

FAIR AND WARMER

This is just what the doctor ordered for haying, don't forget that it is taking the moisture out of the hay and making it mighty fast. A good cultivator or roller is a good investment if the price is right. And our prices are right. Come in and see them. How about your feed? Green feed will soon be gone and unless you feed well your cows will dry up just when you want them.

Address Is Made on Home Missions

Mrs. B. W. Strong was hostess on Thursday afternoon at her home on South Main street to the Baptist Missionary Society. The program which had been planned was postponed until a later time, and the afternoon was given over to Mrs. Strong, collector, who talked on "Home Missions." The duties of Mrs. Strong take her to all districts where he holds meetings and attempts to guide the spiritual life of those who have no church affiliations. He distributes and sells Bibles and tracts, and is a great force for good in the communities in which he works. His talk was preceded by devotionals led by Mrs. O. H. Pickens.

A luncheon was served by Mrs. Strong, Rosen and ferns in pleasing contrast were used in the rooms.

Guest Honored with "500" Party Thursday

For Mrs. T. W. Grice, of Hutchinson, Kansas, who is her house guest, Mrs. C. O. Hoerner was hostess to a number of Mrs. Grice's old friends on Thursday evening. Tables for 500 were made up, and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed. Sweet peas in various dainty shades were attractive in bowls and vases throughout the rooms.

Invited to meet Mrs. Grice were Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rohl, Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. William Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Trosel, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McGraw, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis, Mrs. J. W. McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Trefree, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Davis.

Farewell Picnic for Rose Moffitt

As a farewell for Miss Rose Moffitt, a popular member of the younger set, who left Thursday morning to make her home in Portland, an informal outing and welcome picnic was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. J. Clarke. The party was given by Mrs. W. J. Clarke, who is the mother of Miss Moffitt.

Those enjoying the affair were Miss Rose Moffitt, Miss Rose Porter, Miss Ethel Walker, Miss Grace Campbell, Miss Frances Castle, Miss Isabelle Wright, Miss Mary Julia Clark, Miss Mona Porter, Miss Mildred Davis, Miss Dorothy Corbin, Miss Margaret Schwan, Miss Marion Newland, James Peterson, LaVerne Hagen, Wesley Bonedra, Delane Strader, Elwood Strader, Ray Jost and Mr. Elmon.

Quiet Wedding Thursday Afternoon

Mrs. Lydia Steinmetz of Canyonville, and Kenneth L. Moser of Walla Walla, Oregon, were united in marriage Thursday afternoon at the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal church with Rev. W. S. Gordon reading the service. Only close relatives witnessed the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Boale of Canyonville, and the parents of Mr. Moser reside in Auburn, Washington. They will spend a two weeks' honeymoon in the Puget Sound district, and make their home at Walla Walla, Oregon, where Mr. Moser owns an interest in a lumber company.

Mrs. Kelley Will Visit Portland Lodge

Mrs. Edythe Kelley, president of the Roseburg assembly of Oregon, will pay an official visit to the Elks lodge Thursday evening at the Elks hall, East Sixth and Ash streets, says the Portland Journal.

At the same time the lodge will hold a reception for two of their members, Mrs. Mary Tomlinson, trustee of the I. O. O. F. home, and Mrs. Grace Christensen, outside guardian of the Elks hall assembly. The lady members are requested to bring homemade cakes. Mrs. Emma Mapple, Mrs. Lena Richmond, Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. A. Crawford and Mrs. Edith J. Smith are in charge. At the last meeting of the lodge, June 11, Mrs. Cora Pease, newly elected male grand, and Mrs. Helen Hansen, newly elected vice grand, will be in a most friendly manner. Visiting Bohemians are always welcome.

Elks Picnic on July 18

An event which is being looked forward to by the Elks lodge is the annual Elks picnic which will be held at Cannon Camp July 18. Preparations are being made to make this occasion most enjoyable for the large crowd of Elks and their families who will gather on the beautiful spot to spend the evening. The plans are tentative as yet, but will probably be a basket picnic at 7 o'clock in the evening, followed by a dance in the Cannon Camp hall, complete refreshments for the picnic, and in the morning, and will be a picnic.

