A Way to Save Money

Use Zerolene—a better oil even if it does cost less. Zerolene costs less than many other oils of inferior lubricating quality because of our excellent facilities for producing and distributing it in very large quantities to users on the Pacific Coast. We do not have to pay long-haul transportation and high merchandising costs to make it available. All that you pay for Zerolene goes to buy high quality oil.

Zerolene will reduce your carbon troubles and give you more mileage from your gasoline. It will reduce your upkeep cost, add years to the life of your car and give you greater satisfaction in driving.

Insist on Zerolene—even if it does cost less.

PREPARING FOR BIG FAIR AT MEDFORD

MEDFORD, Aug. 14.—The members of the Jackson county fair directory are busy these days and nights preparing for the biggest fair in the northwest to be held in Medford, September 12th to 15th.

One of the new additions is a half-mile track for running and harness races to cost $2500 now being built.

They are erecting another building 44x120 feet that will contain 60 pens for hogs and sheep. Emergency provisions will also be made for livestock in case the barns do not hold the entries.

Special provision will be made to take care of the boys' and girls' livestock exhibits.

The new race track necessitates the doubling of the present capacity of horse barns and this will be begun at once.

The new grand stand erected recently at a cost of $4000 doubles the seating capacity which was necessary to accommodate the public.

The strengthening of the safety zone fence was also recently done to protect the public, and other necessary improvements have been and are being made costing in all over $8000.

The program of racing events this year is bigger and better than ever and in addition to auto and motorcycle races there will be two running and two harness events each day, with $5,000 in speed purses.

This is one of the best speed programs in the northwest and will attract horsemen, auto and motorcycle drivers and the public generally from all over Oregon and northern California.

New features are to be added this year, one of which will be a horse show every night in which blue-blooded steppers from southern Oregon and northern California and Victoria, B. C., will compete in riding, driving, jumping and other contests.

A string of 22 thoroughbreds from the James McCleave stables in Victoria, B. C., will be here. These horses have shown at the Pacific Live stock show in Portland, the Interstate fair at Spokane, Salem state fair and many other fairs on the coast. They will be opposed by thoroughbreds from Oregon and California.

The fair directory is putting on a much more extensive program and all-around fair than last year and asks the co-operation and support of all the people of southern Oregon to make this a big event.

TITLES STILL RUMBLE THROUGH BERLIN HOTELS

(By Associated Press.) MUNCIE, Aug. 20.—American tourists get many a smile out of the strings of titles shouted through German lobbies and cafes by pages in search of guests who are wanted on the telephone.

"Frau Doctor Professor Director Schmidt, bitte," isn't an unusual mouthful for the pages. The "bitte" is "please," and all the rest of the titles are the property of Mrs. Schmidt's husband, and must be used by servants who want to keep in favor with the lady.

Democracy has not discouraged the German love for titles. And women love them just as much as men, and insist upon having everything attached to their names which belongs to their husband.

"Frau Advokat Braun" is not a woman lawyer. She is Mrs. Lawyer Brown, the wife of Lawyer Brown. And "Frau Doktor Weiss" is the wife of Doctor White. If she happens to be a doctor herself, she will probably be called "Frau Doktor Marie Weiss," or Mrs. Doctor Marie Weiss.

Doctors are so numerous in Germany that telephone directories have the appearance of faculty lists for a medical school in America. But the doctors are not all medical. Everyone who has been awarded a doctorate of philosophy, or a doctorate of science, or a doctorate of law, or theology, uses the "doctor." It is part of his, or her, stock in trade. It is a trade mark of gentility, a social asset which goes on hotel registers and calling cards and establishes the position of the family in any neighborhood.

The German family which hasn't a few doctors in it is out of luck. Folks starve and die for the title. It is cherished far more than depreciated marks. "Doctor" on the doorplate is a sign for all who enter to step lightly and in a highly dignified manner.

For years the name, "Titaeus the Printer," has been synonymous with "good printing."

THE CAMP

Only 12 months before the 1924 camp follows. Don't that seem close enough?

Lost and Found.

Since returning home the camp director has in his possession two machinaws, nightshirt, about 5 combs and a scout knife, and a camera.

Our Next Job.

One of our next jobs is to make up a program which is to be put on the high school parent-teacher meeting sometime in October. This will include the orchestra and several stunts as well as scout teachings. It is probable that the new department in Roseburg scouting will make its appearance at this time also. This will be announced later.

ORCHESTRA

The scout orchestra did not hold practice this week but will open up full force next evening. We will start to make up our program of numbers for our first appearance this fall which will be the first part of October. Remember fellows all out. All the old fellows are expected to be present and also any new ones who wish to sign up.

