AUTOMOBILE PARKING

If a city is to obtain the trade of its near-by territory in these times, it must attract the support of the people who come in to the trade centers by automobile.

The local order, Knights of Pythias, is going to subscribe for two pages in the official booklet to be issued descriptive of Oregon.

The city of Roseburg has made one definite and concrete movement in the way of public improvements. A complete new and modern system of street lighting will be installed.

The man who says he doesn't care what anybody thinks of him wouldn't be so emphatic if he didn't care.

The difference between a "born leader" and a cultivated one is that the latter has to work at the job.

You often hear of a man who has a hard time spending his money, but did you ever know of one?

The man who drives the family car usually gets considerable auto-suggestion from the rear seat.

A bright educator some day is going to discover that students ought to know how to spell.

The automobile speeders have not so far objected to having near sighted policemen.

A lion in business is often a bear at home.

Dear Folks: Remember how, when we were young, we used to run and hide, because we thought the Bogey-man was sneaking 'round inside the closet, or in places where the light was dim and dark?

Perhaps if a gardener tried to raise some weeds some vegetables would up and crowd them out.

Baby-talk, says a Chicago educator, has been the ruin of many a child.

The peke bonnet is coming back. The poked nose has never left.

The bloom of youth is charming. Unless it blooms a little higher on one cheek than on the other.

We once knew a man who used to enjoy watching the expression on people's faces when he'd scratch his glass eye with a penknife.

Tomorrow being Sunday many of the gawdies will den their bloomers and skip church, using the excuse that bloomers are not fit to wear to church.

Roseburg has a real amusement park. The "bump the bumps" are located on the Deer Creek bridge.

The barnstormers will rehearse their stunt tomorrow for the Barn Dance on Wednesday night and we hope the braying of jackasses won't interfere with the program.

Luther J. Barnes who has a new sedan says these enclosed cars are wonderful. It enables a fellow to go ridin' in his palamas without the whole country talkin' about it.

THEY ALL ADVERTISE!

A hen is not supposed to have much common sense or tact.

Yet every time she lays an egg, she cackles forth the fact.

A rooster hasn't got a lot of intellect to show.

But none the less most roosters have enough good sense to crow.

The mule, the most despised of beasts, has a persistent way.

Of letting folks know he's around. By his insistent bray.

The hussy little hens they buzz; But hallow and covey moo.

ROSEBURG, OREGON, SATURDAY, MAY 19, 1934

AWARD RECEIVED

Troop No. 1 yesterday received their streamers for making a gain of over 22 per cent in the recent national drive for more scouts.

ALL ABOARD FOR SUTHERLIN

All scouts desiring to go to Sutherlin will let Mr. Lintott know by Thursday night at six o'clock.

NO GUNS

For your information regarding the scout camp. No guns will be permitted in camp. That is to scout will be permitted to bring a gun to camp. The only guns in camp are those which the Camp Directors have which are for the protection of the camp.

TROOP NEWS

Troop No. 1

We held our regular meeting Monday night in our scout hall and were told of the things we would have to do in order to get to camp and about the game.

On Tuesday evening we journeyed to the hill back of Mr. Lintott's home where we organized in a game of "Steel Sticks" against troop two.

We gathered about 6:30 and ate hotdogs, beans and applesauce and soup. We then started in to walk the second troop. We had "Hing" Martin for our captain and we beat them all over half an acre.

Misses playing an important part. We played until 9 and then put out the fire and hit for home.

Troop No. 2

Troop two held their regular meeting last night on the hill east of the Roseburg home.

We held a winner roast

ORDERED

An order was sent to New York this week for 25 of the latest edition of the Scout Handbook. These should come along within another week or so.

CAMP REQUIREMENTS

This year's camp requirements are practically the same as the previous year's. There are a few minor changes to meet our conditions but other than that the requirements and fee are alike.

WATCH THE LIST GROW

Scout about in your name in this list? Remember what we've said before. We've got our registration in at OXC&C and help the Camp Director so he can get things lined up early. The following scouts have signed up to camp this year:

Harold Thomas, Adrian Bloom, George Webber, Calvin O. Webber, Jr., Chas. McGinnis, Raymond Bell, Wayne Ridge, Victor Arnold, Raymond Hunsacker.

Get that application signed and bring it to Lintott and see the next man on the list.

AND STILL LYMS

With the first troop after which we played a game of "Steel Sticks" the first troop winner.

After the road a council was held to elect guards and give out the instructions about the game. The game was played in halves with an intermission of about five minutes between halves.

It is hoped that more of these games may be held during the summer as they are enjoyed by everyone who takes part.

Some of the second troop fellows didn't show up last night and we were handicapped quite a bit because of players for our side.

Troop No. 3

The third troop met Wednesday evening and had their usual business meeting. Every member is out next Wednesday for a very important business meeting.

One new member registered but there is still room for more to fill the troop.

If you are going to camp this year, be sure to get your application signed and bring it to Lintott and see the next man on the list.
