Mental Telegraphy Carter's Tire Shop, the Oldest and Most Reliable Shop in Town

Nick has a story to tell you. Last May Nick saw a circular advertising road used tires for sale...

One night about 8 o'clock in the morning he got up out of bed and left his old shell lying in bed, stood on the floor and looked at it for a second and then said: "I say there, old cussies, I am going on a long trip and will be gone for ten or fifteen minutes."

Nick went to Chicago. Locked doors and brick walls did not stop him. He went in his room and said, "You shoot square with Nick Carter out in Oregon, if you ever expect to see me again over yonder in the sky."

He commenced rolling around and kicking the covers and discovered he could not sleep. Nick saw that his message had been delivered and he came back home and went in his shell and slept with a clear conscience.

In a short time he had a letter stating that there was a mistake and he would split 50-50 with Nick. Now, does no doubt you will say Nick is crazy, but you are prone to say that about anyone who does not think as you think.

Remember Nick is a square shooter. I will do my best to give you a good job.
