SEASON FOR GROUSE OPENS ON SEPT. 10

According to Ed Walker, local game warden, there is quite a difference of opinion as to the open season on blue or ruffed grouse and on blue pheasants, and since it is quite an important matter that a general knowledge of the law governing the open season be had, the News-Review publishes herewith the section governing this matter...

WALKOUT INEVITABLE

Miners Make Plans to Suspend Work in Anthracite Fields on Sept. 15. (By United Press.) ATLANTIC CITY, Aug. 22.—The leaders of the miners today made final arrangements for the suspension of work in the anthracite fields on September 15. Following the collapse of the wage negotiations yesterday the union chiefs rushed to completion all details incident to the walkout of 150,000 men...

BRUNES HELD LITTLE KNOWN

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 22.—Not one person in 50 in the middle western territory out of Chicago, and in Illinois in particular, are acquainted with the Oregon prune, according to J. R. Sibley of Dallas, who returned recently from a trip which took him as far east as Detroit. Mr. Sibley said that in desire to realize any substantial profit from their prune orchards, it will be necessary for them to start an extensive advertising campaign.
