URGE BETTER AMERICAN HOMES

Campaign to Be Conducted Between Dates of June 4 and June 10

ARE TAKING INVENTORY

Council Is Endeavoring to Better American Home Conditions by Careful Study of the Situation

WASHINGTON, May 18.—(A. P.)—There are two sides to a ten dollar bill. One side is the effort that goes to earn it; the other is the care and intelligence which go to the spending of it. One side is the man's contribution, the other side is the woman's. The whole question of wages is affected by the home-maker's ability to get value for her money.

In such manner Secretary of Labor Davis sets forth the significance of the Better Homes in America campaign to be conducted during the week of June 4 to 10. Secretary Davis is a member of the National Council for Better Homes in America. Other members are Vice-president Coolidge, Secretaries Hoover and Wallace and Mrs. T. G. Winter, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

"The campaign is a woman's campaign," says Secretary Davis. "They are taking stock of themselves to see how they fill their side of the bill; they are taking inventory of home values to determine standards."

"The best American wage earners know that the pay check at the end of the week belongs to the family. They know also that a forty-five dollar a week wage does not do as well in some families as a thirty-five dollar a week wage does in others."

"The demonstration houses prepared for Better Homes week in June are concrete educational means of emphasizing the importance of home-making, and the increasing necessity of thorough study of its technique. In the home is the nation. In the homes is the basis of the best patriotism."

"There is nothing better we can do than make a thorough workmanlike study of the things that make for a better home, with architects, builders, interior decorators, students, musicians, educators and spiritual advisors joining in a definition of home."

Enos Says Money Can't Buy Anything Better

Declares Tanlac Quickly Ended Long-Standing Stomach Trouble, Weakness and Dizziness. He Is Feeling Fine Now.

"Speaking from my own experience, I don't think money can buy a better medicine than Tanlac. It has simply meant good health to me and I can recommend it to anyone." is the characteristic statement of J. J. Enos, 65 Jackson St., San Francisco. Mr. Enos was for many years in the hotel business here but is now retired, and is well known and respected by a large circle of friends.

"For over a year before I took the Tanlac treatment I suffered with indigestion and constipation, and got so run-down and worn out that I was just dead on my feet, so to speak. My food disagreed with me, never seemed to do me a particle of good, and the gas bloated me up after eating until it was about all I could stand. I had to be taking something all the time for the constipation, too, and I suffered from dizziness so bad I had spells that nearly floored me. I would get up in the morning so tired out it was all I could do to drag myself around, and I felt sluggish and listless all day long.

"I got onto the Tanlac treatment by reading statements in the papers, and some of them described my case to a 'T'. I took six bottles, and it made me feel like a man made over. Indigestion and constipation never troubled me any more, and the dizziness and the miserable feeling I used to have long since disappeared.

"I've got back the strength and vigor I formerly enjoyed, get plenty of restful sleep, and that tired, run down, sluggish feeling is a thing of the past. Seeing what a world of good Tanlac did me, I feel I have good reasons to endorse it, and will always recommend it as the best tonic in the world."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

Has Fine Berries

The Sutherlin Sun: When it's strawberries, no grower on the Pacific Coast has anything on Jacob Roth, a well known rancher living west of town. Mr. Roth sent two baskets of strawberries to The Sun office on Wednesday, and every berry was as large as a bantam's egg, and the flavor of the berries was just as astonishing as the size—just left a delicious strawberry taste in one's mouth which lasted for hours. Mr. Roth is known as the producer of the finest strawberries grown in Douglas county and his crops always bring top-notch prices.

LEAVE THEIR ANCIENT HOMES

Ancestral Mansions of France Are Passing Out of the Possession of Proud Families.

The old families of France are feeling the pinch of adversity and, as in London, Devonshire house and other ancestral homes are being turned to baser uses, so in Paris the famous mansions of the country's great families are finding new owners. The residence of the princess of Wagram is now the Spanish embassy, the wonderful hotel in which Princess Jacques de Broglie once gave her "hall of precious stones" is now the United States embassy; the new Czechoslovakian representative lives in the mansion of the ancient de Ligne family, while the residence of the late due de Pomar, which was inspired by Mary Stuart's Edinburgh home, Holyrood manor, now shelters the Bulgarian ambassador. The Gaillard mansion, Place Malesherbes, a copy of one of the wings of the castle of Blois, is to become a branch office of the Bank of France, while the ancestral home of the Bourg de Bozas, in the Rue Pierre ler de Serbie, is now to be hired for dances or entertainments. Other ancestral homes, a Figaro writer points out, have been taken by antiquaries, notably the Sagan mansion and the Morny mansion. And the list could be continued.—From the Continental Edition of the London Mail.
