 per year upon their dress."

Judge Is Severe. "Her catholicity for profusion was remarkable," Justice McCardie remarked, "and she threw herself beneath the fatal curse of luxury."

THIS LITTLE BABY GIRL Was Benefited by the Good Her Mother Got from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my little girl was born, and the effect it had was wonderful. This will be the first child I have nursed, as I had to bring my two boys up on the bottle. I was very nervous and worried, tired all the time, and after I read about the Vegetable Compound I tried it and kept on with it. I still continue its use and recommend it to my friends. You may publish these facts as a testimonial for your medicine."—Mrs. Wm. K. Brown, 189 Plymouth St., Pittsburgh, Pa.

women hastily and vehemently repudiated the implication that Mrs. Nash is typical of the modern women of fashion there is another viewpoint, expressed by a slightly more militant type—that a woman should not be bound by hard and fast rules in the matter of her personal expenditure.

RHEUMATIC AGONY NOW EASILY ENDED

Says Mr. James H. Allen of Rochester.

It does not matter to me whether you are disabled with cured rheumatism or have only occasional twinges, I know that Allenru, my own discovery, will stop the agony, do away with the gnawing pains and reduce the swollen joints.

No matter how severe your case, I urge you to put your faith in the prescription that it took me years to perfect—a prescription that made a new man of me after doctors tried and failed.

OREGON EAGLE EATS BIRD SEED

PORTLAND, May 1.—(United Press.)—The Oregon eagle is being fed on selected bird seed and raw meat, so he'll be in fine fettle for screaming a welcome to President Harding, should Harding come to Oregon for a visit early this coming July.

According to tentative plans broiled about the president should be in Oregon on or about July 4, and a big celebration is planned for him atop the crest of the Blue mountains in Eastern Oregon, should he care to clamber up and be "among these present."

The occasion will be the dedication of the Old Oregon Trail, Oregon's northernmost highway, connecting Ontario on the east with Seaside on the sea on the west, nearly 600 miles in length, half of it paved and the other half hard-surfaced with gravel and macadam. The road follows substantially the route taken by Oregon's pioneers. A big portion of this road has been named the "Columbia River Highway," while the rest was known as the Old Oregon Trail.

ELECTRIC POWER RUNS TRACTORS IN SWEDEN

STOCKHOLM, May 3.—Pleading by the use of gasoline or electric motors, instead of horses, was the main subject of discussion at the recent annual meeting of the Swedish Agricultural society. It was announced that no fewer than 1,770 motor tractors, representing a total value of $4,000,000, are at present used by Swedish farmers.

FINE CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM COMING

A wealth of musical and entertainment features, and a lecture list that will open up many new lines of thought and observation, is indicated from the advance information just received from Ellison-White concerning the coming Chautauqua program.

"Turn to the Right," the greatest of all American plays, sweet, clean, wholesome and inspiring, will probably draw one of the biggest crowds of the week. It is to be produced by professional players from the studios of Elias Day, famous Chicago coach.

Two educational-entertainment features of more than ordinary worth will be the music-lecture-concert by Evelyn McFarlane McClusky, which will give us all a deeper and fuller appreciation of this greatest of all arts—music, and the program of Princess TeAta and company, whose interpretations of Indian legends, songs, and dances bring to their audiences a truer conception of the characteristic beauty of Indian arts.

That there is Beatrice Weller, clever chalk-talk artist; Alice Louise Shrode, child artist, who sings and whistles her way into the hearts of her audience of all ages; and Winifred Windus, beautiful and gifted reader, who presents "Six Cylinder Love."

(International News Service) ROME, Ga., May 2.—Bill Martin, 70, who has served twenty of the last twenty-five years in jail or on the chain gang and is at present on parole, has gone into the chicken raising business, and other chicken raisers of this section, far from viewing Bill's venture with the glassy eye that a new competitor might expect to receive, are welcoming him to their ranks.
