Before the entrance of the bridal party, Mrs. Effle Land played "The significance of the victors of the played their state of the siralize of Mendelsohns wedding march, played by Mrs. G. A. Arnold, the bridal party entered and took their places at the alter. Four ushers, Meric Landreth Laurence Haging of Medesto, and orban and Herbert Stengulst, came for the school. This work will be in the procession, and took their stengulst, came first in the procession, and took their section.

Laurence Haglund of Modesto, and Orban and Horhert Stenguist, came first fa the procession, and took their places at the left of the alter, while the girls stood at the right. The four bridges maids were sowned in Fink crepe de chine and carried pink and white award poss. They were the Misses Raul Scott, Gladys Calhons, Audrer and Lenore Bobst. Next came little Kathryn Cooper, in pink crepe de chine and carrying a dainty bashet of pink roses and ferns acted as flower girl, while Harter Wickman, who accompanied her, carried the Bible. The two children were followed by Mes Velma Kruse, stater of the bridegroom from Rosoburg, Ore, and the bride and her father, N. E. Landreth. The maid of honor was besuttifully gowned in taffate of an orchid hus and carried a bequet of lavendar sweet pear, Coeff Brinner roses and ferns.

The bride made a charming picture as she chieved the church on the arm of her father. She was beautiful in a white satin canton dress triumned with beautiful beading which had triumed the weedlike.

Pink and white romes and green vines were beautifully arranged in the Seventh Day Adventist church last Sunday evening to form a hower of lovelineas for the wedding of Miss Muriel Landreit to Cisrence Mabley of Romeburg.