PICTURES

Many of the scouts who attended camp are looking over pictures taken at camp. All those heard from so far have had dandy success with their pictures. There are some real good ones of scenes along the way and also some dandies of the camp life. Scoutmaster Lindquist would like to see all pictures taken. That he might make up a collection of all camp pictures of the 1923 camp.

Troup Meetings.

We will have to all get settled down again and get to work on our t-shirt for our t-shirt. We have now had our two weeks camp and vacation for other things and we must now get down to business and put over scouting in town this fall. Remember, our t-shirt is due on the 1st of September. We have lots to do this week. It is the little bit we all do that makes scouting what it is. Let's go.

AMERICAN ORCHESTRAS TO PLAY UNDER WAGNER BATON

(By Associated Press.) BAYREUTH, Bavaria, Aug. 20.—Grandfather, father and son will be represented on the programs which Siegfried Wagner will direct in his American tour beginning in New York next January. His concerts will consist of compositions by Liszt who was Siegfried Wagner's maternal grandfather, of the works of his father, Richard Wagner, and of his own contributions to the wealth of classic music which has been created by the group of which he is the last living representative.

Siegfried Wagner has signed agreements to conduct concerts in New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago, Cincinnati, San Francisco and several other cities for the purpose of raising funds for the restoration of the Bayreuth Wagnerian festival next year. He will conduct the local symphony orchestras in the cities named, and in addition engagements will be made for him to direct these orchestras in neighboring cities.

Wagner will also conduct the first performance of his own opera, "Die Meistersinger," to be given at the Manhattan opera house in New York January 29 by the Wagnerian Opera company, which visited America last season. This company will return to America from Germany in the early autumn and open its season in Washington October 15. Herman Weil, formerly of the Metropolitan opera; Maria Iveson, of the Chicago and Munich operas; Rudolph Ritter of the Stuttgart opera, and a number of other new singers have been engaged by Melvin Dailberg to supplement the company which appeared last season in America. Josef Strakosky will serve as guest conductor for a number of the company's performances. Pittsburgh, Chicago, Cincinnati, Baltimore, Cleveland, Washington, Milwaukee and Buffalo will be visited.

GIRL NABS BAD BILL PASSER.

Portland papers today devoted much space to the bravery of Miss Herta Forrest, cashier at the Majestic theatre in Portland, who grappled with and held a man who passed a counterfeit bill on her. The bill was marked $20 on one side and $5 on the other. She became so angry she walked out of the booth and grappled with the man, until the manager arrived and turned him over to the police. The Majestic theatre in Portland is owned by Frank Lacey, formerly of this city, and who started that theatre here. He is well known in Roseburg, having been a resident for a number of years.

1923 CAMP.

Considerable could be said pertaining to the camp, however, we will try and hit the high spots of the camp for this issue. The camp report later will show up those items that I do not touch on this time. The advance guard left Roseburg July 28th. The Camp Director arrived on the first of the scouts arrived Friday, Saturday and the balance on Sunday evening. Camp opened in force on Monday morning with the regular program, torch and every fellow during his two weeks had a chance to enjoy K. P. wood, sanitation and other details as part of his camp instruction.

There was a number of games played during the camp. Every boy was required to take part whether he liked it or not. The idea being to support his patrol and win the camp honor.

There were four patrols in camp and each patrol was represented in every game. The baseball tournament was won by the first patrol. The volleyball tournament was also won by the first patrol. In the racing event the fourth patrol took the first three places. The patrol standing jump was won by the first patrol. The patrol knot tying race was won by the first patrol.

There are several other events that have been decided as we have not had time to report of the "Chef" or these subjects.

During the first week tent 15 won the pie, the best were all members of the fourth patrol. The second week tent 1 took the pie. These boys being members of patrol 1.

The second week was devoted more to scout advancement. Some tests were also taken during the first week but much more stress was placed on this work the second week. The boys walked around the lake for their 14 mile hike.

On Friday evening, August 10, the entire camp hour was devoted to the concessions to take part in the Harding memorial service. Those taking part were the Presbyterian minister of Medford, the Methodist minister of Ashland, the mayor of Klamath Falls, Scoutmaster Lindquist of Roseburg and the Douglas boy scouts.

One of the happiest moments of the day I believe was when the canteen opened. Immediately after dinner the canteen opened and each boy was allowed to purchase the worth of candy. By the time the director arrived at the tent to open the canteen one would find a line of snatching boys numbering from 1 to 10.

Another happy time was when the mail arrived. A mail scramble was always made when the News-Review arrived.

The temperature was quite different at camp than at

When this notice was placed on the board it was not very long before the first patrol passed them on points and they kept adding during the entire second week. At the end of camp it was found that the first patrol was far in the lead with no chance of any one coming near them. The other patrols are all in a group, their points being within 25 points of each other.