Charming Dinner at Booth Home

A charming dinner of Wednesday evening was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Booth at their beautiful home, attended by a number of bankers and their wives from out of town. An attractive arrangement of food and pink flowers, laughter and other charming and delightful was noted at the table and in the room. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Mark Th-dale of Sutherlin, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Laneswell of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Garrison of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Skinner of Winston, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wimberly, and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Simpson, and Mr. and Mrs. Booth of Roseburg.

W. B. A. Enjoy Social Evening

A 3-light social evening was enjoyed Thursday by the Women's Benefit association of the Masonic lodge. The outstanding event of the evening was the drill work of the drill team. The team gave the fancy drill that they had previously given at the convention of the Masonic lodge in Portland, and won much commendation for their splendid team work, and well executed fancy formations. Other numbers were an instrumental solo by Jean Maddox, vocal solo, Mrs. Grant Osborne, solo dance, Mrs. Lillian Christensen, vocal duet, Misses Grace and Gertrude Wickham; readings, Katherine Merrill, string quartet, Mrs. Lambach, Mrs. Strickland, Mrs. Love and Mrs. Pearce.

Several tables of cards were made up following the program, and various games were played. A dainty luncheon was served.

Wedding at Oregon City Wednesday

An attractive wedding which is of much interest to Roseburg folk took place on Wednesday evening at Oregon City, when Miss Thelma Thorne, daughter of Mrs. W. J. Clarke of Roseburg, became the bride of Howard Gildea of McMinnville. The wedding ceremony took place at 7:15 Wednesday evening in the Baptist church, with the Baptist minister reading the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Clarke, and Merrill Thorne, brother of the bride, motored down from Roseburg to attend the ceremony which was witnessed by only close friends and relatives. The bride and groom were attended by Paul and Mrs. E. O. Hamman. Dr. Hamman is principal of the McMinnville high school. The bride was unusually attractive in a traveling suit of beige with matching shoes and hat.

Mrs. Gildea attended school in Roseburg some years ago, and has many school friends here. She is a graduate of O. A. C. and a member of Sigma Kappa sorority. For the past two years she has been head of the domestic science and art department in the McMinnville high school. Mr. Gildea is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gildea of Oregon City, and is practicing law in McMinnville, where the young couple will reside, after a two weeks' honeymoon at Seaside and other beaches.

Dinner Dance on Monday Evening

One of the outstanding social events of the week was the dinner dance on Monday evening for which Mrs. George Robert and Mrs. Roy Bellows were joint hostesses. Dinner was served at 6:30 at the Robert residence on Boulder street at tables with an effective arrangement of pink and white, and lavender and white, sweet peas. Dishes of Dorothy Perkins were adorned the rooms. Mrs. Robert was assisted by Mrs. Roy Bellows, Mrs. J. C. Hume, and Miss Iris Rice.

After the dinner the party adjourned to the Bellows home, and danced for several hours. A very dainty luncheon was served by Mrs. Bellows. The home was fragrant with large clusters of sweet william. The guests enjoying the affair were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Hume, H. Wollenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lewis of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sawyers, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Kilder, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Riddle Girl Will Live in New York

A very pretty young wedding was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Atkins in this city last Saturday evening at 4 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Edith May, was united in marriage to Mr. Leiland Bond, son of H. B. Bond, formerly station agent at Riddle and now residing at Tiller, Oregon, says the Riddle Enterprise.

Miss Florence Sales of Eugene, a former schoolmate of the bride, served as bridesmaid and Alvin Bond, a brother of the groom, as best man. The wedding march was played by Mrs. T. L. Ampacker and Miss Myrtle Adams acted as flower girl. The ceremony was read by Rev. S. L. Hayes of the Community church.

Among the very pleasing features of the wedding were several vocal selections by Velma Pratt.

A beautiful reception was served after the ceremony and the happy couple departed on their honeymoon for New York City, where the groom is employed as advertising agent for the Philadelphia Ledger, a large newspaper owned by the Curtis Publishing company.

Besides the local relatives of the bride, those who witnessed the ceremony were: Mrs. H. B. Bond and Alvin Bond of Tiller, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hayes of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Bond and family from Riddle; Mr. and Mrs. Lester from Astoria; Mrs. Florence Sales of Eugene; Mrs. Edith Hall of Portland; Mrs. A. L. Adams and Miss Edith Adams of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hume, Mrs. Hume and Raymond Atkins of Riddle.
