ROSEBURG, OREGON, SATURDAY, AUGUST 18, 1923.

LOVE FOR THE SOIL.

This country was built up by people who ardently desired to possess a little bit of land, and erect pleasant homes upon it. Their affection for the soil led them to toil early and late, and their energy and devotion built up our fine towns and lovely rural communities. But as the country has grown, many people seem to have no share of this love for the soil. They just flit from one spot to another, sending down no roots anywhere.

One thing is positively sure, and an outstanding fact the Chamber of Commerce of this city is square behind a fine, new bridge leading to Alexander's addition. Last evening's gathering is evidence of this fact. Those citizens who are alert to the needs and welfare of this growing community are a unit for the much needed improvement. They realize that it is only going to be a short space of time until Roseburg will necessarily have to broaden out and take in more territory and where can a more inviting plot of ground be found than that proposed to be reached by a new bridge.

Strange how much better plain lemonade tastes to some folks when you call it punch.

THE VILLAGE RHYMESTER by Carlyle Emery

Dear Folks: Sometimes the wind blows Eastward, sometimes the wind blows West. Whenever way the wind blows, let's be satisfied it's best. When clouds seem bound to gather and our disposition's lit, let's strive a little harder just to sweeten up a bit.

PRUNE PICKIN'S BY BERT G. BATES

GOOD EVENING FOLKS— The dear season Opens Monday And all fellers who Have a habit of Crawling thru the brush Are hereby warned to Wear tin derbies Or make arrangements With Coroner Ritter For the disposal Of their carcass.

DUMBELL DORA THINKS Walter Camp is a summer resort. This is lather night folks. Do your stuff.

Mayor Nap Rice is laboring to make this a city beautiful and Prune Pickin's, by advocating a Sat. night bath want to make it a clean one. Between hizzoner and ye ed. this village should soon be converted into a veritable paradise with the street cleaning dept. wearing "white wings."

A feller dropped into our sanctum yesterday and told us that he had heeded our call to eliminate bathin' beaus from the windshields and taking us by the nap of the neck he lead us to the gutter and showed us the poster on his windshield and it was a pip. The owner of the Detroit had penned a sketch of a portly gent in a screamin' bathin' suit doing a headlong and it was quite a departure from the shapely figures which has caused so many wrecks recently.

The kids of the village are grinnin' from ear to ear today over the talk of postponin' the openin' of school.

The gollufers are getting ready to wear their knickerbockers tomorrow.

"I guess I'm going to be an undertaker after all," said the hobo, snatching a pair of B. V. D's from the line.

A writer says the brainy ones all flock to New York. Well, only the brainy ones can speak the seventeen languages required.

It isn't safe in the opinion of ye ed. to judge a man's ability and achievements by the haughty angle at which he wears his cigar.

CUT THE VILE SLANDER If any little word of ours can make one life the brighter; If any little song of ours can make one heart the lighter; God help us speak that little word, and take one bit of singing. And drop it in some lonely vale and set the echoes ringing.

When we were young, just starting out in the world, we were told that making the first thousand dollars was the hardest. Now they tell us that the first million is the hardest.

Maybe Henry Ford could get a lot more votes for president if he changed the shape of the hoods and tonneaus and painted them some other shade of black.

"The latest thing I have noticed in men's clothing," said a friend "is women."

WE DOUBT IT. Breathes there a man with soul so dead, Who never to himself has said, When he bumped his shin against the bed—

(Censored.) The Alabama man who drove too fast with a wagon load of dynamite is a former Alabama man now.

Some fellows' signatures are so undecipherable that they might just as well save time and sign their names with a cross.

An efficiency expert is usually one who has failed in running some kind of business for himself.

It is a very fortunate occurrence that young men who get married always hold responsible positions.

Singing is Half the Joy of Owning a Gulbransen

The songs you like best to hear, sung by some loved voice, to your own softly-accented, perfectly-timed accompaniment on a Gulbransen. There's genuine enjoyment for you!

Select your song rolls from the hundreds upon hundreds available, with the words already printed on them. The key they are pitched in, doesn't matter. Too high? Too low? Just turn a knob. The Gulbransen instantly transposes.

An ordinary song roll may be played as a splendid and correct accompanying number, on the Gulbransen. The difficult fingering is taken care of by the roll. Through the pedals you register your touch, your time, your expression, following exactly the interpretation given the song by the vocalist.

The boxers train almost every evening at about six o'clock.

COULD HARDLY DO ANY WORK

Since Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound This Woman Feels So Well

Keeseville, N. Y.—"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly for the good it has done me. I was so much troubled with female weakness I could hardly do any work. I saw your advertisement in the paper, and read it to my husband. He said, 'You had better try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; so I bought six bottles, and by taking it I am not troubled as I was. I am gaining strength and getting bushy. My female troubles have vanished and I have never felt so well. The Liver Pills are the best I ever took. If you think my letter will encourage other sufferers you have my permission to use it as an advertisement.'—Mrs. SARAH BLAISE, Box 177, Keeseville, N. Y.

Doing the housework for the average American family is some task, and many women lose their health in so doing. If you, as a housewife, are troubled with backache, irregularities, are easily tired out and irritable, or have other disagreeable ailments caused by some weakness, give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. Let it help you.
