MOTHER'S DAY ONE OF FLOWERS AND EULOGY	DUMSELL DORA THINKS- Eveningtis is a book out of the Bible.	AMIERCAN TOBACCO CO	Two and Three-Piece Suits

Mother's day is now a widely recognized institution. May 13, next Sunday, will be a day of flowers and enlogy, and of subdued impression in churches everywhere. It will therefore be a day of special service in the development of soul nature of all classes. The aged will wander in mind back to the days of youth. The momented will become real again for what is more real than more y's pleture of something dear in the long ago. And the is saints will see, not the sunset approaching, but the promised returnon beyond, the renewed association with brothers and sisters and wondered where he had gone." long dead, with fathers of precious memory, and with patient, sweet-faced mothers. This re-living the long past and anticipating the joys of the near future will make more mellow and more sweet, and more influential for good, the lives of thousands who are now mitting in the evening glow

The muldie-aged will likewise recall, in a special sense, the at the armory tonight for the benefit of the baseball team. Mother's Day will refresh their minds and hearts as the morning dew refreshes foliage and blossom. Many there will be who have lived long enough to have tested out the vanities of the world, but who are still in the prime of life, who will be inspired by Mother's Day reflections to nobler efforts in life. Thus will the day contribute much, by making more powerful for good the twenty or thety years that remain.

-The young just mating and building nests of their own, many of whom still have father and mother to counsel with and calidheed home to visit will pause and have a serious thought on Mother's Day-a thought that would not come to them on an ordinary day. 'The impressions of Mother's Day will be an added reflection upon their ideals regarding the beautiful, high class homes they wish to build for themselves and for their children.

"Also, the boys and girls who have not tasted life's bitter cup, who romp through the halls and on the graen, who have, perhaps, ught of father as only the provider, and of mother only as the created to see that their meals are prepared, and that their Inthes are mended, and to tuck them into their beds at night, will meetive impressions on Mother's Day which will cause them perimps unconsciously, to grasp higher ideals and bud into young hood and young womanhood as they would not without this ifting influence. And it may be added that the greatest opporto ity of this day is that of dealing with the boys and girls . They The more numerous than are those of either of the other classes and their fives are yet in molding.

May the holy influence of Mother's Day, in every community, and especially ours, reach and soften and strengthen in high purpase every heart. There is probably no heart so hardened, that memories of youth and innocence and home and mother will not thich. Wear a flower for her that day. Go to the church of your choice on that day, where special programs will be given in honor of our mothers. The day is next Sunday May 15.

With my head upon my pillow I was dropping off to sleep, when I heard a horn a blowing with a meaning that was deep. Twas our village call of Fire! so I jumped up out of bed and I w the sky was colored with a blazing hue of red.

In a moment I was dressing, then went rushing to assist When I reached the accase of action, in my eyes there came a mist The home of widow Dudley was a mass of flame and smoke, This was hot enough and thick enough to make me cough and The widow atood so helpless and I heard her sady w. There, the widow atood so helpless and I heard her sadly "Timre'll be nothing left but ashes when I see the light of day. You wouldn't think I'm popular Is my home go all my savings, both in property and cash, for teapor was my hunker and my bank has gone to smash. Or had so many girls. That I was gettin much from life You're right, by gum, I ain't. By teapor was my hanker and my bank has gone to smash. Mon were shouting out their orders while the women stood and gazed. Some would try to help a little but most of them were chined. This the smoke there came a figure that could hardly walk ac stand and I naw it stagger onward with a teapor in its hand, which it gave up to the widow, then it turned to look at me, and the face of our Joe Jackson was a grims one to see as he did his first to coumble thrit a happy looking grin: "Day by day I'm got-Fing better, and by links I'm going to win."

VERNON. Ans. It is hardly fair to monopolize a girl's leisure, and act as if you were devoted to her when in reality you have no intentiong at all. It is a rather delicate matter, and it does not seem quite fair that a boy cannot go with a girl as friends and I do not mean it quite that way. A girl really explicit something driinite however when a boy monopolizes all her time