Every evening was given over to the camp fire. This was started about 8 o'clock. Each patrol had an evening to put on a program. As usual was the King of the camp fire. He always had something new and also was also forced to give "seconds" on some of the selections. Many of which were original. The "Chef" also came in for his share of the entertainment, having some good stories for us. Patrol 1 put over the best stunt of any of the patrols. It being, "The Surge Operation."

We also took a few hikes. One day 17 scouts and the scoutmaster left camp at 8:30 a. m. and started up Mt. Bailey. We arrived at the top at 12:30. It was a stiff climb and some what difficult at the top. We went up one side and down on the other.

In going up we did not follow the regular trail but made our own. The trail which was much shorter. In coming down we found a patch of snow about 10 feet deep. It was indeed a short. We arrived in camp about 5 that evening. All enjoyed the trip even though many had blisters on their feet. After hearing stories of the climb, those who remained home were glad they did not go. Our next climb was up Mt. Theillon.

Twenty one started on this trip but after the first mile 6 dropped out and returned to camp, the balance going on. We went about three quarters of the way to the top. This was a much easier climb than Mt. Bailey. We left at 8:30 a. m. and returned to camp at 12:30. It was also a much shorter trip. Several trips were made to the concessions and a number of the boys walked around the lake for their 14 mile hike.

The temperature was quite different at camp than at

Roseburg. It was considerably hotter in the afternoon and very cold at night. It was a common thing to find aicum of ice on the water in the morning. The country is very dusty on account of the pumpkins. Our drinking water was extremely good. It was very cold, registering, we're told 25 degrees F. It was obtained from Short Creek. This creek was also our ice box.

Swimming was fairly good. I say this because the boys all came in on their own accord before the half hour period was up and some days they would not go in.

We also had a few visitors. We met the scoutmaster of troop 51 Portland and also the scoutmaster of Whitman Lake the Portland scout camp. Mr. and Mrs. Bates of Myrtle Creek paid us a visit as did Mrs. Morgan of this city.

It might do well to put in a few of the menus that were put over. The following are a few breakfasts: July 20, rolled oats, boiled eggs, corn, bread, jam, August 2, apricot sauce, wheat flakes, cocoa, bread, butter, August 4, prunes, pancakes, wheat flakes, cocoa, butter, August 6, corn, bread, butter, August 8, corn, bread, butter, August 10, corn, bread, butter, August 12, corn, bread, butter, August 14, corn, bread, butter, August 16, corn, bread, butter, August 18, corn, bread, butter, August 20, corn, bread, butter, August 22, corn, bread, butter, August 24, corn, bread, butter, August 26, corn, bread, butter, August 28, corn, bread, butter, August 30, corn, bread, butter, September 1, corn, bread, butter, September 3, corn, bread, butter, September 5, corn, bread, butter, September 7, corn, bread, butter, September 9, corn, bread, butter, September 11, corn, bread, butter, September 13, corn, bread, butter, September 15, corn, bread, butter, September 17, corn, bread, butter, September 19, corn, bread, butter, September 21, corn, bread, butter, September 23, corn, bread, butter, September 25, corn, bread, butter, September 27, corn, bread, butter, September 29, corn, bread, butter, September 31, corn, bread, butter.

I think you will agree that all is good substantial food and many times "seconds" were served. The main items. It was a common sight to see 25 quart mulligan stew pass out of stabb.

Everyone seemed to enjoy the camp while there and all were willing to stay with it. Of course we have our good campers and our crabs and poor campers. Those who were in all camps. But when the first car arrived to take some homebound then all were ready to go. I believe the whole camp would have been in those two cars if it were possible. The first cars left Sunday morning at 6 a. m. Boys were leaving at various times from then on. Mr. Shaw took three, Mr. Johnson three, Mr. Love three, Mr. Opie three, the first two cars combined took fourteen, Mr. Moore three, leaving about 11 in camp for Sunday evening. On Monday morning the balance left as follows, Mr. Runyan three, Mr. Shoenaker four, Mr. Cray three, and the truck two and all were then homebound. From all reports the boys enjoyed themselves and declare it a good camp.

DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE TO STANDARDIZE MOHAIR GRADES

The U. S. department of agriculture thru the bureau of agricultural economics is undertaking the standardization of mohair grades as has been done in the case of wool grades. The work is under the direction of George T. Willingmyre, wool specialist of the department. Work in mohair has been carried on in Texas. The mohair grades are substantially those already in use by the Pacific Cooperative Wool Growers, in their mohair grading operations in Portland. R. A. Ward, manager of the Pacific Cooperative Wool Growers, conferred with Mr. Willingmyre relative to the grades furnished the department of agriculture with working samples of the grades now in use, to assist in its new undertaking. Standardization of mohair grades is constructive work that will mean much to mohair growers.
