SHERIFF'S SLAYERS WILL PLEAD MONDAY

ALBANY, June, 21.—Rulie Johnson and George Gilmore, held in connection with the death of former Sheriff W. J. Dunlap, will be arraigned Monday morning at 10 o'clock in the circuit court before Judge Percy R. Kelly. At that time the date of their trial will be set.

Hand-cuffed to each other the two prisoners were led into the circuit court room today for arraignment. Gilmore asked for ten days further in which to plead. Judge Kelly granted him but four. The period was allowed to both in order that they might summon their attorney here for the arraignment.

Johson this morning sent a telegram to Gus L. Thacked of Centralia, Wash., whom he said he has engaged to represent him. Gilmore said to the authorities that he will plead his own case rather than have the court appoint an attorney. He was not sure whether or not he would be able to engage Thacker to defend him also.

Gilmore's wounds have healed sufficiently to allow him to use his bullet-ridden leg, though this morning he limped as he walked from the county jail to the courthouse. His attitude in the court room appeared confident, and he at first assumed to dictate the time he should be allowed in which to plead. Judge Kelly stopped him with the declaration that the court and not the defendant would fix the time to be allowed.

ROAD TO BE OPEN FOR CELEBRATION

MARSHFIED, June 21.—The new highway from Roseburg to Coos Bay will all be open for traffic for the Fourth of July regardless of whether the work on the new section, which has to be detoured at Camas mountain, is complete, Chairman D. A. Jones was informed this morning. Mr. Jones stopped and took the matter up with the contractors. This eliminates the last drawback to the traffic problem.

The committee also hopes to have Contractor Payne finish the Coal Bank inlet drawbridge for the travel during the celebration.

An effort will also be made to arrange for people to cross South inlet to get back and forth to the beach as many from the interior will want to go to the ocean during their stay.

For Trapshoot.

Ben R. Chandler and W. N. Ekblad are today arranging a trapshoot for the morning of the Fourth as the Roseburg gun club wants to send a big team for that event.

The Roseburg baseball team wants to play here but as Marshfield has a game scheduled with North Bend it is doubtful if that can be arranged.

M. D. Bromberger of the Coos County Boy Scouts council was informed by Scoutmaster Lintott of Roseburg that he would bring a big delegation of scouts over. They will probably spend a few days at the Coos Head cabin and take part in the scout contests on the Fourth.

UMPQUA FIVE HAS TWO NEW MEMBERS

The re-organized Umpqua Five orchestra will make their first appearance at the armory on next Saturday night at the public dance with a program of the latest dance hits. The orchestra consists of Harry Crocker, saxophone, John Shields, cornet, William Burr, saxophone, Redford Tester, cornet, Roy Evans, piano and banjo and Ford Singleton drums. With this combination of instruments the orchestra will be able to furnish music equalling the professional organizations which have visited this city. In addition to the public dances at the armory this orchestra will soon play for the open air street dance to be sponsored by the baseball team.

GREEN AND WINSTON NEWS

The hay crop is being cut in this section, and promises to be a good one. The weather is ideal for haying.

Mrs. and Mrs. L. C. Davis were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hoffmeister Sunday.

Wilbur Claypool returned from his visit to Corvallis, and reports a good time.

Broccoli planting is in progress. The additional acreage being planted this year, will greatly increase the output of this new industry.

Mrs. L. M. Hodges was a guest at the Davis home on Saturday. Miss Nellie Davis accompanied her home, and will spend her vacation on the Hodges farm near Gazely.

The suddent and unexpected passing of Mrs. Bonnia, was a shock to the community. She was on her way to the Green Station when stricken, and we shall miss her happy personality but our loss is her gain, and we rejoice that she believed in a Heavenly mansion, that was waiting for her. Our deepest sympathy is extended to the family.

Mrs. Weatherford has been quite ill for the past few days, we hope she will speedily recover her health.

At the annual school meeting of District No. 5, known as Green, held on Monday afternoon at the school house, a number of important items were considered and decided.

The school was voted a community center, where the social, industrial, educational and spiritual affairs may be held. This is being done more and more everywhere, and was a forward step in District No. 5. The budget of $2805.00 was accepted. The school house is to be painted, the corners reshingled, and the school yard kept in order during the summer. 23 voters were present. J. R. Howard was reelected clerk; Mrs. Agee was elected for the three year term and Mrs. Henry Lander was elected in the place of Mr. Weatherford, who resigned, for two years.

MAN WHO GUARDED TRACY IS DEAD

SALEM, June 21.—Duncan Ross, 76 years of age, a pioneer of Salem and vicinity, died early Wednesday morning, June 20, at the home of his sister at 2100 North Commercial street. Mr. Ross was a farmer before his retirement from active business. He was a member of the Chemeketa chapter No. 1, I. O. O. F. lodge.

Mr. Ross is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Hattie Phoefer of Salem, Katherine Ross of Ohio, Mrs. Thomas Watson of Victoria, B. C., Mrs. A. J. Adams of Essen Ontario, and a brother, James Ross of Lucan, Ontario.

Funeral services will be held from the Webb funeral parlors on Friday morning, June 22, at 10:30 o'clock. Concluding services will be held at the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Mr. Ross was born in Scotland on October 12, 1846, and came to the United States about 55 years ago, moving to Salem five years later where he has since resided. He was married to the daughter of the late Ike Durbin, an uncle of Frank Durbin of this city. Mrs. Ross died a number of years ago.

Mr. Ross also served at the penitentiary as a guard for some time being one of the guards who were overpowered in the famous Miller and Tracy escape. It was during this escape that a bullet grazed the top of the head of Mr. Ross. One of the guards standing beside Mr. Ross was shot and instantly killed by the desperadoes and when his partner fell, Mr. Ross also fell and remained there until the bandits had made good their escape. With the guns having been taken from them by the bandits it would have been useless to have stood against them. It is thought that the quick thought of Mr. Ross in falling to the ground when his partner was shot was the thing that saved his life.
